Aalfs' 126 years in Sioux City

- 1892: H.A. Baker starts manufacturing overalls, pants, and shirts in a building between Jones and Jennings streets in downtown Sioux City
- 1929: Baker Company moves into Boston Block at 1005 Fourth St., home of Aalfs Manufacturing's current headquarters
- 1939: Aalfs Paint and Glass Company buys Baker Company; named changed to Aalfs-Baker Manufacturing, Wilbur Aalfs named president
- 1952: Starts exclusively manufacturing denim and twill
- 1959: Company name officially changed to Aalfs Manufacturing
- 1992: Starts manufacturing in Mexico
- 1999: Closes plants in Sioux City, Le Mars, Sheldon and Spencer, Iowa, and Yankton, S.D.
- 2003: Begins manufacturing in Nicaragua
- 2014: Receives Levis Best Quality Supplier and Dockers Highest On-time Delivery awards
- 2018: Aalfs Manufacturing sells 100 percent interest in company to Grupo Siete Leguas of Mexico