March is the month for shellfish and submarines

March has always been one of my favorite months. Not quite at the top of the list with May, June and July, but still not far from the top.

Maybe it's because I detest cold weather, and March represents the bridge between winter and spring, which officially begins Friday, March 20. The first real signs of warmer days come during March, as does the return of green to lawns and tree lines and pastels to flowers.

Or maybe it's because of my own personal connections to the month. My parents' wedding anniversary was in March. And I have nice memories of some long-ago March afternoons tooling around with my best friends Steve and Scott in my old Ford LTD Brougham, Jimmy Buffett's One Particular Harbor album cycling in the cassette player.

Everyone knows St. Patrick's Day is in March, but did you know that each day of March has its own special designation, bizarre, unique and wacky as it may be? I didn't until coming across a list of them recently, so as you're checking off days on your calendar, don't forget about the following observances.

March 1: Peanut Butter Lovers' Day.

March 2: Old Stuff Day.

March 3: Peach Blossom Day.

March 4: Hug a GI Day.

March 5: Multiple Personality Day.

March 6: Employee Appreciation Day.

March 7: National Crown Roast of Pork Day.

(I'm not making this up. Honest.)

March 8: International Working Women's Day.

March 9: Panic Day.

March 10: Middle Name Pride Day.

(Mine's Edward, after my grandfather.)

March 11: Johnny Appleseed Day.

March 12: Plant a Flower Day.

March 13: Ear Muff Day.

March 14: National Potato Chip Day.

(For all the math nerds out there, it's also National Pi Day.)

March 15: Incredible Kid Day.

March 16: Freedom of Information Day.

March 17: Submarine Day.

(Whether this day is in honor of the sandwich or the independently-operated underwater pressurized vehicle remains unclear.)

March 18: National Agriculture Day.

March 19: Poultry Day.

March 20: Extraterrestrial Abductions Day.

March 21: National Quilting Day.

March 22: National Goof-off Day.

(For those who need a special occasion.)

March 23: National Chip and Dip Day.

March 24: National Chocolate Covered Raisin Day.

March 25: Waffle Day.

March 26: Make Up Your Own Holiday Day.

(For any who might be inspired by this list.)

March 27: National Joe Day.

March 28: Something on a Stick Day.

March 29: National Mom and Pop Business Owners Day.

March 30: Take a Walk in the Park Day.

March 31: Bunsen Burner Day.

Here at Lakeside Living, we're celebrating March by visiting local Realtor Sylvia Bentley in her deep water home near Lincoln. We also have some photos to show you from the Birmingham Boat Show and its salute to Logan Martin Lake, not to mention the Alabama Wildlife Federation's Wild Game Cook-Off. And if you're wondering why you can't listen to local radio station WFHK The River on 94.9 FM any more, we have the answer for you.

Please enjoy this issue, and if you're up for some seafood, let me know, and I'll see you March 31 for National Clam on the Half Shell Day. 🍷

HOOK, LINE & SINKER

CALENDAR KEY

Fishing Condition: This is the overall rating for the whole day, based upon our formula:

Best ■ Good ■ Fair ■ Poor ■

Best Time: This column lists the best time of the day when, according to our formula, fish will be biting: MORNING; EVENING.

Crappie Fishing Tips

- The Best Live Bait Setup: One of the best bait setups for crappie is to use a Number 6 hook, a small split shot, a live minnow and a slip bobber. The slip bobber will allow you to adjust for any depth while not sacrificing casting ability. Hook the minnow either through both lips or just behind the top dorsal fin.
- Fish the Right Depth. Crappie can usually be found between three and six feet of water. During the peak of summer, crappie will move to deeper areas and come out to the surface during dawn and dusk to feed.
- Keep the Line Tight. Crappie are known to have a soft lip. This means that they can tear easily and shake your hook if the line isn't kept tight enough. Luckily, crappie will put up a good fight, so keeping your line tight shouldn't be a difficult task.
- Don't be in a Hurry. Crappie will give you more action if you are slow and steady with your jig and/or minnow. Try to avoid retrieving your cast too quickly. If you're not getting any action and you know crappie are in the area, try slowing down.

