

Here it is: The Best of East Valley awards issue celebrating what is best about living, working and playing on our side of the Valley. Winners are revealed in categories ranging from Best Coffeehouse to Best Public Pool, Best Museum to Best High School Teacher. And the best part? With the exception of a few “Staff Pick” recipients, the winners come directly from you — the people who call the East Valley home. See if your favorites made the list or find a new place in our community to try. Either way, enjoy discovering the Best of East Valley 2012. And congratulations to all of the winners and runners-up of this year’s contest.

Best Breakfast Restaurant

T.C. Eggington's

The egg may be the thing — of course — with no fewer than 21 egg-centric specialties on this Mesa staple's vast breakfast menu. But it's the unique way the Coker family, founders and owners since 1985, approach the rest of its menu — such as warm, fresh English-style “streetcake” muffins and French-inspired “English” toast, made with custard-dipped cinnamon bread — that makes this egg tough to beat.

Location: 1660 S. Alma School Road, Mesa
Information: (480) 345-9288 or www.tcegg.com

Voters' comments:

“Portions are generous, food is fresh and phenomenal!”

“Unique breakfast choices, great ambiance.”

Runners-up: The Farmhouse, Gilbert; Crackers and Co. (multiple locations), IHOP (multiple locations)

Best Lunch for under $7

Super Farm Super Truck

Nutella-drizzled deep-fried bacon. Sold. But seriously, as if the Bacon Fritters — Super Farm Super Truck's side-dish-o'-the-century — weren't enough, the only thing better than a fresh, hot, custom lunch for under $7, is when it rolls right to you. Food trucks have become all the rage of late, and this Superstition Farm must-eat-on-wheels is a winner too, with sandwiches, salads, custom burgers and veggie options.

Location: all over (it's a truck, people!) (homebase: Superstition Farm, 3440 S. Hawes Road, Mesa)

Information: https://www.facebook.com/SuperFarmSuperTruck or (602) 432-6865

Voters' comments:

“The entire family eats for under $25.”

“Local farm fresh ingredients.”

Runners-up: Barro's Pizza, Costco, and Pete's Fish and Chips — (all multiple locations)

Best Restaurant for a Special Occasion

House of Tricks

An ambiance like few others could be the lone reason to celebrate at this area staple. But it's not. The contemporary American menu stays fresh with the seasons, and twice it's been honored with Wine Spectator's “Award of Excellence.” But, then again, there's something adept about taking a pair of connected downtown Tempe bungalows and livening them up with fountains and ponds, foliage and candlelight that translates into the ultimate outdoor dining set.

Location: 114 E. 7th St., Tempe

Information: www.houseoftricks.com or (480) 968-1114

Voters' comments:

“Unique experience with daily menu (changes), and ask for a wine pairing.”

“Wonderful food and their outdoor dining can't be beat.”

Runners-up: Cork, Chandler; D'Vine Bistro, Mesa

Best Seafood Restaurant

The Seafood Market

A favorite of locals and Valley visitors alike, this one takes its name to heart. Officially called “The Seafood Market and Restaurant,” it's treated the East Valley since 1989 to more than 10 varieties of market-fresh fish to take home, along with an extensive menu of seafood staples to dine on in-house. The fish is never frozen and the chowder continues to impress.

Location: 3406 E. Baseline Road, Mesa

Information: (480) 633-1580 or www.seafoodmarketrestaurant.com

Voters' comments:

“The best New England clam chowder and cold, crisp green garden salad.”

Runners-up: Bogey's Steak and Seafood at Las Sendas Golf Club, Mesa; Pete's Fish and Chips (multiple locations), Red Lobster (multiple locations)

Best Buffet Golden Corral

Self-proclaimed as America's No. 1 buffet and grill, East Valley voters agreed for the second year in a row. A good fit for families or groups with varying flavor palates, choose from no fewer than 85 everyday items — including soups, salads, seafood, grilled entrees and more — in addition to plenty of everyday specialty items and tons of desserts. Take it from us: You won't go home hungry.

Location: 1318 N. Cooper Road, Gilbert; 1868 N. Power Road, Mesa

Information: (480) 507-3331 (Gilbert); (480) 985-6793 (Mesa) or www.goldencorral.com

Voters' comments:

"All you can eat steak or seafood."

"Huge selection!"

"Selection, price, and great breakfast."

Runners-up: Sweet Tomatoes (multiple locations), The Landmark (Mesa)

Best Asian Restaurant The Dhaba

First conceptualized as a part of a business school project, loyal followers of this haunt's tradition-rich Indian cuisine named it the best for the second year in a row. A quaint setting with an extensive menu including Dhaba Chicken Curry, Lamb Boti Kabob, Sikandri Jhinga Saag (fresh spinach cooked with shrimp). A 'The Dhaba' book of recipes is also in the works to enjoy your Punjab favorites at home.

Location: 1872 E. Apache Blvd., Tempe

Information: (480) 557-8800 or www.the-dhaba.com

Voters' comments:

"...legitimate Indian food. Coming from New York City, this was an absolute gem to find!"

"Best Indian food anywhere in the Valley!"

Runners-up: Pei Wei Asian Diner (multiple locations), PF Chang's China Bistro (multiple locations), Tott's Asian Diner (Chandler)

Best Barbecue Restaurant Joe's Real BBQ

"You just have to try it to understand." That's how one voter explained Joe's Real BBQ last year, when the downtown Gilbert staple took the top prize in this same category. That voter isn't alone. Pecan-wood smoked meats, homestyle side dishes, house-made root beer and killer catering options make this older sibling to the acclaimed Joe's Farm Grill a favorite yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Location: 301 N. Gilbert Road, Gilbert

Information: (480) 503-3805 or www.joesrealbbq.com

Voters' comments:

"Pecan smoked meats ... need I say more?"

"Great food, and the pickup window is on the outside."

Runners-up: Famous Dave's (multiple locations), Waldo's BBQ (Mesa)

Best Sports Bar Blue 32 Sports Grill

We double-dog dare you: Just try to find a seat at Blue 32 Sports Grill that doesn't have a clear view of, like, a dozen HD sets showcasing every sporting event known to man. And with Tempe-based Four Peaks brews on tap, come on down for the sports programming, but stay for the menu. Specialties include Black and Blue 32 Burger; Philly Cheesesteak, deep-fried Monte Cristo (wowza), or a house cut Angus Ribeye.

Location: 1524 E. Williams Field Road, Gilbert

Information: (480) 963-0032 or www.blue32sportsgrill.com

Voters' comments:

"Tons of TVs and good food."

"Excellent food, price and service."

Runners-up: Majerle's Sports Grill, Chandler; Uncle Bears Grill & Bar (multiple locations); Zipps Sports Grill, Chandler

Best Frozen Dessert Shop

Udder Delights

Dubbed the official “tastery” of Mesa dairy Superstition Farm, this shop serves ice cream made in small batches with few ingredients and a wide variety of flavors, from plain ol’ vanilla and chocolate to birthday cake, sweet potato, blue berry MOOfin and avocado. Using dairy products from the Mesa herd, they also do ice cream cakes, cupcakes, brownies and savory handmade cheeses and butters.

