

New Film to Premiere At AMW Conclave Here

The national premiere of "Day by Day," a film on life in Israel today, will be a highlight of the Golden Jubilee Mini-Convention of the Ohio Valley Region, American Mizrahi Women, to be held here Sunday and Monday, Sept. 12 and 13.

Filmed this summer in Israel, "Day by Day" attempts an open, honest look at the impact of terrorism and tension on the daily lives of Israelis in the major urban areas of the country.

Written and produced by Marc Siegel, award-winning television documentary producer, "Day by Day" is narrated by Marian Seldes and Norman Rose, well-known Broadway actors.

According to Mrs. Manny Spero, Ohio Valley Region chairman, Cleveland was chosen for the national premiere of the film because the American Mizrahi Women organization was founded here in 1926.

"Day by Day" employs a variety of film techniques in tracing the organization's history while presenting a vivid story of today's Israeli citizens.

The film premiere is part of a two-day program at the Park Plaza-Hotel at which representatives of AMW chapters in Akron, Detroit, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton and Pittsburgh will join with the four Cleveland chapters in planning the organization's 1976-77 activity year.

Major guest speakers at the mini-convention will be Mrs. Eli Resnikoff of New York City, honorary national AMW president; Morris Rombro, executive director of the Akron Jewish Community Federation, and Dorothy Fuldheim, nationally recognized television news commentator. Miss Fuldheim will be the recipient of the American Mizrahi Women Bicentennial Public Service Award.

In addition to the "Day by Day" premiere, the mini-convention will see the first showing of a fashion collection designed and produced by students in AMW vocational high schools in Israel.

JCC Registration Set For Classes and Groups

The Jewish Community Center announces the opening of registration for fall and winter classes and program activities. Registration will begin Sunday, Sept. 12, for JCC members and Wednesday, Sept. 14, for the general community.

Most classes will begin the week of Monday, Sept. 27; Sunday classes start Oct. 24.

A full range of programs for all age groups is offered. Classes in fine and performing arts, gym and pool classes, children's programs, and senior adult classes and groups are planned.

The newly expanded Adult and Community Service Department will present a five week seminar on Literature of the Holocaust, to be led by Leatrice Rabinsky and Gertrude Mann. Also new is a literature class entitled "Portraits of Marriage—Marriage in Fiction," to be led by Divi Lewin.

Special classes and programs for young adults, single parents (and, in many cases, children of single-parent families) and married couples are also scheduled.

A series of college courses, on a non-credit basis, are offered in cooperation with the College of Jewish Studies and Cuyahoga Community College.

"Highlights of Jewish History," an eight-session course, will be led by Rabbi Jacob Shtull. The CCC courses are "Design for Positive Living," led by Ella Mae Howey; Creative Writing, with Marion D. Frankel, instructor; and Leaded Glass Crafting, Ben Marino, instructor. All the college courses are being enrolled through the Senior Adult Division, and are open to all adults of any age.

Full descriptions of all courses and programs are to be found in the JCC Fall-Winter Program Book, available at the Center front desk.

EQUIPMENT FOR CHILDREN

Inspecting one of seven new cast iron barbecue grills donated to Bellefaire Children's residence are James Glueck (left), first vice president of Jewish Big Brother Association, and Andrew Ross, supervisor of group living at Bellefaire. Big Brothers purchased the grills as recreational equipment for use by the children. Establishment of two special funds for recreational purposes was made possible through Donald Insul, president of JBBA, and Steven Wiesenberger, immediate past president.

Clevelanders To Attend ZOA National Parley

About 32 Clevelanders will be among the hundreds of delegates at the annual national convention of the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA), to be held beginning Thursday, Sept. 9, in New York City.

Among the highlighted speakers at the three-day event will be Brig. Gen. Ariel "Arik" Sharon, the Israeli military man who led the crossing of the Suez Canal during the Yom Kippur War. Other speakers scheduled include Dr. Joseph E. Sisco, former under-secretary of state for international affairs, and Leon Dülzin, president of the World Union of General Zionists and Treasurer of the Jewish Agency.

SPEAKING OF TRAVEL

Lil Klein

Here in Cleveland, travellers sometimes have difficulty coordinating flights from Hopkins Airport into John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York with on-going trans-Atlantic flights. They may have to fly into LaGuardia or Newark Airports and transfer to Kennedy. Choices are few.

You can have a free helicopter ride via New York Airways helicopter between airports. This is included in the price of your regularly scheduled overseas airline ticket. Or most airlines provide free shuttle bus service on Carey Limo from LaGuardia into Kennedy on regularly scheduled flights abroad. This shuttle service must be utilized within six hours of arrival into the New York airports.

Carey Limo Service also provides this shuttle transportation between Kennedy and LaGuardia every hour from 7:30 A.M. until 10:00 P.M., and from LaGuardia to Kennedy with service starting at 8:30 A.M. until 10:00 P.M., hourly. The charge is $3.00 if you are not going overseas.

There is an inter-terminal bus service (yellow bus) between all of the terminals at Kennedy, which costs 50c and is available every 10 minutes between 7:00 A.M. and 1:00 A.M., and every 15 minutes from 1:00 A.M. to 7:00 A.M.

Newark Airport is an International Airport and has two terminals, A and B. The Port Authority provides a free connecting bus service between these terminals. This bus runs about every 10 minutes from 7:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. There is less frequent service after that time.

We would definitely suggest that you do not fly into Newark Airport expecting to transfer into Kennedy, since we have found this to be extremely expensive, even though actual distance in miles is not so great. This is due to the fact that you are crossing a state line.

Service into downtown New York from Kennedy is about $3.50 by bus, and about $12.00 by cab. From LaGuardia, service into downtown New York is about $3.00 by bus, and approximately $9.00 by cab.

Always feel free, at any time, in any airport, to request services of any airline desk, as all personnel are there to serve you.