Oxford saying that they were picking us up there, which is a much wider area than we were reaching on 94.9.”

The station continues to broadcast at AM frequency 1430. On the air since 1956, it was acquired by Stocks Broadcasting in 2000 and began FM broadcasts in August, 2013, when the station was rebranded as The River.

“That name goes along with the lake, obviously,” Stocks said. “We tossed around some other ideas, but The River was the one that really stood out.”

With a new name and a new frequency also came a new format.

“We want to be your new at-work radio station,” Stocks said. “When we went from AM to FM, we changed our format from country to adult contemporary. For the morning show, it’s me and John Simpson talking local issues, and that’s one of the things that sets us apart. We talk local politics and let you know when there are icy roads. Stations in Birmingham aren’t going to tell you that 174 is iced over or 231 is closed between Asheville and Pell City.”

By popular demand, one program that left the air when WFHK went FM will return in a different format.

“We’re bringing back the Swap Shop,” Stocks said. “That was a longstanding show on AM six days a week. It’s coming back one day a week – Saturday at 8 a.m. – and for a 30-minute time slot. The format will be very quick – tell us what you have for sale, tell us what you’re looking for, and on to the next caller. We’re FM, yeah, but we’re still a community radio station.”

WFHK will begin its fourth decade of broadcasting Pell City High School football games this fall, “and we’re looking at viable ways of getting some more local schools and local sports on the air,” he said. “St. Clair County is really our focus, and we want to showcase as much of it as we can. Being an active part of the community is important for us.”

Also important, according to Stocks, is maintaining a small, hometown feel even as the station expands its coverage area.

“We want to be the station you turn on when you’re out on the pontoon, spending an afternoon by the lake or doing yard work at home. We want to be the station everyone can listen to and will want to listen to.”

Wild Game on the Menu at AWF Cook-Off

Grilled wild pig roast wrapped in bacon.

Swordfish, quail, venison dishes win awards

Story by ELSIE HODNETT

Although Blue Crab Boudin Balls, Quail Egg Bread Pudding, Redneck Deer Loaf and Lazy Shrimp put up a fight, the "Best Overall" title went to Smokin-N-Jokin BBQ from Alexander City for its Apple Valley

Venison.

The Smokin-N-Jokin team of Chad and Khara Jones secured a spot in the state finals in August to compete for the title of AWF 2015 Wild Game Cook-Off State Champion.

"The creativity this year was fantastic," said Jim Dunaway, one of the cook-off judges. Other judges included Rick Karle, Chris Rossi, Lisa Crane, Ted

When life turns golden...

Always There Provides the Silver Lining.

At 75-years old, Jane Schroeder's life is golden.

"Being able to remain in her home is very important to her," says Jane's daughter Jen Schroeder. "Always There In-Home Care makes that possible. She dearly loves her caregiver, Amelia."

For over a year, Always There's Amelia Gibson has nurtured a special relationship with Mrs. Schroeder that transcends helping maintain her home and preparing her meals. They have become friends. In fact, when Mrs. Schroeder takes her two walks per day, she carries her cane in one hand and Amelia on the other. Jen says, "We can't imagine having anyone else care for her."

Like many adult children of aging parents, Jen has a busy personal life, which presents challenges in her ability to offer constant attention to her mother. Always There offers Jen a solution - call it a silver lining - to that cloudy issue. My mother is not always easy to deal with. I tried other companies in the area, and Always There has been by far the best. In particular their Care Management services have been a huge help with planning and decision-making. I couldn't be more pleased with their dependability and service."

WHO SENDS A REPLACEMENT WHEN MY REGULAR CAREGIVER CALLS OFF SICK?

