Contract & Copy Regulations

The rates listed apply only to local display and classified display advertising. All rates on this schedule are net and non-commissionable to advertising agencies.

Advertising canceled past deadline will be billed a cancellation fee equal to 25% of the cost of the advertisement.

The Argus Observer reserves the right to insert the word "advertisement" in all advertising similar to editorial.

Any advertisement measuring more than 19 inches in depth will be charged at 21 1/2 inches. Any tabloid advertisement measuring more than 9" in depth will be charged at 11 1/2 inches.

Display double trucks will be billed as 13 columns wide and classified double trucks will be billed as 19 columns wide.

Although every effort will be made to ensure that advertisements will appear without error, sometimes mistakes will occur. If a significant error happens and it is the fault of the Argus Observer, The Argus Observer is only liable for the actual cost of the advertising space and not for any other damages. The Argus Observer will gladly provide a letter of correction.

The advertisers and/or advertising agency shall pay for the attorney fees and pay for any judgements against the publisher that are caused by the publication of any advertisement submitted by or published at the direction of the advertiser and/or advertising agency and the advertiser and/or advertising agency agrees to defend and indemnify the publisher against any and all liability, and/or expense arising from claims of libel, unfair competition, unfair trade practices, infringement of trademarks, copyrights, trade names, patents, or proprietary rights or violation of rights of privacy, resulting from the publication of the advertiser's advertisement. The Publisher shall not be liable for slight changes or typographical errors that do not lessen the value of an advertisement. The publisher's liability for other errors or omissions in connection with an advertisement is strictly limited to publication of the advertisement in any subsequent issue or refund of any monies paid for the advertisement.

Contract advertisers are guaranteed their rate for the time of their contract. Contract advertisers who fail to fulfill their contract agreement are subject to a short rate charge.

The Argus Observer reserves the right to edit, reject or accept advertising at its discretion.
