Sattelmair on why he chose Oregon State – "I chose Oregon State because I really like the coaching staff and their philosophy. I believe that they are taking the program in the right direction and that's something I want to be a part of" ... Sattelmair on what stood out during the recruiting process with OSU – "The thing that stood out most is how much they cared for their players and focused on so much more than just football. It was about football obviously and turning it around but they focus so much on grades and after football making sure the players are young men with jobs that contribute to society. That stood out to me as these coaches were different and someone who I wanted to play for and develop with."

Aaron Short, WR, 6-1, 200, Fairfield, Calif. (Sierra College/Rodriguez HS) -- @Kingshort15

Played at Sierra College last year after attending College of San Mateo for two years – played his sophomore year ... will have two years to play two seasons ... scored seven touchdowns last season, the second-highest total in the NorCal Division ... played a shortened season last year due to an injury ... played on the varsity team two years at Rodriguez HS, earning team MVP as a senior and the offensive player of the year as a junior ... first team all-league as a senior and second team as a junior ... selected to play in a postseason all-star game, but had already begun his collegiate career ... sprinter in his high school two years, where he was all-league in the 100, 200 and 400 meters ... his cousin Anthony Hines plays at Missouri ... Sierra head coach Ben Noonan on Short – "Aaron came to Sierra College as a student-athlete on a mission! It has been exciting to watch his maturation process in regards to his academic approach, specifically the way he recently began to compete in the classroom as he does in between the white lines.

As for Aaron's football talents, the sky is the limit and we (Sierra College staff) could not be prouder of his recent achievements and look forward to watching him continue his success on the Saturday gridiron at Oregon State' ... Aaron chose OSU because of the "football program and opportunity to receive a great education."

HIGH SCHOOL SIGNEES

BJ's mother Linda is a cousin to former OSU standouts James and Jacquizz Rodgers ... member of Wharton High School's Student Council ... Wharton head coach Tim Finn on Baylor - "You could not ask to coach a better kid; no one associated with BJ would say a bad word about him. He's a hard worker who was under-recruited due to the depth at running back we had up until his senior year. He's very good at catching passes out of the backfield and he was outstanding in the big games we played during his career. I'm thrilled for him and I know he is very excited about his opportunity."

Josh Bowcut, OL/DL, 6-6, 290, Sherwood, Ore., (Sherwood HS) -- @JoshBowcut

Three Rivers League First Team as a senior and Second Team as a junior ... all-state second team offensive and defensive lineman ... Josh accounted for 68 tackles and 10.5 sacks as a defensive lineman in his two varsity years ... originally from Washington, moving to Sherwood prior to his junior year ... Bowcut on his decision to attend OSU, courtesy of OregonLive -- "I decided to commit because I felt like it was a great fit for me. Whenever I go to Corvallis it feels like it's where I'm supposed to be. I like all the coaches there and believe they are building something special. When I told David (Morris), he was telling me to commit. I was also just asking about what he thought about the program? His commitment there had a little bit to do with my decision, but not too much, it was just about how I felt. I'm definitely excited to play with him on the next level, though" ... Sherwood head coach Greg Lawrence on Bowcut - "Josh came to Sherwood as a sophomore and what a great addition he was to our program. He has grown into a very good football player. His determination and skillset helped our football program reach the success we did. Josh will be a great addition to the Beaver program and help them reach the next level” ... standout in track and field in the discus, shot put and javelin ... anticipates taking a two-year LDS Mission before enrolling at OSU.

Onesimus on his connection to OSU, courtesy of Scout -- “I had to remember that Oregon State has been there for me from the start. It was just the amount of family atmosphere that really caught my attention and grabbed my heart. I was inspired to go there because the coaches are connected to the Polynesian culture. I looked at Oregon State as another home. Coach Andersen came through and told me how much Oregon State means to him. It has affected his life as well in a good way and that’s something I want to be a part of” ... Waianae HS head coach Walter Young on Clarke – “Onesimus is a great kid, very coachable, and willing to do what’s needed to be done. His attitude is great; he’s very respectful. He has a lot of talent and skill, and wants to be pushed to his full potential.”

TraJon Cotton, S, 6-1, 185, Sacramento, Calif. (Inderkum HS) -- @Darkskinningg

Rated the No. 3 safety in California, No. 7 in the West and No. 46 nationally by Scout ... First Team All-Metro as a junior and senior ... two-time MaxPreps honoree ... four-time all-league ... MVP of the league as a senior ... played quarterback and safety ... 2,834 career passing yards with 29 touchdowns; 734 rushing yards with 11 touchdowns ... 155 career tackles with 10 interceptions ... contemplating majoring in business ... Honor Roll student ... chose OSU because “the coaches took me in with open arms. I think I made the best decision of my life. The whole atmosphere around the staff and the players stood out. Coach 'A' really cares about the players a lot. It is way more than just football. He doesn't talk about football as much as he does about developing me into a man” ... also a sprinter and high jumper in track and field ... Battle Prep West on Trajon’s skills – “Playmaker, plays with big time excitement, premium speed, will run away from you; good DB with nice ball skills; nice size and athleticism.”

