U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WEATHER BUREAU

DAILY WEATHER MAP

Washington, D. C., Tuesday, July 14, 1936—8 A. M. (E. S. T.)

FORECASTS UNTIL 8 P. M. WEDNESDAY

STATE FORECASTS

District of Columbia, partly cloudy and warmer generally local thunderstorms tonight, Wednesday generally fair, cooler Wednesday afternoon and night; moderate southerly shifting to northwest winds.

Maryland, mostly cloudy and slightly warmer, possibly local thunderstorms tonight, Wednesday generally fair, except local thunderstorms in extreme west portion; cooler Wednesday afternoon and night.

Virginia, generally fair, warmer in western portion tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight, cooler Wednesday afternoon and night.

Maine, fair tonight and Wednesday; cooler, except warmer on the extreme northeast coast, tonight; cooler under Wednesday.

New Hampshire and Vermont, fair and much cooler tonight and Wednesday.

Massachusetts, generally fair tonight and Wednesday, preceded by local thunderstorms this afternoon; cooler in the southeast coast only tonight; cooler, except on the coast, tonight; cooler under Wednesday.

Rhode Island and Connecticut, local thunderstorms this afternoon or early tonight; cooler, except on the south coast, tonight; Wednesday fair and much cooler.

Eastern New York, generally fair tonight and Wednesday, preceded by local thunderstorms in extreme east portion this afternoon or early tonight; cooler tonight; much cooler Wednesday.

Eastern Pennsylvania, local thunderstorms this afternoon or early tonight, cooler in north portion tonight; Wednesday generally fair and cooler.

New Jersey, generally fair tonight and Wednesday, preceded by thunderstorms this afternoon or tonight; cooler in north portion tonight; Wednesday generally fair and cooler.

Tennessee and Kentucky, generally fair and continued warm tonight and Wednesday, except scattered thunderstorms in extreme southeast portion.

West Virginia, generally fair tonight and Wednesday, except scattered thunderstorms Wednesday afternoon, continued warm, except not quite so warm in north portion Wednesday.

Western New York, generally fair and considerably cooler tonight and Wednesday.

Western Pennsylvania, generally fair tonight and Wednesday, except possibly scattered thunderstorms in north portion; cooler Wednesday and cooler tonight.

Ohio, generally fair Wednesday, except scattered thunderstorms in extreme east portion Wednesday afternoon; not quite so warm in extreme north portion tonight; cooler in north and not quite so warm in south portion Wednesday.

GENERAL FORECAST

North and Middle Atlantic States, the lower Lake region, the Ohio Valley, and Tennessee: The indications are for local thunderstorms in the North Atlantic States and the north portion of the Middle Atlantic States this afternoon or early tonight, and in the south portion of the Middle Atlantic States tonight or Wednesday, and for generally fair weather elsewhere tonight and Wednesday, except for widely scattered

WEATHER CONDITIONS LAST 24 HOURS

WIND SAMPLE INDICATIONS

G. A. MARBLE

TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1936—8 A. M.

Reports from Atlantic, Pacific, and Alaskan Stations

Reports from Canadian Stations

Close 29.6 70°

Price: Daily (including Sundays and holidays) $5.00 a year, 20 cents a month. Weekly (except Sundays) $2.50 a year, 25 cents a month. Send subscriptions to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C.