Living and working in the Bitterroot is special, and being the local source for news and advertising is a privilege and something we take pride in at the Ravalli Republic. "Bitterroot's Best" spotlights all the businesses, groups and people that make up our community and make this place so special. This is a fun project and labor of love for the Ravalli Republic. And recognizing the Best in each category, is a high honor for all those involved and nominated. This is a great opportunity for us to celebrate them and their hard work!

Thank you for voting, and as you look through this publication, do so with pride knowing that you're engaged and lucky to be part of the rich community of the Bitterroot Valley.

BEST DAY CARE

CURIOUS MINDS MONTESSORI AND PRESCHOOL, INC.

When the Bitterroot Valley community voted Curious Minds Montessori and Preschool as the Best Daycare of 2026, our hearts, honestly, overflowed. But when we sat down to think about who truly deserves this honor, the answer was immediate and unanimous: our staff.

Every single day, the teachers of Curious Minds show up with something that cannot be taught in a training manual, genuine love for the children in their care. From the smallest infants taking their first curious looks at the world, to our preschoolers leaving us ready for kindergarten, our team meets each child exactly where they are. They know which toddler needs an extra hug on a Monday morning. They celebrate every milestone, the first steps, first words, first friendships as if they were their own family's milestones. Because in many ways, they are.

We set the bar high at Curious Minds, for ourselves, for our program, and for every family we serve. We believe children are capable of far more than they are often given credit for, and our teachers rise to that belief every day. They bring creativity, patience, and relentless dedication to a standard of care that our children have every right to expect.

We see the results every single day. The child who arrives shy in September and is leading classroom activities by spring. The toddler who couldn't separate from mom at drop-off, and now runs in with excitement. The parents who tell us their children come home talking, creating, problem-solving, and asking when they get to go back to school.

Our teachers don't simply follow a curriculum. They follow each child's curiosity. They create environments where an infant feels safe enough to trust, where a toddler feels brave enough to try, and where a preschooler feels smart enough to lead. That warmth isn't accidental; it is carefully cultivated by a team that chooses this work because they are called to it. We also know that trust is everything. Parents place the most precious people in their lives in our hands each morning, and we never take that lightly. Our staff communicates openly, welcomes questions, and treats every family as a true partner in their child's growth and happiness.

We are proud of the space we've built here in Hamilton – but buildings don't love children. People do. And the people of Curious Minds are extraordinary.

To our staff: this award is yours. You are the reason a community of thousands pointed to Curious Minds and said, that's the best.

Hamilton and the Bitterroot Valley, thank you. We are so proud to serve this valley.

Voted Bitterroot's Best for 10 straight years.

We're starting to suspect a bias toward really great plants.

Truth is, it's you—our loyal customers—who keep showing up, digging in, and making K&S what it is. Thanks for helping us grow (and for putting up with our plant puns) for 10 straight years.