Location: 1385 E. Warner Road, Suite 103, Gilbert

Information: (480) 507-3859 or www.udderdelightsaz.com

Voters’ comments:

“Fresh and local. Handchurned and unique flavors.”

“It’s the real deal!”

Runners-up: Gelato Dolce Vita (multiple locations); Tasti D-Lite, Chandler; Frost – A Gelato Shoppe, Gilbert

Best Pizzeria

Urban Legends Pizza Works

Pizza is still king, but today’s great pizzerias are much more than just a good round disc. Diners consistently rave about the massive wings and carnival-esque fried desserts (Twinkies, Oreos and more) at this still new Gilbert spot, in addition to creative pies like the Ma’Halo — with barbecued pork, pineapple, cilantro. But it’s the atmosphere that may top the list here. Area teens are welcome to perform their own music (Thursday is open mic night), catch the game, or just hang out in this safe, family-friendly spot operated by an area non-profit devoted to at-risk teens.

Location: 894 E. Warner Road, Suite B-101, Gilbert

Information: (480) 525-7044 or <https://www.facebook.com/urbanlegendspizzaworks>

Voters’ comments:

“Best pizza and wings! Great prices and they have fried TWINKIES!”

“Pizza with a purpose.”

“You get the most bang for your buck.”

Runners-up: Barro’s Pizza (multiple locations), Nicantoni’s, Gilbert

Best New Restaurant

Urban Legends Pizza Works

A double-winner just six months into operation, this joint — created as a place for families and teens to enjoy good food and music in a wholesome environment — has drawn repeat customers hand over fist. Owners hope ULPW becomes the “Al’s Diner” (from Happy Days) of Gilbert, paying respects to Gilbert High School “legends” along the way. And at the heart: ULPW is operated as part of a local non-profit — Paradigm Ministries — with proceeds serving at-risk teenagers, local food banks and shelters.

Location: 894 E. Warner Road, Suite B-101, Gilbert

Information: (480) 525-7044 or <https://www.facebook.com/urbanlegendspizzaworks>

Voters’ comments:

“Amazing attitude and food... the size of the wings are insane!”

“A great concept as a non-profit.”

“Different flavors that you don’t typically find at a pizza place.”

Runners-up: BoomBozz Famous Pizza, Gilbert; NCounter, Tempe; Super Farm Super Truck, Mesa

Best Mexican Restaurant

Rancho de Tia Rosa

There's something about a Mexican restaurant taking chances beyond the typical rice and beans offering that's exciting. Steeped in the colonial Mexico tradition of owner/chef Dennis Sirrine's grandmother — Sirrine picked up Rosa's recipes during family visits and trips down the Baja coast — this two-location favorite ventures from eat-all-day street fare to 30-plus ingredient chicken mole. A take-out taqueria is on-site at the Mesa location as well.

Location: 3129 E. McKellips Road, Mesa; 891 N. Higley Road, Gilbert

Information: (480) 659-8787 (Mesa); (480) 659-8790 (Mesa Taqueria); (480) 396-8787 (Gilbert) or www.ranchodetiarosa.com

Voters' comments:

"Food is always great, good variety; separate site for quick/carry-outs."

"Great atmosphere. Large portions and the best carne asada in Arizona."

Runners-up: Nando's (multiple locations); Rosa's Mexican Grill, Mesa; Serrano's (multiple locations)

Best Italian Restaurant

Oregano's Pizza Bistro

A repeat winner, the Arizona-based family of restaurants had spots in Mesa and downtown Tempe when it won last year. But with two new EV stores opened in 2011, south Chandler and south Tempe residents are also enjoying such favorites as the all-you-can-scarf Bollo Pasta ("Bowl 'O Pasta"), square-cut thin pizza, or the Original Pizza Cookie (a hot, pizza-pan baked cookie with vanilla bean ice cream on top).

Location: 5 East Valley locations (Gilbert, Mesa, Chandler, two in Tempe)

Information: (480) 962-0036 (Mesa location) or www.oreganos.com

Voters' comments:

"Consistently great, time after time — and the wait staff is the best anywhere!"

"Excellent pasta dishes and sauces priced right..."

Runners-up: Barro's Pizza (multiple locations); Carrabba's Italian Grill (multiple locations); RigaTony's, Tempe

Best East Valley Dining Deal

Mining Camp Restaurant and Trading Post

Similar to the mystery of the Lost Dutchman legend itself, a well-kept secret nestled at the foot of the Superstition Mountains has received the nod for the best dining deal in the East Valley.

And it's worth its weight in the gold believed to be hidden in those hills.

The Mining Camp Restaurant and Trading Post provides regular diners and even those just passing through a smokin' deal: All-you-can-eat baked chicken, barbecued ribs, honey-baked ham, cole slaw, baked beans and stuffing with homemade bread accompanied by pitchers of lemonade, tea and coffee to wash it all down with as well as a live cowboy band you can tap your foot to.

The cost? $16 — and it's delicious.

But the meal is not complete until you get the famous Mining Camp cookies for desert.

If you're wondering if this is a new place, it's not. This rustic dining getaway has been there for 51 years. The Mining Camp's owner, Vinton Fugate, has been there for 50 of them.

The restaurant, which provides other meals, is open Nov. 1 through June 30 from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 8 p.m. on Sundays and holidays.

So, Best of East Valley says head on over there, loosen up your belt and try it out. Reservations are required for the all-you-can-eat meal.

Location: 6100 E. Mining Camp St. (off Route 88), Apache Junction

Information: (480) 982-3181 or www.miningcamprestaurant.com

Runners-up: Adrian's No. 2 Mexican Restaurant, Mesa; Pizza Mart, Mesa; Mesa Schools Administration Center Cafeteria.

Best Sushi Restaurant

Ra Sushi Bar Restaurant

This sushi, sake, and happy hour favorite might have greater than 25 locations (in nine states and three time zones), but the origins of this second-time "best sushi" winner date back 15 years to nearby Scottsdale. Sushi "must haves" include the Viva Las Vegas Roll or "Ra"llipop, but the happy hour and reverse happy hour specialties (more than 15 sushi items between $3 and $7) are a can't-lose.

Location: 1652 S. Val Vista Drive, Mesa; 411 S. Mill Ave., Tempe; 4921 E. Ray Road, Ahwatukee Foothills

Information: (480) 632-9500 (Mesa); (480) 303-9800 (Tempe); (480) 940-1111 (Ahwatukee) or www.rasushi.com

Voters' comments:

"Bargain sushi and alcohol during happy hour! Must try the Vegas Roll!"

"Fresh sushi, creative flavors."

Runners-up: Blue Wasabi, Gilbert; Kona Grill (multiple locations)

Best Coffeehouse

SoZo Coffeehouse

Those in charge at this unique Chandler gathering spot have proven good at least two things: making great coffee and loose leaf tea, and coming up with clever — but impactful — marketing angles. "Coffee with a cause" and "Drinking coffee never felt so good" are just two of the catchphrases that fittingly describe this new spot. In addition to hosting community meetings, open mic nights, and live music weekends, money from every purchase is set aside and donated to a local or international cause or organization. "Beyond fair trade." Yep, they said that too.