IS THE COMPANY INSURED, LICENSED, AND BONDED?

ARE CAREGIVERS EMPLOYEES OF THE COMPANY OR MERELY INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS?

Davis Bait, Industries Support Youth Fishing

Shaky lure creator considers it an important investment

Story and photos
by BUDDY ROBERTS

William Davis is a firm believer in the impact the sport of fishing can have on a child's life.

That's why every package of fishing lures produced by Davis Bait Company includes the slogan, "Make an investment. Take a kid fishing."

"I believe in youth fishing so much, I wanted our packaging to show it," he said. "If you're a parent and you enjoy fishing, you need to invest some time and take your children fishing. If you can keep kids involved in the outdoors, whether it's hunting or fishing, you won't have to worry about them later on."

For Davis, it's an investment he knew he needed to make for the benefit of his own family.

"I had a five-year-old son who was basically growing up without a daddy," he said. "I was working at the paper mill and doing the bait business, and I was doing both full-time. I prayed about the situation,

The Shaky Worm and Worm Head, which combine to make a one-piece lure, is Davis' flagship product.

and it was clear what I needed to do."

Davis left his manufacturing job to focus on his family and the business he started in his garage more than 30 years ago and has never regretted it.

"My son has been a blessing to me," he said. "He's my best friend and my fishing partner. I know what happens to kids when they don't get the time they need from their parents, and that's why I encourage parents to go fishing with their kids. If they don't like to fish, just spend some time with them."

A native of Sylacauga, Davis launched his bait company with the hand-crafted Shaky Worm and Shaky Worm Head. The worm itself is now available in 36 colors, and the heads are available in nine different designs and 14 colors.

He incorporated Davis Industries in 1999 to produce lures for other companies. Both businesses operate in his facility on Third Street in Sylacauga.

