We're proud to be a part of SPC. Ben Franklin Crafts is a leading member of Sierra Pacific Crafts (SPC), a cooperative organization of successful independently owned craft stores located throughout the United States. The organization started in 1979 with two stores & now boasts more than 100 store memberships, filling nearly three million feet of retail space & 360 million dollars in retail sales. From the beginning, SPC stores have been committed to marketing crafts and home decor to today's savvy consumer. As a member store we can offer exclusive, quality products that you won't find anywhere else. Because our partners at SPC search the world over to find the most unique products and best values we can pass the savings on to you, our valued customer.