Location: 1982 N. Alma School Road, Chandler

Information: (480) 726-SOZO or www.sozocoffee.org

Voters' comments:

"Awesome coffee, live music, and they give back to the community."

"Kids room for parents, amazing drinks."

"Iced toddy, Turkish coffee and fresh pour over ... 'nuf said!"

Runners-up: Bergie's Coffee Roast House, Gilbert; Dutch Bros. (multiple locations); Starbucks (multiple locations)

Best Restaurant With an Arizona Vibe and Best Family-Friendly Restaurant Barro's Pizza

An unconventional choice, but you voters may be on to something. Many of the “local” restaurants in this dine-in or delivery family of restaurants — chartered by Chandler’s own Barro family — often take on the “vibe” of their own community, and thus the state. Case in point: All of Arizona cheered as Chandler National Little League reached the Little League World Series twice in recent years. Barro’s south Chandler location, as one example, has served as the de facto museum, housing trophies, photos, jerseys and more in honor of those local youths. And with pizza, televisions and arcade games, it’s a no-brainer for families.

Location: 12 East Valley Locations (two in Chandler, two in Gilbert, five in Mesa, one in Queen Creek, two in Tempe — plus another nearby in Ahwatukee Foothills)

Information: www.barrospizza.com

Voters’ comments:

“... Been here as long as I remember ... gives back to the community!”

“Casual atmosphere; kids love the pizza and games.”

“Big tables offer lots of room for the whole family.”

Arizona Vibe Runners-up: Mining Camp Restaurant, Apache Junction; San Tan Flat Grill and Saloon, Queen Creek

Family-friendly Runners-up: Flancer’s (multiple locations); Joe’s Farm Grill, Gilbert; Oregano’s Pizza Bistro (multiple locations); Peter Piper Pizza (multiple locations)

Best Steakhouse The Keg

The top-end steakhouse has taken off in recent years across the Valley, but many are primed to feature high-priced a la carte cuts with a stuffy atmosphere. Not so at The Keg. While priced for a special night out, this Canadian import’s flavorful “classic dinner” choices include salads and vegetables alongside aged, well-marbled cuts of beef in a comfortable but lively setting. Plenty of seafood, chicken, and upscale sandwich options also line this back-to-back winner’s balanced menu.

Location: 3065 W. Chandler Blvd., Chandler; 2240 East Williams Field Road, Gilbert; 23 S. McClintock Drive, Tempe

Information: (480) 899-7500 (Chandler); (480) 821-1500 (Gilbert); (480) 557-5552 (Tempe) or www.kegsteakhouse.com

Voters’ comments:

“Love the atmosphere.”

Runners-up: Texas Roadhouse (multiple locations), Outback Steakhouse (multiple locations)

Best Happy Hour Applebee’s

With 11 East Valley locations, chances are there is an Applebee’s in your neighborhood. And with an ever-evolving menu and happy hour specials, the chain is sure to keep people coming back.

Location: Multiple locations

Information: www.applebees.com

Voters’ comments:

“Awesome prices & service”

“Half price appetizers”

Runners-up: Kona Grill, Ra Sushi Bar Restaurant, and Uncle Bear’s Grill and Bar — all multiple locations

Best Bar Food Four Peaks Brewing Company

Best bar food? Calling this ASU Tempe campus-area hotspot a “bar” in the first place is an understatement, and calling the food “bar food” is blasphemy. Perfectly complementing Peaks’ eight everyday brews and host of seasonal beers, a jam-packed four-page menu — including favorites like the grilled chicken beer bread, pizza with dough made with house ale, perfectly soft fresh-baked Bavarian pretzels and more — will satisfy even the most discerning tastes.

Location: 1340 E. Eighth St., No. 104, Tempe

Information: (480) 303-9967 or www.fourpeaks.com

Voters’ comments:

“Food beyond typical bar fare.

Chicken enchiladas are to die for.”

“Their beer is amazing but the food could stand on its own.”

Runners-up: Blue 32 Sports Grill, Gilbert; Uncle Bears Grill & Bar (multiple locations)

Best Deli Jason’s Deli

Some advice: If planning a first trek at lunchtime, head online and take a gander at the menu first. The sandwiches, salads and other items at this repeat “Best Of” winner are so expansive — and chances are you’re hardly the only one who knew Jason’s would be a good choice — it’s best to have some idea of what to order. Don’t worry: The line moves fast, and dessert is covered, too (free soft serve)!

Best Brew Pub

SanTan Brewing Company

Celebrating its fifth year and located in a lively, still up-and-coming setting in historic downtown Chandler, locals and non-locals alike come for the craft brew — seven everyday varieties like the ever-popular Devil's Ale and SunSpot Gold, to plenty of seasonal varieties — but stay for the top-notch menu. And when they do leave, growlers to go and canned craft brews (available at local grocers, too) remind them that another fun night is just around the corner.

Location: 8 S. San Marcos Place, Chandler

Information: (480) 917-8700 www.santanbrewing.com

Voters' comments:

"Beer is great, there's always room to sit, the service is friendly, and they have weekly movie night for customers."

"Great beer ... and the north side opens up to give you the al fresco feeling."

Runners-up: Four Peaks Brewing Company, Tempe; BJ's Restaurant and Brewhouse (multiple locations)

Best Place to Sip Wine

D'Vine Bistro & Wine Bar

For the second year in a row, D'Vine can add "Best Place to Sip Wine" to its impressive list of awards, which also includes Wine Spectator's "Award of Excellence" in 2008, 2009 and 2010. But with the motto of "Make wine approachable," D'Vine's knowledgeable staff makes every patron comfortable. Both East Valley locations feature wine tastings, live music, happy hour and a menu that doesn't disappoint.

Best Burger Joint

Five Guys Burgers and Fries

Soon after the first Five Guys opened in 1986 as a carry-out burger joint in the D.C. area, it developed a cult-like local following for being the place to get a fresh, juicy burger with all the toppings you could stuff in a bun. That die-hard fan base expanded in 2003 when the business, named for the five brothers in the owning Murrell family, began offering franchises. Now with 900 locations nationwide, Five Guys uses only fresh ground beef (the restaurants don't even have freezers), and you can choose as many of 15 free toppings as you'd like, from grilled onions to A1 Steak Sauce. Fries are cooked in peanut oil.

Who We Are...

After spending several years working in the industry, Todd Miller and Kathryn Grimco wanted to establish a company that put the clients' needs before the bottom line, and have been business partners since 2001.

With that philosophy in mind they have built their organization, First Guaranty Financial, into a leading financial services company. As a family owned and operated business they also believe it is important to treat their clients just the same—like family.

Over the years, Todd, Kathryn and their team have continually strived to build lasting client relationships, which is why they only offer the safest, most tax friendly investment vehicles available. Their "client first" approach has allowed them to gain mutual trust and respect with their clients, and ultimately attributes to the success of their company.

