

And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves;... 2 Timothy 2:24-25 (KJV)

Compassion

Ancient Wisdom for Modern Life

Some people thrive on confrontation, while others steer clear of it. Sadly, confrontation will continue to be a fact of life as long as people have breath in their bodies to disagree. It does not have to involve anger, though. Words said in anger rarely bring about the results hoped for. God teaches us to be gentle, patient and meek with the opposition and treat them with respect. Only then will our words be heard and have a chance of making an impact.
