

REPORT POINTS TO CORPORATE JETS: The strategic business plan released Thursday suggests the Gary airport focus on corporate and charter flights as a core business. This data, from the Federal Aviation Administration, shows the decline and stabilization of this air traffic in Gary. The report describes this level of traffic as “respectable” and proposes growing this business as one of the best ways to develop into an economic force.

SOURCE: FAA

BY TIMES STAFF