Isaiah Dunn, CB, 6-0, 175, Antioch, Calif. (Antioch HS) -- @isaiahdunnnnn

Highly recruited ... rated among the top 100 cornerbacks in the country and in the top 25 at the position in the West ... 18.9 yards per reception for his career as a wide receiver ... eight total touchdowns during his senior year, seven as a receiver ... a standout kick returner ... also played quarterback during his prep career ... had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown last season in a nationally broadcast prep game vs. De La Salle ... San Francisco Chronicle reports just three passes completed against him all of last season and he was selected to the Chronicle’s Second Team All-Metro Team ... San Jose Mercury News Second Team ... contemplating majoring in psychology ... sprinter on the track and field team ... chose OSU because “The Beyond Football Program caught my eye and the relationship I have developed with the coaching staff and current players” ... Antioch head coach John Lucido on Dunn – “Isaiah is a very competitive player. He is the best man cover corner I have ever coached. He has a high ceiling and is very physical. He has state caliber track speed. Isaiah will be a great player for Oregon State.”

Arex “Champ” Flemings, WR, 5-6, 150, Altadena, Calif. (Cathedral HS) -- @deucethedon

No. 20 wide receiver prospect in California per Scout ... 1,936 career receiving yards on 155 receptions with 24 touchdowns ... also a kickoff returner ...MaxPreps Player of the Game in a November victory over Rancho Verde where he had a Cathedral record 15 receptions – held the record with 14 in the season before ... two-time Angelus League First Team honoree ... helped Cathedral to the league title and an 11-1 overall record ... earned multiple academic Honor Roll mentions at Cathedral ... from 247Sports’ Steve Wiltfong from last spring’s Pylon 7-on-7 Tournament in Las Vegas that drew some of the nation’s elite players - “Pound for pound, the best player on the field may have been Los Angeles (Calif.) Cathedral's Arex Flemings. He was very explosive allowing him to separate on every play. He's a big play waiting to happen in space” ... Flemings on his style of play -- “I bring electricity. Every time I line up, there's a play waiting to happen. Every time the ball is snapped, I'm going to make a difference - blocking, running a route to hold the safety for someone else to score or make a play myself. There's a mentality I bring to the table that not a lot of people bring, because of my size difference. Being this small, you have to play with a certain edge, confidence and swagger that makes you pretty much mentally untouchable.”

Justin Gardner, CB, 6-1, 170, Charlotte, NC., Shiloh HS, Ga.) -- @Justin_G23

Justin earned Atlanta Journal Constitution Honorable Mention All-Region selection after his senior season ... honorable mention all-county ... Justin on his decision to commit to OSU – “It felt like home when I visited. The coaching staff feels like family and I know they are going to push me to my ability.” ... Shiloh High School head coach Ryan Andrews on Gardner – “Justin is an absolute great kid and has tremendous upside. Most do not know that he is only 17 years old and will not be 18 until October. Oregon State got an absolute steal. I am very excited to see his continued growth and development” ... contemplating majoring in engineering.

Kaleb Hayes, CB, 6-0, 165, San Bernardino, Calif. (San Gorgonio HS)

He comes from one of the top programs in the SoCal area and the Beavs were able to beat out several other Pac-12 competitors for his services. Manning is a great kid off the field, works very hard and will be a model student-athlete in college. He's a kid who really wants to be great and has all the physical tools to play as long as he wants" ... Manning on his thoughts of OSU, courtesy of Scout -- "I loved the overall feel of Corvallis. It's a true college town and I had a great comfort level there on my visit. Not only that but the coaches really connected with me and my family, and made us feel very welcome. My whole family loves Coach (Gary) Andersen, we really bonded well when I took my visit.”

David Morris, S, 6-3, 200, Sherwood, Ore. (Sherwood HS)

Highly recruited by several Power 5 schools ... No. 3 prospect in the state per 247Sports and a four-star recruit by Scout ... Oregon 6A Defensive Player of the Year and Second Team all-state running back ... second team all-state on both sides of the ball as a junior ... 2016 and '15 USA Today Oregon First Team on defense ... Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 ... three-year varsity career accumulating 3,484 all-purpose yards as a running back and returner with 37 touchdowns ... 184 career tackles with eight interceptions ... Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets "Best of the Rest" ... sprinter and javelin thrower on the track and field team ... Morris on his selection to OSU prior to last season, courtesy of OregonLive -- "They were the first ones to believe in me, to offer me, and that meant a ton. For me, just getting an opportunity to play at the next level was big. The first school to do that was Oregon State, and that meant a lot to my family. Also, having Coach Andersen come to my football game and actually watch it. That was big for me as well. I feel comfortable there" ... Sherwood Head Coach Greg Lawrence -- "It is incredible how David brings an energy to his teammates that changes the momentum of the game. When he makes a big play his excitement and enthusiasm is contagious. It has truly been a pleasure and honor to have coached him and watched him play every week. In my 30 years of coaching he is without a doubt the best overall player that I have ever coached. I am excited to watch him help take the Beavers to the next level.”

