The Clarke House

Now the home of the Florence REMINDER AND BLADE-TRIBUNE

190 N. Main St.

The Clarke House was built in 1884 by Silver King mining engineer William Clarke. In 1995, Don Kramer Sr., president of Casa Grande Valley Newspapers Inc., was approached and agreed to take over the Clarke House from the Town of Florence. Kramer provided the matching funds for an Arizona Heritage Grant of $105,000 (an amount that would eventually grow to many times the original grant).

In 1999, the Florence Preservation Foundation sponsored another Heritage Grant application to complete the rehabilitation and was awarded $52,000. Kramer worked closely with officials of the state's Historic Preservation Office, Jim Garrison and Bob Frankenberg, without whose help the project would never have been completed.

On Feb. 8, 2003, the newly restored Clarke House was opened to the public for the first time. The Wm. Clarke House won Arizona Main Street's "Best Historic Rehabilitation" award. Don Kramer Sr. received a Preservation Week award from Florence organizations for his dedication to the project.
