GRAPHIC PACKAGING
INTERNATIONAL, INC.

HSE/Process Engineer

Responsible for coordination and implementation of Health, Safety & Environmental programs, provides accurate information and reports to government agencies, ensures plant's compliance with Health, Safety & Environmental regulations, leads technical investigations related to HSE impact issues, OSHA compliance and provides timely and cost-effective resolution.

Also provides general supervision and leadership to improve the Overall Equipment Effectiveness (OEE) of plant's assets. Responsibilities include engineering support for manufacturing and maintenance.

A bachelor's degree in Mechanical, Electrical, Safety Engineering or Environmental Science is preferred. Work experience in Manufacturing or related field with 8-10 years of combined education/experience managing plant HSE and Process Management will be considered. Experience with or training in any of the following: Six Sigma, TPM, Lean Manufacturing, Kaizen, RCFA, and 5S preferred. Proficiency in "Auto-Cad," SAP, strong organizational, communication and follow up skills are required.

Qualified candidates can apply online at www.graphicpkg.com

GRAPHIC PACKAGING INTERNATIONAL, INC. is an Equal Opportunity Employer
Minorities/Women/Veterans/Disabled