WELCOME to the FESTIVAL CITY

COME VISIT SOUTHWEST MONTANA this summer, where the land is rich with yet undiscovered beauty in its scenery, wildlife and cultural events.

Butte has earned the title Montana's Festival City, with the Montana Folk Festival in its sixth year this summer, Evel Knievel Days, the An Rí Rá Irish Festival and the Freedom Festival Fourth of July parade and fireworks.

Added to that, visitors are swept away by the city's rich mining history, with walking tours, magnificent buildings throughout the Historic District and museums that offer a glimpse into the Mining City's rough and rowdy past.

In the beautiful mountains and river valleys of southwestern Montana, visitors will find hiking and biking trails, blue-ribbon trout streams and rocks to climb. In the towns, there's everything from theater to rodeos, golf and some of the best restaurants around. What more could you ask for?

13 performers set for Folk Fest

Festival organizers have announced the list of all 13 performers for the Montana Folk Festival in Butte, July 12, 13 and 14 — the complete lineup for the festival's six music performance stages that will run continuously throughout the weekend.

Admission to all three days of the festival is free.

"For any one of these performers, you could expect to pay $20 to $50 to see them separately at a Montana concert venue," said George Everett, festival director.

The performers for the 2013 Montana Folk Festival include:

■ Karan Casey and John Doyle, Irish Folk, Dublin, Ireland.

Karan Casey has long been one of the most innovative provocative and imitated voices in Irish traditional music. Her career has spanned 20 years from early days as a jazz performer in Georges bistro in Dublin to her days in New York with the band Solas to her now blossoming solo career she has sold over half a million albums.

■ Khac Chi, Vietnamese Bamboo Music, Hanoi, Vietnam. Khac Chi features two of Vietnam's premiere musicians, Chi Khac, Ho and Bic Ngoc Hoang performing with exquisite beauty and virtuosity.

■ Nathalie Pires, Portuguese Fado, Perth Amboy, New Jersey. Nathalie Pires' debut album was awarded with the AUA (United Artists of America), "Prémio Lusíada," for "Best Fado Album of 2007" recorded in the USA.

■ Canzonere Grecanico Salentino, Italian traditional, Puglia, Italy. Formed by Rina Durante in 1975, Canzonere Grecanico Salentino, a seven-piece band and dancers, is regarded as Italy's leading and longest-standing traditional music ensemble, hailing from the Salento, the heel of the Italian boot, in Puglia.

■ Mythili Prakash, South Indian Bharatanatyam danc, Hollywood, Calif. Mythili Prakash is a professional dancer specializing in Bharatanatyam, a classical Indian dance form originating in the South Indian state of Tamil Nadu.

■ Fendika, Ethiopian Dance, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Fendika, a troupe of the most accomplished azmari musicians and dancers from Addis Ababa, features six performers — two dancers, a singer, and instruments including kebero drums, masenko (a one-stringed bowed fiddle), and krar (a five- or six-stringed lyre).

■ Sharde Thomas and Rising Star Fife and Drum Band, Sardis, Miss., Fife and Drum Blues. The Rising Stars consists of three drummers and a fife.

■ Ballard's Branch Bogtrotters, old time music

■ Bernard Allison, blues

JOE MULLINS BAND

Things to see and do

ALIVE AFTER FIVE

This weekly summer gathering at Durston Park, Main and Park, is held from 5 to 7 p.m. Fridays and offers music, food, crafts and children's entertainment through the summer. Call 560-6109.

COPPER VILLAGE MUSEUM AND ARTS CENTER

Located in Anaconda's former city hall, the art center gallery shows a monthly exhibit. The museum contains Anaconda Co. records, community artifacts and a large photo collection. Location: 401 E. Commercial Ave. Time: 10-4 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 563-2422; Marcus Daly Historical Society of Anaconda Museum is open 1-4 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 563-2220.

VINTAGE BUS TOUR OF HISTORIC ANACONDA

Departs from Anaconda Visitor's Center, 306 E. Park Ave. Time: 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday through Saturday, through mid-September, 563-2400.

HEARST FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The library was a gift in 1898 to the people of Anaconda from Phoebe Hearst, the wife of U.S. Sen. George Hearst of California, a successful investor in Marcus Daly's mines and smelters. Her son was William Randolph Hearst of newspaper fame. The building retains its original beauty and fixtures with the second floor rooms are lit by electric chandeliers that could have been also used for gas light. Open Monday through Saturday, 563-6932.

SMELTER STACK

The largest round, brick smokestack in North America, the stack stands 585 feet tall. It is the remainder of the Anaconda Co.'s Washoe Smelter. The stack was built in 1918 and is a state historic park. Locations: you can see it from anywhere in Anaconda. A truncated mock-up of the stack is located at the east end of Fourth Street near the former smelter gate.