At First Guaranty Financial they find great satisfaction in knowing they have helped hundreds of clients position their retirement

Best Guys Night Out Downtown Chandler

In just about every group of friends there is the contrarian. You tell your friends, "Hey, let's meet up for a steak," and there's always one that will chime in, "I'm on a diet and cutting down on red meat." Or, you propose Mexican, he wants less spicy food.

For that friend, just say, "meet me in downtown Chandler."

In the span of a quarter mile (yes, we measured), there are enough bar and restaurant options to satisfy even your most annoying friend (unless that friend likes disco dancing. There are no disco joints and you should rethink your choice in friends). You can meet up for a nice meal, grab some drinks, watch the game or listen to live music. The options are all within a few steps.

On the north end is Sushi Eye in Motion, 58 W. Buffalo St., #110, and Italian at La Stalla Cucina Rustica, 68 W. Buffalo St. To the south, is Latitude Eight Thai Grill, 11 W. Boston St., #5, and a Valley mainstay, Serrano's Mexican Cantina, 141 S. Arizona Ave. In between, there is one of the Valley's best brewpubs in SanTan Brewing Co., 8 S. San Marcos Place; an Irish pub in Irish Republic Public House, 58 S. San Marcos Place; Piza Pizza, 48 S. San Marcos Place; El Zocalo Mexican Grill, 28 S. San Marcos Place; DC Steak House, 98 S. San Marcos Place; and a sports bar in Coach and Willie's, 1. E. Boston St.

Even the wine snob in your group can be satisfied at Vintage 95 Wine Lounge, 95 W. Boston St., or the local Kokopelli Winery, 35 W. Boston St.

And, for good measure, if you or any of your friends are in no shape to drive home, the Hotel San Marcos is right there in the heart of downtown.

Best Girls Night Out Bottles n' Paint, SunDust Gallery

Grab your friends for a Bottles n' Paint class at SunDust Gallery in Mesa. [Submitted]

Sure, you could gather the gals and head to the nail salon. Or maybe to the movies to see the latest chick flick. But why not get a little more creative. OK, a lot more creative.

Grab your friends — and a bottle of wine — and head over to SunDust Gallery for Bottles n' Paint, a BYOB painting class in downtown Mesa where you are encouraged to uncork your bottles and unleash your creativity. No art experience required.

SunDust provides everything you need: brushes, paint, a 16-by-20 canvas, loose instruction from one of the artists and a gallery full of inspiration. You provide the drinks (wine, beer or anything non-alcoholic), the friends and the adventurous spirit. And at the end of the two-hour session, you'll have a handmade masterpiece to take home and enjoy.

Sipping wine, visiting with friends and creating art: We could get used to that.

SunDust offers Bottles n' Paint classes on most Friday and Saturday evenings. Pre-registration is required. Check the gallery's website for upcoming classes. The fee is $50 per person, but group discounts are available.

Location: SunDust Gallery, 48 W. Main Street, Suite 100, Mesa

Best Mural The Floor at Xico Galeria

[Tribune file]

Sometimes you find art in surprising places — like on the floor.

Xico's patchwork "rug" features more than 20 3-foot-by-3-foot painted slabs, each a small masterpiece by an Arizona painter, printmaker, sculptor or other artist.

The floor became an unexpected showcase for homegrown artwork little more than three years ago, when Xico — a multidisciplinary arts nonprofit created in 1975 to promote indigenous culture through community arts programs — moved into its 100-year-old building in downtown Chandler.

The orange shag carpeting was ripped up, and Xico leaders saw an opportunity in the neatly divided concrete floor they found underneath. Artists, such as Mesa's Carmen Guerrero, began painting the squares.

Now their paintings, showing everything from Mexican dolls and buckets of beer to flowers and dancing skeletons, serve as little "windows" into the local arts community and, at times, common memories, experiences or issues we can all recognize.

The blocks are triple coated in clear polyurethane sealer and get an additional varnish every six months or so.

Xico Galeria is open Tuesdays through Saturdays. Admission is free.

Best Place To Hang Out With Your Dog Friends for Life Animal Rescue's BARKtoberfest

[Tribune file]

October's BARKtoberfest is one big party for people and their pooches.

The annual fall festival is a fundraiser for Friends for Life Animal Rescue, a no-kill, volunteer-run shelter in Gilbert where many an EV pet owner has found a furry member of the family.

Pups can create a work of art for their owners at a DOGvinci "paw painting" station, and people can return the favor by lavishing their pooches in suds and attention at a dog wash.

Contests are held throughout the day, from bobbing for bones and performing tricks to howling wearing the best costume and looking most like their owners. Most activities ask for just a small donation.

A vendor area features about 40 pet-related merchant and arts and crafts booths. There's also a police K-9 unit demonstration, a lure course, an area where kids can play and dogs available for adoption.

A "shelter alumni" parade features former Friends for Life dogs that have gone on to new homes. Each dog is announced, and details are shared about its adoption story.

BARKtoberfest draws about 2,500 people and 500 or so dogs. Leashed, neutered and vaccinated pups are welcome.

Best Annual EV Event

Ostrich Festival

Chandler

Where else can you see ostrich races, where the birds compete carrying jockeys or pulling chariots? And that's not all you'll find during Chandler's annual Ostrich Festival. There are also monkey, reptile and dog shows, a petting zoo, magic and thrill shows, and live ostrich displays. And if you get bored looking at the giant birds, you can try one, literally; ostrich burgers are available on Ostrich Alley, where you'll also find hand-painted eggs, emu oil and other avian trinkets. The multi-day festival also includes multiple stages of live entertainment, celebrity meet-and-greets, a parade and fun run.

Location: Tumbleweed Park, 2250 S. McQueen Road, Chandler

Best Person to Trade Places with for a Day

Ed Hochuli

Attorney, NFL referee

Truth be told, we don't want to trade places with long-time East Valley resident Ed Hochuli for a day. Give us two. "I am certainly flattered," he said. "Trust me, though, there are times out there ... I'm thinking those 'wanna get away' commercials."

Wanna get away? Not us. It's Hochuli's seat among the most well-respected in both chosen professions (that's plural) that makes us want to try on this Wisconsin-born-turned-Tempe-area lifer's shoes for a day (or two).

On Sundays, Hochuli, 61, dons the striped getup for his gig as one of the National Football League's most well-known — and well-respected — referees. The next morning: back to the "day job," holding court as a corporate litigator for Jones, Skelton and Hochuli, P.L.C., the Valley-based law-firm he helped start nearly 30 years ago.

"The two careers complement each other so much. I am a much better lawyer, and a much better referee, because of the other," he explains.

"When I'm in the courtroom, the whole concept of being nervous is so foreign ... I'm used to being on a football field with 70,000 people and so many more on TV."

Even amidst Super Bowls and other well-known moments, Hochuli finds it "bizarre" that his football celebrity has soared in recent years. He's known for giving sermon-like rules interpretations — "If you give a lawyer an open microphone and a captive audience, you get what you deserve," he quips — and his likeness has been used by the EA Sports Madden NFL video game series, the best-selling sports video game franchise of all time.

"I'm very humbled by it," he said. "The players are the ones with the talent, the ability. They're the show. All I am is the administrator of the show."

