Re: Nomination Paper Affidavit

Dear Toriana,

I am responding to the affidavit you filed with the City Clerk's Office on Monday, January 7.

Your affidavit states that the first line of page 13 should indicate that 2 Sandlewood Circle is in the City of Madison, and that the date of signing was 12/5/2018. The residential address column of the nomination paper included Madison, so we had already considered the municipality to be complete for this signature. With your certification that you circulated and obtained this signature on December 5, we will add one signature to the total validated for your nomination papers.

Your affidavit also indicates that line nine of page 11 was signed by Vanasa Ashhlen of 1102 Hackberry Lane, Madison. We did not count this line on your nomination papers because we determined that somebody started to complete line nine but crossed out both their signature and name. Not only do the signature and name have two horizontal lines struck through them, the same ink used by signers on these nomination papers also appears to have struck through the signature and name in an up and down (scribble) motion.

Without an affidavit from the person who signed line nine of page 11, we attempted to locate Vanasa Ashhlen to ask whether they had intended to sign and complete this line on your nomination papers. We were unable to locate anybody by that name in the state voter registration system, Google, Bing, social media, and the state Circuit Court Access website.

Upon further scrutiny, we determined that line nine of page 11 appears to list the name Vaunce Ashby. We found a Vaunce Ashby in the state voter registration system, called the phone number listed on their voter registration, and left a voicemail message to inquire about whether their intent was to have signed your nomination papers. Vaunce returned our call this afternoon and informed us that she lives in the City of Fitchburg. She said she had signed nomination papers for Madison Metropolitan School Board candidates because she lives in the Madison Metropolitan School District. After signing and writing her name on your nomination papers, she said she realized that as a Fitchburg resident she is unable to vote for City of Madison Mayor, so she crossed out her name and signature on your nomination papers. We have verified that her address is in the City of Fitchburg.

We are unable to count the signature on line nine of page 11.

The addition of one valid signature brings the total number of valid signatures on your nomination papers up to 199. State Statutes require 200 signatures for mayoral candidates to appear on the ballot.

Section 5.06, Wis. Stats., provides that you can appeal this decision to the Wisconsin Elections Commission. This would need to be done quickly, though, because the February Primary ballots are about to be printed.

If you wish to run for office as an official write-in candidate, you can do so by putting that intention in writing and submitting it to the City Clerk's Office.

Sincerely,

Maribeth Witzel-Behl
