PASSING HIDEOUS

I OWE YOU ONE

By Julian Lim

The bidding:

Opening lead: Queen of Heart. Lucky Larry arrived in the same situation as the lead player. His partner had played the queen of hearts to eliminate the suit from his hand, so Larry was out of the game. Larry looked at the hand holding the ace of spades and ruffed a spade, eliminating that suit from his hand and forcing the opponent to yield a ruff-sluff.

Larry was quick to point out to everyone that the opponent had played low! When that held the trick, Larry was able to ruff on the queen of spades and cash the ace of diamonds. The other player had no choice but to cash the other diamonds, and it was game over for his team.

Larry was the winner of this hand, and was quick to point out the lesson he had learned. Larry recommended that all players remember to always play low to avoid giving away the opponent’s suit when playing a low.

Larry thought back to the game he had played against his opponent.

He had played the queen of spades and ruffed a spade to eliminate that suit from his hand and force his opponent to yield a ruff-sluff. Larry was extremely lucky to have been able to ruff on the ace of diamonds, and his team had won the game.

Larry advised his team mates to always remember to play low when playing a low, as it could make a difference in the outcome of the game.