Runner-up: Michael Pollack, real estate magnate and owner of Pollack Tempe Cinemas

Best EV Politician

Mesa Mayor Scott Smith

Smith burst onto the political scene when he won his initial race for mayor in 2008 and has worked his way into becoming a national figure. A big part of that rise in prominence has been his work for the city and the region. In Smith's tenure, Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport continues to expand. He also worked to lure a college to open a campus in the city in Benedictine University (to open in 2013). He's also been part of the planning for the Chicago Cubs new spring training complex, as well as the First Solar complex at the old General Motors Proving Grounds.

Scott Smith

Smith's profile was also helped by the good-natured way he handled the infamous "Tussle on the Tarmac" between Arizona Gov. Jan Brewer and President Barack Obama in February. Smith was in earshot of the well-publicized conversation and finger wagging, but handled the ensuing questions with honesty, refusing to take sides. He was also able to add some humor when he said, "As a matter of fact, what really happened is that the governor said if the Giants win (the Super Bowl), you have to have a breakfast of scorpions. That's how it all played out, none of that other political stuff."

Information: (480) 644-2388 or www.mesaaz.gov/mayor

Voters' comments:

"Makes things happen, states vision, gets it done. Cheerleader for entire East Valley."

"He's navigating Mesa through some tough times, and making it more viable."

"Rejuvenated Mesa and changed perception of the city."

"He is the absolute best mayor Mesa has ever had. Probably the best in the Valley."

Runners-up: Congressman Jeff Flake; former state Senate Russell Pearce; state Sen. David Schapira

Kiana Banks, right, stands with her friend Amber Fernandez. [Submitted]

Best Hero Kiana Banks

Heroes come in many forms. Sometimes it's the bystander who runs into the burning building to pull out someone trapped inside. Sometimes it's the player who scores the winning basket or touchdown. Sometimes it's a caped cartoon figure in tights battling the evils of this world.

And sometimes, it's not the bravest or the biggest, but the person who shows the most heart.

That's the case with this year's Best Hero of the East Valley: 7-year-old Kiana Banks of Chandler.

This Hull Elementary School second-grader rallied the community around classmate Amber Fernandez, who is battling acute myeloid leukemia, by setting out to raise $100,000 to help her friend. She's raised $6,000 so far.

Through fund-raising events and a class quilt project, Kiana has shown Amber a community that cares — and the East Valley a young hero whose compassion for another leads the way. Congratulations, Kiana!

Best School Mascot Gators

Higley's Gateway Pointe Elementary School, Gilbert

Gators are known to defend their territory and instill fear with their sharp teeth and powerful bite — perfect for a little school pride, right? The students and staff of Gateway Pointe, a K-8 school in the Higley Unified School District, sure have pride in their swamp.

Location: 2069 S. De La Torre Drive, Gilbert

Information: (480) 279-7700 or www.husd.org

Voters' comments:

"Inspires fear in rival schools"

"We're cool!"

Runners-up: Knights of Higley High School, Gilbert; Toros of Mountain View High School, Mesa

Best Elementary School Teacher

Robert Wyatt

Higley's San Tan Elementary School, Gilbert

Teachers are supposed to care about the students and be good role models. It takes a little extra to make science fun for sixth-graders. And that's just what Robert Wyatt does. A native Arizonan, Wyatt teaches at San Tan Elementary in the Higley Unified School District. Voters recognized him for not only being a good teacher, but going beyond expectations.

Voters' comments:

"Mr. Wyatt makes learning fun. He takes different teaching approaches and makes sure he finds the teaching strategy that works for each individual student he teaches."

"Great role model for the kids ... does more than expected of him."

"My child gets it. He makes science so much fun!"

Runners-up: Cadi Hunsaker of American Leadership Academy, Gilbert; Jannifer Ziegler of Higley Elementary School, Gilbert

Best Middle School Teacher

Tera Geyer
Higley's Gateway Pointe Elementary School

Anyone can be good at math. That's how Tera Geyer approaches teaching the subject to eighth-graders at Gateway Pointe. She takes the fear out of math and helps students find success. And according to voters, she makes connections that go beyond her math class.

Voters' comments:

"Because she cares in so many ways and is always there to help you."

"She has the best teaching strategies and they are easy to understand!"

"She cares a lot about us and always makes us laugh"

Runners-up: Anne Marshall of Grand Canyon Preparatory Academy, Tempe; Sarah Giddings of Taylor Junior High School, Mesa

Best High School Teacher Stephen Heiser

Tempe's Mountain Pointe High School, Ahwatukee Foothills

A 13-year teaching veteran and mathematics department chair, Heiser has made quite an impression on students, parents and colleagues alike. Heiser teaches AP Calculus and AP Statistics, as well as first- and second-year geometry, so he works with a wide range of students and is able to bring out the best in them. "What sets Mr. Heiser apart from others is his innovative approach to teaching," said principal Bruce Kipper. "He has embraced technology and makes learning fun and relevant."

Voters' comments:

"Innovative, caring, funny, and passionate."

"Out of the box thinker, hard worker, caring."

Runners-up: Anne Marshall of Grand Canyon Preparatory Academy, Tempe; Jim Beall of Higley High School, Gilbert; Tamara Scott of Mountain View High School, Mesa

Best Private School Seton Catholic Preparatory Chandler

One of the older private schools in the state (opening in 1954), Seton Catholic Prep is in the middle of a renovation project that has been years in the making. The new campus features a new academic and fine arts building, a new chapel and a new football stadium. Seton, with 550 students, made the National Catholic High School Honor Roll as one of the 50 best Catholic secondary schools in the United States. Seton has a strong academic reputation, as well as a solid history in athletics, making it a desirable educational destination.

Location: 1150 N. Dobson Road, Chandler

Information: (480) 963-1900 or www.setoncatholic.org

Voters' comments:

"They do the best job of preparing students for college and more importantly, life in general."

"Seton is consistently student centered and all ... strategies, whether improved facilities or academic program review are geared to providing the best."

Runner-up: Christ the King Catholic School, Mesa

Best Public School Gateway Pointe Elementary

Still a young school at just 7-years-old, Gateway Pointe seems to be maturing with age. One of eight elementary schools in the Higley Unified School District, Gateway Pointe serves kindergarten through eighth grade and does so with a staff that is described by voters as "professional, caring and dedicated to helping students." The school offers clubs, fine arts and athletics, with 13 different sports options for middle school students, as well as spirit line, drum line and marching band.

Location: 2069 S. De La Torre Drive, Gilbert

Information: (480) 279-7700 or www.husd.org/Domain/1214

Voters' comments:

"The staff is fantastic at what they do and they care about all students."

"Rigorous academics and community atmosphere."

"They work hard to help every child do well."

"Because the students are the best!"