An Eye for Potential

Cosmopolitan Realtor Sylvia Bentley shows off 'exotic' lakeside home

Story by BUDDY ROBERTS

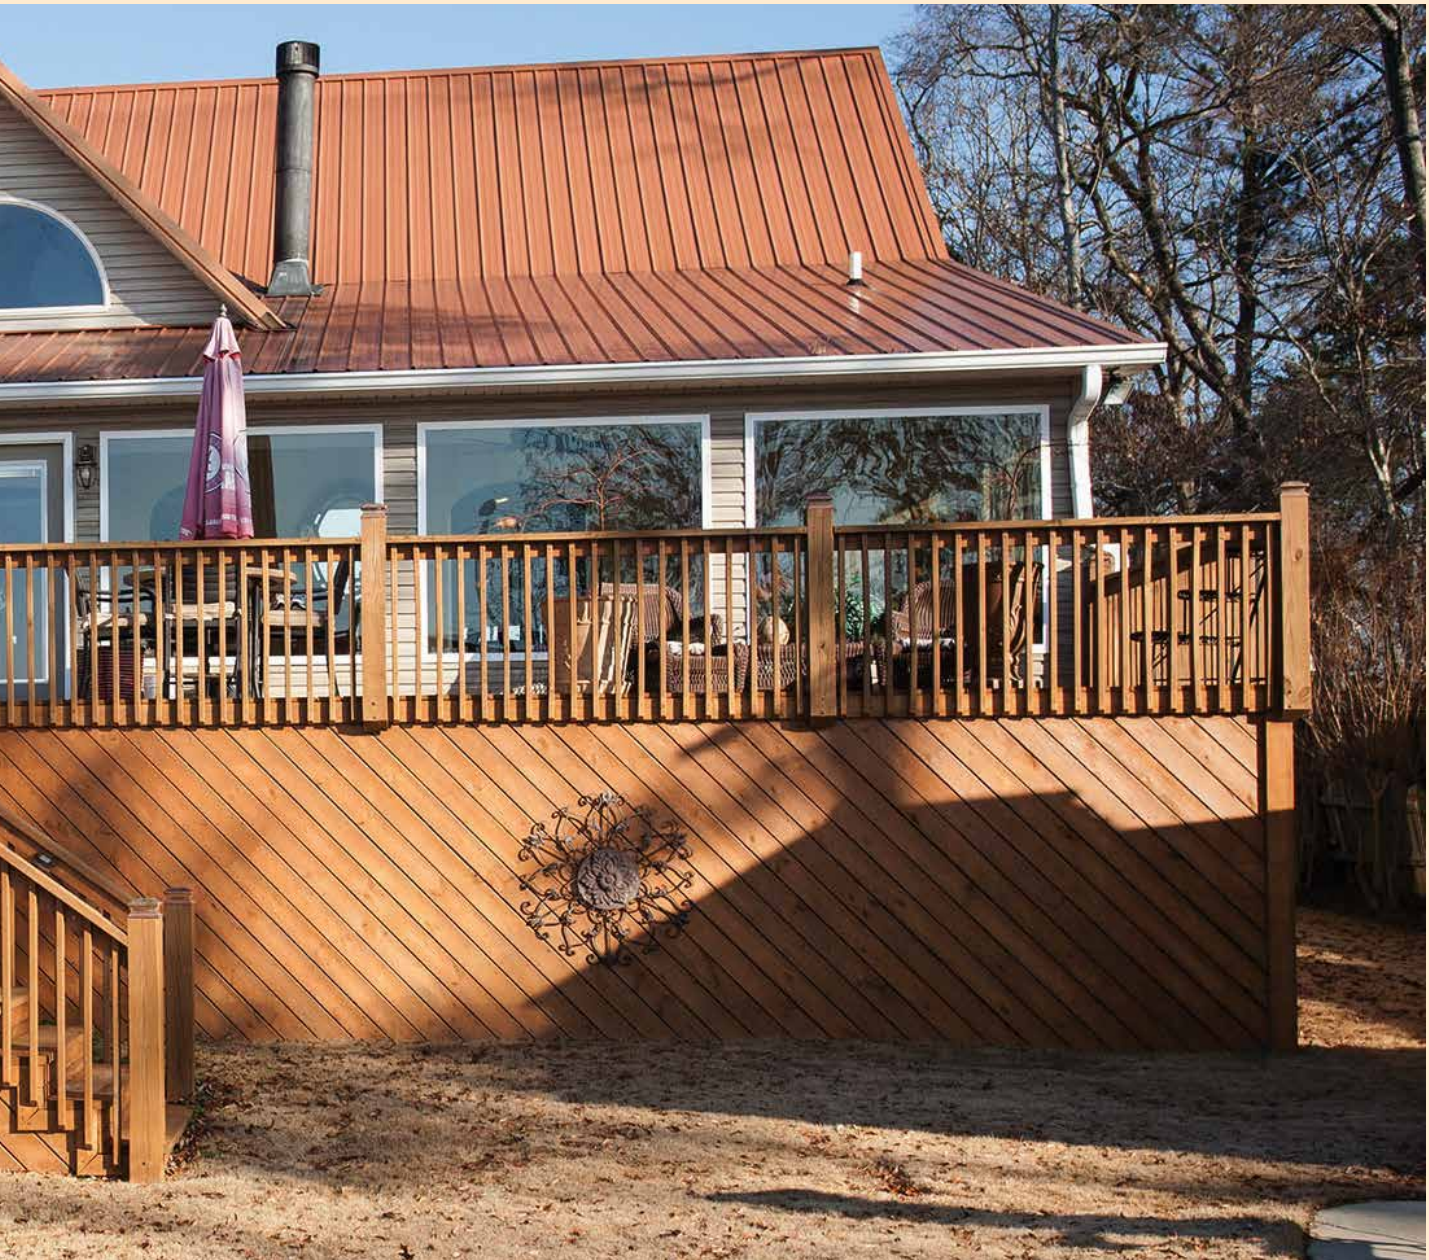

Photos by BOB CRISP

With its nondescript siding and metal roof, the unassuming exterior of Sylvia Bentley's lakeside home in Lincoln doesn't prepare visitors for the brilliant décor that greets them upon entering.