WALKING TOUR OF HISTORIC ANACONDA

Maps available at Anaconda Visitor's Center, 306 E. Park Ave., 563-2400.

LOST CREEK STATE PARK

Lost Creek Falls, 50 feet high, is set in a glaciated canyon of limestone and granite cliffs populated with mountain goats and big horn sheep. Location: 1.5 miles east of Anaconda on Montana 1, then 2 miles north on Secondary 273, then 6 miles west. Features: camping, fishing, hiking, picnicking, rest rooms, disabled access.

MOUNT HAGGIN WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREA

The area, located about 10 miles south of Anaconda, is reached by Route 274. It crosses the Continental Divide through Mill Creek Pass into the Big Hole River drainage with views of the Anaconda Range and opportunities to view moose, elk, deer, antelope, black bear, birds, beaver, muskrat, mink, martens and coyotes.

PINTLER SCENIC ROUTE

This loop on Montana 1 runs through Anaconda, Georgetown Lake, the Flint Creek Range and Philipsburg to Drummond. Maps are available at the Anaconda Chamber of Commerce Visitor's Center, 306 E. Park, 563-2400.

WASHOE PARK

The Anaconda Copper Mining Co. started the park in 1906 on the northern edge of Anaconda. It has a state fish hatchery, swimming pool, baseball field, new tennis courts, flower beds, playground and picnic areas, duck pond, horseshoe pits, volley ball court, with the crystal waters of Warm Springs Creek flowing through its midst. Benny Goodman Park on the east side.

COPPER CHUTE SLIDE

Anaconda's newest attraction is a super slide at Charlotte Yeoman Martin Complex on the northeast edge of town. The slide starts atop a 40-foot mound and undulates for 140 feet to the bottom. Its for children of all ages and is free.

WASHOE PARK TROUT HATCHERY

The hatchery is oldest in the state and started (1907) with help from the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. The hatchery has raised Arctic grayling, westslope cutthroat trout, rainbow trout, brook trout, golden trout, lake trout and brown trout. It now manages Montana's only westslope cutthroat broodstock, producing more than one million eggs per year. Call 563-2531 for details and tours.

St. Timothy's Summer Music Festival

St. Timothy's Summer Music Festival is held each Summer at St. Timothy's Memorial Chapel at Southern Cross above Georgetown Lake. The concerts are held on five Sundays at 4 p.m. This season's performers include:

June 30 — Bel Canto. This vocal ensemble of nine women from the Bozeman Symphonic Choir opens St. Timothy's season with a free concert, with music ranging from Baroque to ragtime.

July 14 — Muir String Quartet and Friends. The Muir Quartet continues its role as one of America's leading string quartets passing on the European tradition learned by their mentors, the Budapest and Guarneri string quartets. It is in residence at Boston University. The concert includes works by Weber, Schubert, Copland's "Appalachian Spring" and a new composition by Paul Chihara commissioned by Dianne Kimball that features bassoon and strings.

July 28 — Ringling 5. This group of from five to seven musicians got together in the early 1980s singing at local gatherings. Some of them have a connection to the small town of Ringling. Their music is mostly bluegrass-country with lots of rural humor.

Aug. 11 — Brig Urias. Urias is a classical guitarist from Washington state, who studies with Christopher Parkening at Pepperdine University. He began guitar at age 9 and graduated from an Everett, Wash., high school in 2012. He has performed numerous times in the Seattle area and continues at Pepperdine.

Aug. 25 — Morgenroth, Roberti and Rotondi. Jim Rotondi of Butte took up the trumpet at 12. He has recorded and toured with the Ray Charles Orchestra, Lionel Hampton Orchestra and many others; David Morgenroth performs regularly at the Buddy DeFranco Jazz Festival at the University of Montana, and teaches jazz piano and improvisation; Kelly Roberti is a world-acclaimed musician, composer and educator from Bozeman.

Tickets are available in Anaconda at Pad N Pencil 563-3524 and Beyond Necessity 563-3218; in Butte at Books & Books, 782-9520 and Higgins Hallmark 494-2244; and in Philipsburg at Granite Museum Gift Shop 859-3020, Grass Roots 859-5565, and Schnibbles, 859-4444. GRANT-KOHR'S RANCH NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Once the headquarters of a 10 million acre cattle empire, the site is a working cattle ranch that preserves these symbols and commemorates the role of cattlemen in American history. It is located on 1,600 acres and has more than 80 historic structures, many historic artifacts including wagons and carriages, walking trails, and tours of the main ranch house at the north end of Deer Lodge. Time: 9-5:30 p.m. daily, free admission. Phone: 846-2070

OLD MONTANA PRISON MUSEUMS

The Montana Territorial Prison was built on the site in 1871 at the south end of Main Street. The Montana State Prison developed there and was in use until 1979. Tours show visitors inside the stone walls and towers through the vacant four-tiered cell block and prison yard.