Runners-up: Coronado Elementary, Higley Elementary & Middle School, and San Tan Elementary – all in the Higley Unified School District, Gilbert

Best Charter School American Leadership Academy Queen Creek

With K-8 campuses in Gilbert and San Tan Valley and a high school in a strip mall in Queen Creek, American Leadership Academy is the only "The Leader In Me" Lighthouse School in Arizona. The school uses the "Leader in Me" program and Stephen R. Covey's "The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People" to teach students leadership skills. Students must demonstrate these skills by giving service hours, leading classroom discussions, participating in ceremonies and accepting leadership responsibilities — and parents are encouraged to attend seminars to extend the principles at home. Daily homework, 20 minutes of nightly reading and a 95 percent attendance record are required. There's also a dress code. Like all charter schools, American Leadership Academy is a tuition-free public school that is privately operated.

Location: K-8 campus, 17019 S. Greenfield Road, Gilbert; K-8 campus, 34696 N. Village Lane, San Tan Valley; high school, 22721 S. Ellsworth Road, Suite 103, Queen Creek.

Information: (480) 988-3204 (Gilbert), (480) 420-2100 (San Tan Valley), (480) 987-4500 (Queen Creek) or www.alaschools.org

Voters' comments:

"I love that ALA teaches my kids to be leaders first and to make great choices. They are the leaders of themselves."

"Since we have switched our children from public to this charter school, our children have thrived and succeeded."

Runners-up: Grand Canyon Preparatory School, Tempe; Academy with Community Partners, Mesa

Best College

Arizona State University

The stats make it easy to see why ASU gets high marks in Arizona higher education: The school ranks among the top in the nation in student entrepreneurs, is one of the top 10 producers of Fulbright Scholars in the U.S., and is home to 612 National Merit Scholars and 324 National Hispanic Scholars.

Faculty members include three Nobel laureates, 12 National Academy of Sciences members, 11 American Academy of Arts and Sciences members, 114 Fulbright American Scholars, 25 Guggenheim Fellows and three members of the Royal Society. Its business, education, public affairs, design and arts programs have been rated in the top 25 percent in the nation.

For voters, those things mattered — but so did far less weighty factors, including “bright and beautiful” campuses, Sun Devil sports, “cool” school colors and the lynchpin for one voter: “It’s not the UofA.”

Location: Tempe and Mesa

Information: (480) 965-2100 or www.asu.edu

Voters’ comments:

“Great educators and wonderful programs.”

“The offer amazing degrees in EVERYthing!”

“The hands-on learning is the best.”

“Excellent school for Applied Computer Science.”

“Lots to offer everyone.”

Runners-up: Mesa Community College, Chandler-Gilbert Community College

Best East Valley Landmark

Mormon Temple, Mesa

For the non-LDS member, what makes the Mormon Temple unique and inspiring is the transformation it makes as the year goes by. In the early part of the year, it transforms into a giant theater as it puts up the massive stage for the annual Easter Pageant, which draws people from all over the world. Then in the summer, it transforms into a park, with green grass, plenty of shade, and plenty of places to walk and contemplate. Late in the year, it becomes a giant Christmas display. All of that happens on the outside of the Temple itself, which is an impressive structure, and serves as a special, holy place for those who enter it.

Location: 101 S. LeSueur, Mesa

Information: (480) 833-1211 or www.ldschurchtemples.com/mesa (unofficial site)

Voters’ comments:

“Beautiful building in downtown Mesa.”

Runners-up: Gilbert Water Tower; Superstition Mountains

Best View of the East Valley

ASU Sun Devil Stadium (Section 232, Row 38)

A number of obvious places exist to get great views of the East Valley — that is if you have the cash, or the connections.

Be it the control tower at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (no dice, unless you happen to, you know, actually be an air traffic controller) or a penthouse apartment in Tempe’s trendy, semi-exclusive West 6th high-rises (around $3,000 a month for a two-to-three-bedroom unit), the good things, sadly, are often about access.

But on a half-dozen or so Saturdays each year, a 10-spot and your gold and maroon foam finger provide that access to this year’s pick for “Best View of the East Valley.” That would be the top row (of the upper deck) in the northeast corner of Arizona State University’s Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe.

Sure, there are other nearby spots (top of Tempe Butte/A Mountain, for one) that offer similar vistas, but few do it in a 360-degree ambiance that happens to include 70,000-plus of your closest friends or a prime view of a late summer/early fall Sonoran sunset shining down on Tempe Town Lake. Even fewer do it for the $10 to $20 an upper-level ticket to an ASU football game will run you.

Affordable as it may be, alas, even this accessible view of the East Valley and vicinity — including looks at Four Peaks, Red Mountain, and the Superstitions off in the distance — is limited access. You can only see it if you buy a ticket to a game; the facility is closed to the public on all non-game days.

Location: Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe (Section 232, Row 38, to be exact)

Information: (480) 727-0000 or www.thesundevils.com

Best Place to Work Keller Williams Integrity First Realty

With the volatile nature of the housing market in the East Valley, one might think that working for a large realty company would be stressful. But judging from the comments about Integrity First, that is not the case. The voters were generous in their praise of a workplace that was described as "fun, successful people helping each other," and "one big family."

Location: 2500 S. Power Road, Suite 121 Mesa

Information: (480) 854-2400 or www.integrityfirstrealty.com

Best community garden MCC Community Garden

When you're craving the most flavorful tomatoes to top off that salad, odds are you won't find them in the produce aisle at the megamart. That's why we appreciate the community garden at Mesa Community College.

It's a great place to get a plot of your own and put your green thumb to use. And it's the kind of spot where you can get inspired by seeing what else is sprouting from the earth. There's usually a friendly face around to chat up and get other ideas for the next season. Community gardens are regaining their long-lost popularity with the recession. But the experience of places like MCC's garden goes a long way toward reminding us why it's so fun, and tasty, to get our hands dirty once in a while.

Best Jeweler Dickson's Jewelers

Mesa

This downtown Mesa business is enjoying its 63rd year of providing its customers with all of the service one would expect from a local jewelry store. The family-owned Dickson's does jewelry repair, as well as selling a wide-variety of products. In this day and age of corporate, chain jewelry stores, it's a pleasant experience to walk into a place and speak to someone that owns the business.

Location: 54 W. Main St., Mesa

Information: (480) 964-5822 or www.evtnow.com/dicksonsjewelers

Voters' comments:

"Repaired my jewelry while I waited and great job!"

"Great sales, battery changed while I waited."

Runners-up: Walt's Jewelry, Gilbert; Muralt's Jewelry, Mesa

Best Mall/Shopping Center SanTan Village

Gilbert

Major retailers Best Buy, Dick's Sporting Goods, Dillard's and Macy's anchor this outdoor mall, and specialty stores like Apple, Charming Charlie, Coach, Forever 21, Lucy, Sephora and White House Black Market line walkable and well-manicured mini-streets. Restaurants — like Blue Wasabi Sushi & Martini Bar, Kona Grill and The Keg Steakhouse — a Harkins movie theater, play areas for children, and lots of spaces to sit outside and people-watch ensure there's plenty to do besides shop.

Location: 2743 S. Market St., Gilbert

Information: (480) 899-1878 or www.shopsantanvillage.com

Voters' comments:

"Love the outdoor setting. Very beautifully done and feels upscale."

"Great stores, never feels crowded since it is outside, and best restaurants around."

"It has everything from great stores to restaurants to kids' play areas."

"(It's) like an old-time downtown, with open spaces and streetscape."

