

BOYS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

GRAYSON SELBY Stafford junior

The 6A-South region runner up, Selby turned in an 18-3 season with a conference title playing No. 1 singles for the Indians. He advanced to the 6A state tournament quarterfinals.

MEGAN AMRHINE Courtland senior

The Cougars' No. 1 finished 21-2 in singles and 15-2 doubles, with Conference 22 titles in both. She also led Courtland to the conference team title.

SHELBY ANDERSON North Stafford senior

The Wolverines' No. 1 seed was the Conference 15 girls singles runner-up this spring, earning a berth in the 5A-North region quarterfinals.

LUCY CASTLES James Monroe sophomore

Castles was the Conference 27 singles champion and won the conference doubles title with teammate LC King.

JOSEPHINE GRESKO Stafford sophomore

Gresko turned in a 12-4 record playing No. 1 singles for the Indians. She also played with Kaitlyn Dreeke on a formidable No. 1 doubles team.

JESSICA SUDDRETH Colonial Forge junior

The Eagles' No. 2 seed was one of the area's best. She teamed with Natalie Fritz to finish a perfect 18-0 at No. 2 doubles for the Conference 4 champs.

GIRLS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

MIKAYLA CUNNEY Colonial Forge freshman

Cunney made a huge splash in her first varsity season. She turned in a 20-1 record playing No. 1 singles for the Eagles with a 14-2 mark at No. 1 doubles, paired with Haley Meyer.

ERIC KAUFFMAN Stafford senior

The Indians' No. 2 seed turned in an exceptional campaign. He lost just once in singles, and he led Stafford's No. 2 doubles team to a perfect season.

THOMAS GEANEY Colonial Forge senior

The Eagles' No. 1 seed turned in an 18-4 season and advanced to the 6A South region tournament. He and doubles partner Alex Beck were 23-3.

KLAUS HARALDSSON James Monroe sophomore

The Yellow Jackets' No. 2 teamed with Wood to capture Conference 27 and 3A-East region doubles titles.

SEAN WEAVER Eastern View sophomore

Weaver won the Conference 22 singles title and teamed with Alex West to also win the conference doubles crown.

MARSHALL WOOD James Monroe freshman

Wood had a great high school debut. He captured the Conference 27 singles title and advanced to the 3A-East region semifinals.

GIRLS COACH OF THE YEAR

STEVE BUTTERS Colonial Forge

The Eagles were unbeaten in the regular season, claiming the Conference 4 girls team title. Colonial Forge also won its first-round 6A-South match, advancing to the region semifinals.

BOYS COACH OF THE YEAR

PATRICK MILLER Stafford

Miller's Indians enjoyed one of the best seasons in school history. Stafford with 15-2 and captured the second conference or district title in school history, and first since 1981.

HONORABLE MENTION

BOYS

Brandon Achu, North Stafford
Alex Beck, Colonial Forge
Darius Boles, Riverbend
Dylan Christensen, Culpeper
Joseph Cruz, Colonial Forge
Matt Darling, Mountain View
Shane Daveler, Stafford
Kevin Dreeke, Stafford
Tion Edmonds, Chancellor
LJ Hackley, Eastern View
Tyler Haden, Colonial Forge
Edward Hoffman, James Monroe
Nathan Horner, Orange
Jaren Jackson, James Monroe
Hunter Lacy, Eastern View
Zane Landeck, James Monroe
Patrick McManus, Riverbend
Jack Miller, James Monroe

Robert Morin, Mountain View
Josh O'Neil, North Stafford
Josh ransom, Chancellor
Anias Saunders, Eastern View
Mick Torrey, Mountain View
Alex West, Eastern View
Kendrick Wilkens, James Monroe

GIRLS

Lia Constantine, Stafford
Katelyn Dreeke, Stafford
Emily Frank, James Monroe
Samantha Focazio, Eastern View
Mary Foley, Brooke Point
Natalie Fritz, Colonial Forge
Molli Gudka, Orange
Grace Hall, James Monroe
Allison Henry, Courtland
Katie Janey James Monroe

LC King, James Monroe
Libby King, James Monroe
Reagan King, Mountain View
Caroline Koscheski, Mountain View
Josie Kritter, Eastern View
Carolyn Louie, Courtland
Payton Massey, Courtland
Haley Meyer, Colonial Forge
Adriana Orozco, Mountain View
Alaina Patterson, Stafford
Meagan Sharp, Colonial Forge
Morgan Sharp, Colonial Forge
Claire Simons, Riverbend
Ellie Smith, Courtland
Kate Smith, Courtland
Amanda Smithson, Stafford
Randi Thomas, Mountain View
Caroline Wilkerson, Brooke Point
Laura Yang, Brooke Point