■ Montana Auto Museum: more than 150 antique cars on display, it's a must-see that will take you down memory lane. Vintage camping vehicles include a very rare motor home built by Pierce Arrow in 1928.

■ Frontier Museum: the best display of cowboy collectibles between Cody and Calgary. See the guns, spurs, chaps, reatas and all the rest. Then tour Desert John's Saloon, a unique whiskey memorabilia collection.

■ Yesterday's Playthings: a collection of dolls and toys dating back to 1835.

■ The "Little Joe": an electric engine operated by the Milwaukee Road was originally built for Joseph Stalin.

All attractions are open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily, 846-3111.

■ Powell County Museum: an extensive gun collection, antique furniture, mining display, photo collection and equipment, noon to 5 p.m. daily, 846-1694.

From Dillon, go south on Interstate 15 to Highway 278, west to National Forest Scenic Byway. Features picnicking and digging for quartz crystals and amethyst.

Time: opens in June depending on weather.

Phone: 683-3900.

BIG HOLE NATIONAL BATTLEFIELD

The battlefield is a memorial to the people who fought and died there Aug. 9-10, 1877, combatants in a five-month conflict that came to be called the Nez Perce War. Army troops under the command of Gen. Oliver Howard attacked the Nez Perce camp before dawn. Some 60 Nez Perce were killed and 29 soldiers. (406) 689-3155

CHARCOAL KILNS

The kilns are located in Canyon Creek, west of Melrose, and produced charcoal for smelting silver and other metals at Hecla Consolidated Mining Co.'s nearby Glendale smelter.

COOLIDGE, A GHOST TOWN

CLARK CANYON RESERVOIR

COOLIDGE

This (now-ghost town) was developed in the 1920s around the impressive Elkhorn Mill. A narrow gauge railway carried ore to Divide and the Oregon Shortline Railway for shipment out of state.

RED ROCK LAKES NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

The refuge is 85 miles southeast of Dillon in the stunning expanse of the Centennial Valley, a one-time main route to Yellowstone National Park from the railroad at Monida. The refuge's lakes and marshes became a haven for the trumpeter swan - once threatened with extinction. (406) 276-3536

CLARK CANYON RESERVOIR

The lake is popular for water skiing and fishing. Camp Fortunate was an important stop for the Lewis and Clark expedition. During drought years, the foundations of the drowned town of Armstead appear.

Bannack State Park

Bannack State Park holds a Saturday education and entertainment series. All programs are free; out-of-state vehicles pay $5 park admission.

JUNE

1 — 7 p.m. program will be announced

8 — 2 p.m., Historian Ellen Baumler speaks on “The Chinese in Montana” exploring Montana’s urban and remote Chinese settlements through archaeological sites, artifacts, and remaining landmarks, recalling the contributions of Montana’s Chinese residents and the cultural footprints they left behind.

15 — 7 p.m. “Classic Country” — Jerry Burts, Ross Stocker and their talented friends perform the music of yester-year — country, western and gospel tunes.

22 — 2 p.m., “Vigilantes, Freemasons, and Gold Rush Justice in Montana Territory” — Patrick Danahy brings to life poignant and entertaining stories gleaned from diaries, memoirs and newspapers of the women and men who tamed Montana — miners, Masons, politicians, dancers, wives and villains.

29 — 7 p.m., “Jawbone Railroad” — This talented trio gives a rough and rowdy ride through the early days of radio with a mix of fiddle tunes, mountain music and blues of the 1920s and 1930s.

BOULDER HOT SPRINGS

This resort hotel dating from the 1800s, just south of the town of Boulder has indoor and outdoor pools for soaking and swimming. It offers massage, hiking, and wildlife viewing. It provides a place for group retreats, meetings, family reunions, and weddings. Call 225-4339 or go to www.boulderhotsprings.com.

ELKHORN STATE PARK

The town of Elkhorn had a population of 2,500 in the 1880s until the drop in silver prices ended its boom. Left behind were two impressive structures, Fraternity Hall and Gillian Hall, which have been preserved as outstanding examples of frontier architecture. They are the only two buildings in town that are publicly owned. Respect private property while visiting this site.

It can be reached from Boulder off of I-15. Go 7 miles south on Highway 69, left over a small bridge then right onto gravel road 13 miles, bearing left at each of two forks in the road.

JEFFERSON COUNTY MUSEUM, CLANCY

The museum, located in an 1890s school, has two large galleries - one on county history with exhibits on mining, ranching and railroading and the second showing traveling exhibits. The address is 9 N. Main St., Clancy. Call 933-5528 for details.