"It's nice to walk from store to store in the outside air; especially in the spring or fall when the weather is perfect!"

"Location, convenience, layout and retailers are unmatched."

"Best quality/quantity of stores."

Runners-up: Chandler Fashion Center; Tempe Marketplace; Superstition Springs Center, Mesa

Best Kids' Dance Studio Ballet Etudes

Gilbert

With 25 years in dance education, Ballet Etudes prides itself in duplicating the experiences of a professional ballet company. Students at the Gilbert school perform throughout the Valley, including in an annual production of "The Nutcracker."

Location: 2401 E. Baseline Road, Suite 111, Gilbert

Information: (480) 558-2080 or www.balletetudes.net

Voters' comments:

"They teach their dancers well and believe in the dancer's potential."

"They make ballet so fun while really teaching the technical stuff."

"Everyone is a friend there — parents, instructors, volunteers."

Everyone works so hard together to make it special for the kids."

Best Place to Find Antiques Merchant Square Antique Marketplace Chandler

Open on Arizona Avenue since 2002, Merchant Square Antique Marketplace in Chandler has been called a lot of things: antique mall, indoor flea market, swap meet. Voters call it the best place to find antiques because of its selection of vintage furniture, accessories and home decor items offered in 130 vendor spaces. You'll also find popular hot dog joint Pittsburgh Willy's inside.

Location: 1509 N. Arizona Ave., Chandler

Best Place to Work Out Body Envy Fitness Chandler

Instead of logging mindless miles on cardio machines, exercisers at Body Envy are challenged to four-week fitness boot camps. Trainers and coaches guide participants — women only — through simple but effective exercises to tighten, tone and firm. Although we wouldn't say the intense, ever-changing routines are easy, Body Envy at least makes it easy to attend a workout: They offer 51 boot camp sessions per week, including Sundays. And workouts are held indoors, so you can never use the weather as an excuse to skip a session.

Location: 2450 E. Germann Road, No. 11, Chandler

Information: (480) 686-3689 or www.bodyenvybootcamp.com

Voters' comments:

"Best group of women and the toughest workout!"

Best Kids Birthday Party Bounce U

Happy birthday! If the idea of entertaining 10 kids at your house, feeding them and doing the clean-up is a bit much, check out the indoor facility at Gilbert's Bounce U.

Perfect because it's good in all weather, the birthday party packages here include a party host, drinks for the guests and 45 minutes in the party room. Families can bring in their own cakes. Pizza, sandwiches and more can be purchased for additional cost.

Even a "cosmic" bounce can be added, with the kids jumping in neon lights.

Partygoers will stay busy, too, with two rooms filled with inflatable bounce houses and games where they'll play for an hour.

Think about it: They'll leave the party tired!

Costs vary, with the basic package running $139 to $189 (depending on the day of the week) for up to 10 kids and the "spectacular" package for up to 25 kids running $369 to $399 (includes food, cake and drinks, and more).

Location: 1166 S. Gilbert Road, Gilbert

Earnhardt Auto Centers

Buy a car off a dealer lot around these parts, and chances are good it came from Earnhardt's. In business since 1951, the Earnhardt family helms one of the Southwest's largest automotive empires, with 16 stores in the Phoenix area selling Buicks, Chryslers, Dodges, Fords, GMC's, Hondas, Hyundais, Jeeps, Kias, Nissans, Ram trucks, Scions and Toyotas. Patriarch Tex, along with sons Hal and Jim Babe, and grandsons Dodge, Derby and Bull, personally oversee operations, making sure each shop lives up to Tex's now-famous slogan, delivered from atop a saddled steer in TV commercials: "Earnhardt: a name you can trust, and that ain't no bull."

Location: multiple East Valley locations

Voters' comments:

"Fast, dependable, focused on customer service, sparkling clean."

"Look at the decor compared to other dealerships. Earnhardt does not waste money on fancy offices, which maybe is why they were able to make the deal others were not."

"Great customer service."

"They wash your car every time you take it in for service."

Best Hospital/Medical Center Arizona Ob-Gyn Affiliates

The personal touch is what makes the offices in the Arizona Ob-Gyn Affiliates network special to all of the patients that they care for. While a trip to the Ob-Gyn can be an uncomfortable experience for many women, the staff at Arizona Ob-Gyn Affiliates go out of their way to make each visit a pleasant one. "They truly care about their patients and make them feel as comfortable as possible," one voter said. "The staff is really friendly and helpful."

Locations: New Horizons Women's Care – 1950 W. Frye Road, Chandler, (480) 895-9555; 2163 E. Baseline Road, Suite 101, Tempe, (480) 820-9000; 4545 E. Best Doctor

Dr. David Warkentin

Verve Wellness Center

As a chiropractor and CEO and founder of Verve Medical Group, Dr. David Warkentin's business has been built on satisfied patients. Warkentin opened the Verve Medical Center in 2005. Verve offers a wide range of services, including family medicine, internal medicine, pain management, chiropractic, dental, oral surgery, orthodontics, optical, optometry, massage therapy, mental health, naturopathic medicine, diagnostic blood labs, radiology and neuro diagnostic testing. While the business side of Verve has thrived, Warkentin has maintained his strong reputation as a chiropractor and his high standard of patient care.

Best Auto Repair Shop

Faith Works Automotive

Mesa

Paul Henley and his team have made quite a name for themselves by doing outstanding auto repair work. They have also worked hard to develop a reputation of being honest, caring, and true to the name of his shop. While there are many horror stories of dishonest repair shops that overcharge or make unneeded repairs, Henley stays true to his Christian faith in his business, providing good service, all while treating his customers well. One voter summed up Faith Works simply: "They are good at what they do and they are honest."

Location: 340 N. Dobson Road, Mesa

Information: (480) 833-3521 or www.faithworksauto.com

Voters' comments:

"Has always given great service and always states what has to be done and what can be done later."

"Quality service and a willingness to work with the customers' budget."

"I am so glad Paul has his own shop now ... I have followed him for years!"

Runners-up: Lee's Auto Repair, Mesa; Sun Devil Auto (multiple locations)

Best Bookstore

Changing Hands

Tempe

The independent bookstore is a dying breed, but Changing Hands has defied that trend by providing a place where customers can go and always be surprised to find something they didn't know they were looking for. It's the place to go to meet and actually interact with authors, as well as other people who share your interests. Customers are treated as individuals, and if Changing Hands doesn't have what you are looking for, they have something you might like and they'll work to get you what you need.

Location: 6428 S. McClintock Drive, Tempe

Information: (480) 730-0205 or www.changinghands.com

Voters' comments:

"I have never in 15 years been there when they haven't had something I wanted or when they weren't able to recommend something I didn't know I wanted!"

"Because they are always bringing in the best authors, and they really care about their customers and their interests."

"A local, independent, community book store with great selection, great service, and great people."

Best Place to Feel Like a Kid Again Jump Street

[Tim Hacker/Tribune]

The trampoline craze that took off three decades ago, then crashed because of safety and injury issues, is coming back.

