KICKOFF: 7:00 P.M.

Saturday's game will be the inaugural NCAA Division II Heart of Texas Bowl, pitting Southern Arkansas against McMurry at 7 p.m. in Copperas Cove, Texas, at Copperas Cove High School's Bulldawg Stadium.

The Heart of Texas Bowl has existed for a number of years as a junior college game and is adding the Division II game this year, which will be played in conjunction with the 12th annual junior college bowl that features the Navarro Bulldogs and the Georgia Military Bulldogs at 11 a.m.

The bowl is sponsored by C.H.A.M.P.S., Communities Helping Americans Mature Progress and Succeed, a school-based program aimed at educating students about the dangers of the abuse of illicit drugs and alcohol, and was founded by Copperas Cove Head Coach and Athletic Director Jack Welch.

The Coaches

Hired as the 19th head coach at Southern Arkansas in December 2008, Bill Keopple (Central Arkansas, 1982) is in his fourth season with the Muleriders, where he is now 15-25 overall. He previously had spent six years as head coach at Arkansas High School in Texarkana, compiling a 44-26-1 record, five consecutive state playoff appearances, two 6A South Conference titles, and 6A state championships in 2006 and 2007. In 1996 he served as athletic director and head coach at Newport High School, guiding the Greyhounds to the state playoffs in an 8-3 season, giving him an overall mark of 52-29-1 in his seven years at the high school level. Keopple has 18 years of experience as an assistant in the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2002 season on former Arkansas defensive coordinator Keith Burn's staff at Tulsa, coaching the defensive line and serving as recruiting coordinator. He served two years under Houston Nutt at Arkansas in 1998 and 1999, and was with Nutt at Boise State in 1997, coaching the defensive line at both schools. Keopple was an honorable mention All-District and All-AIC selection for Central Arkansas and got his start there as a graduate assistant in 1982. He spent 14 years with the Bears coaching the offensive line and was offensive coordinator from 1990-95.

McMurry's Hal Mumme (Tarleton State, 1973) is currently 26-16 in his fourth year as head coach of the War Hawks, and has compiled an overall mark of 134-118-1 in 22 years as a head coach on the collegiate level. Mumme has turned McMurry's fortunes around, guiding the school to its first-ever NCAA Division III playoff appearance in 2011, a final season ranking of 15th, and being named the South Region coach of the year. Prior to coaching the War Hawks, Mumme spent four seasons (2005-08) as head coach at New Mexico State. He got his start in coaching in 1976 as an assistant at Moody (Texas) High School, before spending a year in 1979 as head coach at Aransas Pass (Texas) High School. He then moved to the collegiate ranks as an assistant at West Texas State in 1980-1981, before serving as offensive coordinator at Texas-El Paso for four years (1982-85). From there, he took the head coach's position at Copperas Cove (Texas) High School from 1986-1988. Mumme entered the collegiate ranks for good the following year, becoming head coach at Iowa Wesleyan College. He left after three seasons to take the head job at Valdosta State (Ga.), compiling a 40-17-1 record over five years (1992-1996) and leading the Blazers to the 1996 Gulf South Conference championship. Mumme then entered the Division I ranks, serving as head coach at Kentucky from 1997-2000, leading the Wildcats to back-to-back bowl appearances in 1999 (Outback Bowl) and 2000 (Music City Bowl). After a break from coaching, he accepted the head position at Southeastern Louisiana, starting the program from scratch and staying there in 2003 and 2004 before heading to New Mexico State.

Mulerider Football History

Southern Arkansas has had a football program since 1911, but will have to wait until the 2017 season to truly commemorate 100 years of Mulerider football. SAU didn't field a team from 1937-1939 and 1942-1945, a total of seven years, making 2012 the 95th football season.

SAU was founded in 1909 as the Third District Agricultural School, with G.R. Turrentine serving as the inaugural head coach in 1911. The team played only two games that first year, losing both in Magnolia by shutouts, 19-0 to Texarkana (Texas) High School and 9-0 to Camden High School. The team was commonly called the Magnolia Aggies until the early 1920's, but Turrentine, who went on to coach for a total of seven years, is credited with providing the moniker of "Muleriders" following the team's final game of the 1912 season, a Thanksgiving date at Fordyce High School. A few days after that game, members of the team rode mules to Coach Turrentine's home to discuss their final game and he greeted them with "My Mule Riders". That was the first known time the term was used, and the name eventually stuck, changing from two words to the compound "Muleriders".

SAU is now 437-415-30 in its 95th year of football since the first season of play in 1911, and is currently 9-6 all-time in Great American Conference games and 203-199-11 against teams currently in the GAC.

The Series (1-0, McMurry)

Saturday's inaugural NCAA Division II C.H.A.M.P.S. Heart of Texas Bowl will be only the second meeting between Southern Arkansas and McMurry, coming 56 years after their only previous engagement in 1956.

The Muleriders traveled to Abilene, Texas, for their next to last game of that season, dropping a 20-13 decision to the War Hawks.

HEAD COACH

Bill Keopple enters his fourth season as head football coach at Southern Arkansas, hired in December 2008 as the 19th coach to lead the Muleriders.

Keopple has accumulated 28 years of coaching experience, including his first stint as a head coach on the collegiate level at SAU. He served 18 years as an assistant in the college ranks with stops at Tulsa, Arkansas, Boise State and Central Arkansas.

Prior to coming to Southern Arkansas, Keopple served six years (2003-2008) as head coach at Arkansas High School in Texarkana. His teams were 44-26-1 during his six seasons, advancing to the state playoffs the last five and winning consecutive state championships in 2006 and 2007. Keopple's 2005 and 2006 Razorback teams were 6A South Conference champions. He was honored in 2006 as the 6A State Farm Coach of the Year, as well as 6A Outstanding Coach by the National Football Foundation in both 2006 and 2007, and was selected to serve on the Arkansas high school football All-Star coaching staffs in 2004 and 2007.

Before taking over the reins at Texarkana, Keopple was at the University of Tulsa in 2002 on former Arkansas defensive coordinator Keith Burns' staff. He spent that season coaching the defensive line and serving as recruiting coordinator for the Golden Hurricane.

Keopple served as an assistant under Houston Nutt at Arkansas in 1998 and 1999, and was with Nutt at Boise State in 1997, coaching the defensive line at both schools. The Razorbacks were 1998 SEC Western Division champions, finishing 9-3 and playing Michigan in the Citrus Bowl. Arkansas had the fifth-ranked rushing defense in the nation that season and was ranked seventh in total defense. The 1999 Razorbacks went 8-4 and defeated Texas in the Cotton Bowl, finishing the season 12th in rushing defense and 17th in total defense.

Keopple went to Boise State from Newport High School where he was head coach and athletic director in 1996. He guided the Greyhounds to the state playoffs in an 8-3 season, giving him an overall mark of 52-29-1 in his seven years as a head coach on the high school level.