JEFFERSON VALLEY MUSEUM, WHITEHALL

The museum is located at 303 S. Division St. in a former dairy barn. It contains photographs and artifacts depicting domestic life, the area railroads, military service, farm life and a genealogical service. Open noon to 4 p.m. daily except Monday, Memorial Day through Labor Day, 287-7813.

Brewery Follies

VIRGINIA CITY — The Brewery Follies return to Virginia City's historic H.S. Gilbert Brewery for another summer season of belly laughs, celebrity impersonations, sketch comedy and plenty of music.

The season starts Friday, May 24, and runs through Saturday, Sept. 21. Their season in late May and early June consists of show times at 8 p.m. Friday through Sunday, with matinee performances at 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Two new shows for the 2013 season are premiered at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. Friday, June 7. Thereafter the 8 p.m. show is daily with matinees at 4 p.m. Thursday through Monday through Aug. 18.

August and September is the encore season and will consist of shows Wednesdays through Sundays beginning Wednesday, Aug. 21, with the final performance on Saturday, Sept. 21. Shows times will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday with 4 p.m. matinees on Saturdays and Sundays.

The mission of the Follies is simple: to make you laugh as they make fun of just about every aspect you can think of in today's political and social landscape.

However, you might want to find a sitter for the kids, because with laughter and beer on tap some of the Follies antics can be pretty irreverent. The Brewery Follies is rated well beyond PG-13.

Call (800) 829-2969 ext. 3 to confirm performance dates and for reservations.

and Granite County

GRANITE COUNTY MUSEUM AND CULTURAL CENTER

Originally built as the Courtney Hotel on Sansome Street, by the Courtney brothers in 1918, the building now houses displays of culture, history and mining, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. daily, 859-3020.

SAPPHIRE GALLERY

One can buy a bag of dry screened gravel concentrate to “table mine” and keep any gems found; 115 E. Broadway St., Sunday through Friday, 859-3236.

GRANITE GHOST TOWN

East of Philipsburg, 4 miles by dirt road, this abandoned mining camp was known in 1890 as the “Silver Queen.” The park preserves the Granite Mine Superintendent’s House and ruins of the miners union hall.

GEORGETOWN LAKE

Approximately 18 miles west of Anaconda, Georgetown Lake is a popular recreation area for boating, fishing, camping and windsurfing.

GARNET GHOST TOWN

The town, northwest of Drummond and dating back to 1895, has a pastoral setting in the midst of the forest with cabins and buildings on a carpet of green. It is managed by the Bureau of Land Management and Garnet Preservation Association. Its 30 buildings and visitors center are 11 miles up a gravel road, north of I-90. Call 329-3914 for details.

SKALKAHO PASS

The Skalkaho Road, one of Montana’s scenic gems, opens in May or June depending on snow conditions and extends about 60 miles from its junction with Montana 1, 6 miles south of Philipsburg, to its junction with U.S. 93, just south of Hamilton. About 20 miles is gravel. It passes through the green meadows of the Flint Creek Valley and crosses a pass into the Rock Creek drainage. Along the way are postcard views of the snowcapped Anaconda Range in the Anaconda-Pintler Wilderness. The route proceeds up the West Fork of Rock Creek with scenery that reminds one of Yellowstone’s rocky, lodgepole streams.

Philipsburg Opera House

Philipsburg's Opera House Theatre Company presents three shows in repertory Thursday through Sunday, June 27, through Sept. 1. Curtain times are 7 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with matinees at 2 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 4 p.m. Sunday.

"The Star Spangled Girl"

This fast moving, hilarious comedy, deals with two earnest young men struggling to put out a "protest" magazine, and the all-American girl who moves in next door and manages to send both of them into a romantic tail spin. Love and politics blend in a bubbling series of funny happenings, set forth with the masterly skill and inventiveness that are the hallmarks of Neil Simon. This comedy, under the direction of David Simmons, will charm you.

"How the Other Half Loves"

Three men work for the same firm. The younger man is having an affair with the wife of the oldest. After returning home suspiciously late one night, each invents a domestic "problem" story about the third couple. This farce, written by Alan Ayckbourn and directed by David Mills-Low, takes on a character of its own as it serves two dinners simultaneously on two different nights!

"Vaudeville Variety Show"

An attic is not only a treasure trove of family heirlooms, stuff and memories, it is also the setting for Act One of the company's ever popular vaudeville show. Act Two ensures the return of the Maxville Chickens, wit, hijinks, skits, and music that is vaudeville at its best — a summer highlight for the whole family.

Tickets are $20 adult and $10 for children 15 and under. For details call 859-0013 or email ohtc@blackfoot.net.
