Alabama School for the Deaf

Baccalaureate services are scheduled for 10 a.m. Wednesday, May 27, in Hawkins Chapel. Commencement exercises will begin at 3:30 p.m. in McFarland Auditorium.

The commencement speaker will be Brandi Rarus, author of the book, Finding Zoe: A Deaf Woman's Story of Identity, Love, and Adoption. Deaf since age six after contracting spinal meningitis, she could speak and read lips but felt caught between the deaf and hearing world – fitting into neither.

Growing up in the 1970s and 1980s, when being deaf was still considered a handicap and prejudice was pervasive, Rarus faced great personal struggle. It wasn't until she reached a turning point, finally realizing you don't need to hear to live a fulfilled life that she became empowered with a newfound spirit and was chosen as Miss Deaf America. From signing the National Anthem at a Chicago Cubs game to making presentations at corporate conferences, she has traveled the country speaking out for deaf children and building awareness of what it means to be deaf.

Rarus' dream of becoming a mother was realized when she met and married Tim Rarus, an advocate for deaf people whose work inspired the landmark Americans with Disabilities Act. Together they have paved the way to bring new technologies that promote equal access in communication. Brandi and Tim live in Austin, Texas, with their four children – three hearing boys and the youngest, Zoe, a deaf girl whom they adopted and who needed to find parents uniquely prepared to help her thrive in a silent world.

Today, she and her family are tirelessly dedicated to ensuring that all children like Zoe find their rightful place in our world by shedding light on the adoption process and the need for early intervention with children of different needs.

Candidates for graduation are Lonzo DeShea Brownlee and Marshe' Alleyana Shakur Brownlee of Centerpointe, James Conrad Bru of Birmingham, Kelly Nicole Ciganek of Fyffe, Brett Marshall Eastwood of Anniston, Rashard Amun James of Lanett, Thomas William Darren Kelly of Lincoln, Matthew Dillon Lowry of Flat Rock, Cody Eugene Maddox of Hayden, Kered McKenzie Mancone of Carbon Hill, Jeremy Alexander Phillips of Cusseta, Caleria Wynica Usher of Birmingham, Rydrea DaShun Walker of Fayette, Victor Luke Wallace of Fayette, Tresha Le'Wanda Waters of Birmingham and Meesha Desiree Whisenant of Arab.

EDUCATION

Knowledge Is Power

It seems like just yesterday they were starting kindergarten. Education is a vital part of the cooperative's commitment to the community. That's why we sponsor classroom activities and provide thousands of dollars in scholarships to students each year. Knowledge is power – the power of human connections.

At Honda, we do more than build cars.

We fuel dreams.

The joy of creating is grounded in Honda's commitment to imagination, curiosity and innovative ideas. When visionaries are freed from what's always been done to think about what's never been done before, the sky's the limit.

At Honda, we're proud to congratulate all our local graduates and their families.