A rash of recent injuries — including a death in Phoenix recently when a man suffered a broken neck — are obvious causes for concern and precaution. But freak accidents happen everywhere, and, with some foresight, this is a stress-busting, turn-back-the-clock hour of adolescent aerial acrobatics.

Still, it's worth watching for a few minutes before diving in, and though injuries are a real possibility, did we care about that in our younger days? Of course not.

Prices are more reasonable during the weekdays, and the music gets loud on weekend nights, but reprieves are available with an arcade, obstacle course and batting cages. They also run various pricing specials on Monday-Thursday nights.

Dodgeball court rentals get pricey, but it's solid with enough people to offset costs, and every Wednesday night is a round-robin dodgeball tournament for $8 per person. Just beware of the injury risk associated (depending on who's playing).

We love a good water park or mini-golf place as much as anyone, but who wouldn't like to combine exercise with bouncing around floors and walls with reckless abandon? Or at least watch your kids/teenagers flail away instead?

Best Pet Services Sandi's Tailwaggers Chandler

The billions of dollars that people spend on their pets is proof positive that we humans love our little furry friends. More proof is that Sandi's Tailwaggers has been in the pet sitting business for 10 years and is still going strong. Sandi's is not a pet boarding service; it's more like having a friend come over and check on your pets. But this friend also takes the dog for a walk, cleans the cat box, takes in the mail and stays a while to play with the pets. Sandi's unique and reliable services have earned them the love of pet owners all over the East Valley. "They provide absolute watchfulness and care," one voter commented. "They will take your pet to the vet if necessary, will give medications, prepare special diets. They are fabulous people!"

Location: 553 W. Carob Drive, Chandler

Information: (480) 699-3290 or www.sandistailwaggers.com

Voters' comments:

"I love going on vacation and knowing that our black lab won't be locked up in a crate for a week."

"Never have to worry how my dog is being taken care of. She is treated just like a family member at home and when Sandi and her family take care of her."

"Always pleasant, available last minute when I need them, fair prices and my animals love them!"

Best Grocery Store Fry's

Perhaps Fry's is popular because they have more stores in the East Valley than anyone else, but sheer numbers don't always add up to satisfied customers. No, Fry's is popular because it has just about everything a family needs when it goes grocery shopping, all at a fair price. And in the Fry's Marketplace stores, shoppers can find household items ranging from TV's and stereos to towels and ironing boards, as well as groceries. Voters liked Fry's because the offerings and prices are consistent from store to store, and one voter said, "It's a one-stop shopping experience with great pricing overall."

Location: Multiple locations

Information: www.frysfood.com

Voters' comments:

"If they don't have it, manager can order it for you. Staff is very friendly and helpful. Prices are great."

"I have been going to the same Fry's grocery store for over three years now and the people are friendly, helpful and great you like they really care about you. I have always had great service with Fry's on East Main Street in Mesa. I love these people."

"Great prices, always good sales, and you get fuel points."

Best Farmers Market Super Farm Market Mesa

Head out to Superstition Farms on Thursday evenings and you can take care of a lot of your shopping, all the while getting locally grown products, as well as some not-so-local specialty items like Alaskan seafood. Grass-fed beef, chicken and fresh-baked breads also are for sale, not to mention the dairy products that come fresh from the Superstition Farms cows. While the produce, meats and dairy products are good draws for the adults, the kids will like the fact that there is a petting zoo, as well as cheap hayrides and opportunities to bottle-feed baby calves. Super Farm Market will let you feel like you're back on the farm, at least for a couple hours.

Location: 3440 S. Hawes Road, Mesa

Information: (602) 432-6865 or www.superstitionfarm.com

Voters' comments:

"On a farm! Great vendors, nice family, always friendly service, pets welcome, hay rides and petting zoo, in the evening, family friendly."

Best Wedding Venue Stonebridge Manor

Stonebridge Manor is picturesque both day and night. [Submitted]

Built in the 1980s and featuring beautiful, lush grounds that surround the brick three-story mansion in Mesa, the Stonebridge Mansion is a great place to host a wedding in the East Valley. It offers a bride and groom glamour, ease and individualization for their wedding.

The venue offers two settings for weddings, either the Manor Courtyard, with both indoor and outdoor options, or the Garden Pavilion, which is perfect for larger gatherings of more than 150 guests underneath a tented pavilion.

With the wedding packages, a full staff — including set-up, tear-down and a wedding coordinator — means that family and the wedding party can be stress-free on the big day. Appetizers are even circulated during the reception by servers.

More affordable options are available or the venue can host the intricate wedding of your dreams. The amenities such as the caterer and florist are chosen for you, which means less stress over which one to choose, but additional alterations and customizations from the initial offerings that will make your wedding different from all the others.

Best Dentist

Dr. Keith Kennedy Power Ranch Dental

While no one would say going to the dentist is their favorite activity, Kennedy works to make sure each visit is as pleasant as possible. Several voters commented that Kennedy was "gentle," a very good trait for someone who wields sharp objects in the mouths of his patients. One voter gave Kennedy his endorsement, saying, "He's very knowledgeable, shows concern and interest in his patients and is kind, helpful, always does a stand-up job."

Location: 7400 E. Germann Road, Gilbert

Information: (480) 988-2282 or www.powerranchdental.com

Voters' comments:

"Great service, always fits me and my family for special needs."

"Dr. Kennedy will talk to you in a manner that makes you feel comfortable. He is a down-to-earth guy and does great work!"

"Wonderful dentist, very nice office and staff, gives back to the community."

Best Veterinarian

Dr. Karin Burns Priority Pet Hospital

Burns and her partner, husband and fellow vet Dr. William Griswold have been working under the motto of "Putting Pets First," since 2007 when they opened Priority Pet Hospital. Since then, Dr. Burns has grown a practice that works hard to make each pet (and person) feel like they are part of the family. "Dr. Burns takes time to develop trust with your pet," one voter said. "She is very knowledgeable, friendly and outstanding with follow-up. We couldn't ask for a better Vet."

Location: 4902 S. Val Vista Drive, Suite 108, Gilbert

Information: (480) 857-7234 or www.prioritypethospital.com

Voters' comments:

"No veterinarian cares more about pets than these great people. They treat you and your pet like family."

"She is great with both us and our dog who is very skittish (an abused rescue dog). She is never rushed and shows how much she really loves pets and her job."

Runners-up: Connie Anderson, Animal House Veterinary Clinic, Queen Creek; Pamela Ford, AZ Animal Wellness Center, Gilbert

Best Place to Buy Spirits Total Wine & More

For someone that appreciates a nice adult beverage from time to time, walking into a Total Wine & More is like a child walking into a toy store. You walk the aisles, seeing brands and flavors that you've never seen before and your mind races, wondering how good this wine would be or how well that wine would go with your favorite dish. Yes, there are so many regional or local wines (and other spirits) from around the country that won't likely make it to the shelves of your local Total Wine & More, but it's almost a guarantee that there will be something there that will fit your discerning tastes.

Locations: 8544 S. Emerald Drive, Tempe; 2224 E. Williams Field Road, Gilbert

Information: (480) 753-4225 (Tempe), (480) 786-0270 (Gilbert), or www.totalwine.com