Asked how she describes it, Bentley was pensive. "I don't know," she said finally. "What would you call it?"

"Exotic" was suggested, to which the Realtor agreed. Considering that she was born in Paris and her mother is from Casablanca, perhaps it's only to be expected that Bentley's décor would reflect her exotic and cosmopolitan roots.

In her home are influences of Paris, Chicago, New Orleans, north Africa and the Mediterranean. Earth tones are punctuated with splashes of bright color: blue, orange and red. A Crimson Tide flag is an homage to her college football loyalty and her Alabama heritage (her father is a native of Anniston).

Although it took six months of renovations to get it to its present appearance, Bentley said she could see its potential when she first saw it. "I think it's a talent to be able to do that. I've known people who have been in the real estate business for years, and they have trouble with it. You have to have an eye for it.”

Bentley has developed her talent for seeing a property’s potential during a 30-year career in real estate. “I love getting to meet people and seeing their houses,” she said, and she knew what it would take to give it a facelift.

The 3,000 square-foot house was “completely gutted,” walls were removed, a sunroom and a garage were added and a pool was installed. A fireplace was added to the living room, and a first-floor bedroom was converted into a jazz-themed sitting room. Hardwood floors replaced white carpet. Squared door frames were replaced by arches. Trees were removed from the rear of the property to afford a full lake view.

Two years later, the house is a testament to Bentley’s vision and eye for seeing potential, and it’s an example of how lake homes can increase in value. “The house next door just sold for a little under a million,” she said. “The water sells, regardless of what the rest of real estate does.”

The sunroom offers a full view of some of the deepest water in Logan Martin Lake.

Bentley’s advice to potential buyers of lakefront properties is to “make sure you understand what year-round water means. Not everyone does when buying lake properties. Year-round water means you can take a boat out on it any time of year. A lot of people say they have it, but a lot of people really don’t.”

The Bentleys own one of the “deepest lots over here,” she said, reaching a depth of 25 feet in summer and five feet at winter levels. “We see people on boats out here all the time,” she said, pointing out a trio of anglers in a bass boat cruising by her dock. “We have plenty of deep water here even in the winter.”

Meet Me by the Ashton Carden

By BUDDY ROBERTS

Pell City native Ashton Carden grew up around Logan Martin Lake and has many fond memories of lakeside sights and sounds even as she's making new memories planning her April wedding.

A lakeside childhood: "I've lived on the water since I was in third grade. When we lived in River Oaks, one of my favorite things on Saturday mornings was when the bass boats would go by as they left out of Town & Country for the fishing tournaments. I loved to hear them."

Her favorite lake activity: Tooling around on watercraft. "I feel free and excited when I'm out on the water. It gives you time and space to clear your head, and I love to see all the wildlife."

Her favorite lakeside companion: Taz, her 5-year-old miniature Pinscher.

Planning her wedding: "It's been nuts. I could not have done it by myself. I really thought it would be easy, but I had no idea. So I've had a lot of help from my mother. She's done so much, and so have my cousins and my best friend, Katie."

The aspect of planning she enjoyed most: "Getting my dress. I took my mom, my grandmother, my Aunt Sonia, my cousins, my soon-to-be sister-in-law and my best friend, and I tried the dresses on for them, but I didn't tell any of them which dress I picked out. I want it to be a surprise to everyone. Even Hunter. He and I will not see each other until I walk down the aisle. I'm very traditional." 🍷

March 21 Renew Our Rivers.

The community cleanup event will be at various locations on Logan Martin Lake beginning at 8 a.m. Volunteers are asked to contact the coordinator for supplies and further details. A picnic lunch will follow at Lakeside Landing. For more information, call Johnny Capps of the Logan Martin Lake Protection Association at (205) 531-5480.