Kolby Taylor, WR, 5-11, 195, Chandler, Ariz. (Chandler HS) @thekolbytaylor

Four-star recruit at wide receiver by ESPN.com ... considered a top 10 recruit and the No. 1 wide receiver from the state of Arizona by multiple recruiting services ... earned first team all-state as a junior and honorable mention as a sophomore ... Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 ... set the Chandler High single season receptions record with 69 catches for 879 yards, and 10 touchdowns as a junior ... added six scores on the ground and one via kickoff return ... played three seasons of varsity football at Chandler High under head coach Shaun Aguano - missed his senior year due to an injury suffered prior to the season ... was a team captain as a senior ... has three brothers, all of whom played at Arizona State ... Eastbay Football Freshman All-American ... Taylor on what drew him to Oregon State - "I chose Oregon State because of the coaching staff's great character. I like that Coach Andersen is a players' coach. He lets his players be themselves and doesn't worry about the little things. He'll tell you the truth on how things are and doesn't sugar-coat it. And I really like the opportunities Oregon State offers after I graduate. I'd like to pursue a job with Nike when I'm done with football and there is no better place to go than Oregon State with it being in Nike's backyard.”

Calvin Tyler, RB, 5-9, 190, Beaumont, Texas (Silsbee HS) @BlessedAthleteC

First Team All-State as a utility defensive player and Second Team as a junior and sophomore ... two-year team captain ... Watson on his skillset, courtesy of Hawai'i Prep World - "I'll bring some edge to the defense. They're (OSU) looking for some guys on the safety and corner spots. I think I bring a lot of versatility to the defense" ... Watson on his decision to attend OSU - "It was a really hard decision. It took me until today to figure out where I wanted to go. I just woke up this morning and that's what my heart chose" ... Watson on Corvallis/OSU program - "It's beautiful. When I took my visit, it reminded me of Wahiawa. A lot of trees, real cool temperature. They have great coaches, great facilities. It's always been my dream to play for a Pac-12 school" ... Leilehua head coach Nolan Tokudo on Charles -- "Charles is a blessing to have in your program, he will make everyone around him play better and he will have fun working hard! Charles is a fabulous athlete."

Brock Wellsfry, OG, 6-6, 285, Pasco, Wash. (Hanford HS) -- @BWellsfry

Highly recruited lineman ... rated No. 9 at his position in the West and No. 36 in the country by Scout ... also was a defensive lineman ... selected to play for the USA Under-18 Team ... Seattle Times First Team All-State and the Times' Jayda Evans wrote - "Oregon State commit is just as imposing offensively as he is defensively with his size and quick feet" ... USA Today Washington Second Team ... all-conference on both sides of the ball ... also has played hockey that Wellsfry correlates to helping him have good footwork ... track and field athlete and is among Washington's best in the shot put, discus and javelin ... played first base for an American Legion team ... contemplating majoring in business ... Wellsfry on his style of play prior to last season that he credits to his hockey background, per Scout - "It was great for my feet and also giving me that aggressive nature and that's something I take with me into every game I play. I can move well for a guy my size and I feel like my pass protection is probably my best asset. I've been working a lot on getting stronger and getting out on the field with my trainer, and working on my footwork and conditioning" ... Brock on his decision to attend OSU - "I love the community, campus and coaches. I'm excited to help take the program to the next level."

Aidan Willard, QB, 6-2, 185, Napa, Calif. (Justin-Siena HS) -- @waterboywill

Numerous offers coming out of high school ... No. 16 rated prospect in the Bay Area by the San Francisco Chronicle heading into his senior year ... Napa Valley Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore after leading Justin-Siena to the section title ... threw for over 2,800 yards during his varsity career even though he played just four games his senior season due to injury ... 29 career passing touchdowns ... also rushed for over 1,800 yards during his career and added 17 scores on the ground ... also plays basketball and is a sprinter on the track and field team at Justin-Siena ... Aidan on his decision to attend Oregon State, courtesy of OregonLive -- "It's been a dream of mine to play at Oregon State for as long as I can remember. Both of my parents went there and I couldn't pass up the great opportunity. It's a great school and I'm excited about the coaching staff and young, talented roster" ... Justin-Siena head coach Brandon LaRocco on Willard - "Aidan is a truly gifted dual-threat quarterback, a great combination of size, speed and strength. He possesses excellent arm strength and has an outstanding ability to move in the pocket, escape the rush, and extend the play. He is a competitor in every sense of the word. You can really see it in the way that he plays the game. One of the things that stood out to me this year is the growth he made as the leader of our team. He set the tone every day in practice by pushing himself and his teammates, he really embraced this role. We are so proud of the growth

Aidan has made during his four years with us and are looking forward to watching his continued growth at Oregon State.”