March 6 Celebrations will host Pell City's "Dancing with Our Stars" at 7 p.m. Friday, March 6.

The event, sponsored by the Pell City Line Dancers, is a fund raiser for Pell City's Relay for Life/American Cancer Society.

Tickets are $25 each, which includes food and entertainment, and may be purchased at the Pell City Coffee Company and Main Street Drugs.

March 27-28 Coosa Canoe & Kayak Fishing Tournament.

The event began in 2012 and has since grown to be the largest kayak fishing tournament trail in Alabama, and Logan Martin Lake hosts the trail's first event of 2015. The charitable, no-motor contest is focused on river conservation and provides a backdrop for camaraderie and forming great memories for the young and old, experienced and rookies. While the tournament is more about having fun, there is plenty of competition for serious anglers. The tournaments are family-friendly and boats are available for rent if this is your first time to try kayak fishing. ## Realty Executives

2408 Cogswell Ave. • Pell City, AL 35120 • 205.338.6683

Love this house?

Deep-water home offers spectacular view

Story by ELSIE HODNETT
Photos by BOB CRISP

This Logan Martin Lake deep-water home features awesome landscaping and million-dollar views from every window.

The house, located at 150 Grand Terrace in Talladega, was built in 2008. It sits on two lots with a 2,900-square-foot three-bay garage that with ceilings high enough to accommodate two RVs.

There is a new boat launch along the 200 feet of water frontage and a seawall with covered pier and boat lift.

The house features an open floor plan with beautiful hardwoods and granite throughout and a screened porch.

The master bedroom on the main level has a sitting area with a see-through fireplace. The living room also has a fireplace, and there are high ceilings on all three levels.

The downstairs is finished as an apartment or work area. The air-conditioned two-car garage downstairs is deep enough to hold a boat.

This all-main-level-living house is perfect for the young-at-heart.

The house is listed at $875,000. For more information, call Nancy Locklar with Realty Executives Complete at 205-362-6888.

Community is important to ERA King's Kay McKinney.

Story by BUDDY ROBERTS
SUBMITTED PHOTO

Community is important to ERA King's Kay McKinney.

"I love to be out in the community meeting new people and taking such a big step in their journey through life," the Realtor said. "I love my job."

A member of the Pell City Civitan Club, currently serving as treasurer, McKinney works with children who have special needs and volunteers at the Colonel Robert L. Howard State Veterans Home in Pell City. "I involve my two daughters in that," she said. "We try to make being involved in the community a family affair."

It's the same with real estate.

"My husband is a surveyor, so we're able to work that hand-in-hand as sort of a family business. That way we can keep it together with the kids so they can be involved in that, too. It gives us a lot of flexibility so that we can work wherever we are, even if we're out of town."

McKinney is a native of Lincoln. "I have lived in this area all my life. I know this community very well. I have said many times that this job is ideal for my personality. I can meet new wonderful people. I love to negotiate on my clients' behalf to get the best deal. My priority to them is excellent service, with creative service in every detail of the real estate transaction."

A member of the National Association of Realtors and the Birmingham Association of Realtors, she believes the real estate market is picking up, especially properties on Logan Martin Lake.

"The lake properties are definitely desirable, and they are really picking up. If there is anything I could say, it's that we need more inventory. If anybody is on the fence about putting their home on the market, now is a great time to do it.

"For sellers, I can offer fresh ideas for working through all the steps of the process: staging the home, planning strategies to sell the house, finding the next place that you can call home. Both buying and selling can be very stressful."

McKinney said she subscribes to a philosophy aimed at making the process as stress-free as possible.

"I am a true believer in the Golden Rule. I will work to guide buyers through the entire process and help them find just the right home within their financial comfort zone. I do not believe in going above what you can afford and eating peanut butter and jelly sandwiches every night."
