ACHIEVEMENTS

MICHELLE COHAN

Sigma Alpha Lambda is proud to announce that Michelle Cohan of Linwood, New Jersey (Mainland Class of 2007) has recently become recognized as a member of Sigma Alpha Lambda, a national leadership and honors organization at George Washington University. Sigma Alpha Lambda is a national leadership and honors organization dedicated to promoting and rewarding academic achievement and providing members with opportunities for community service, personal development, and lifelong professional fulfillment.

Among Michelle's other achievements is her recent acceptance to attend the International Scholar Laureate Program Delegation on Diplomacy and International Relations in South Africa from May 23, 2009 to June 1, 2009.

Michelle was an international student volunteer serving in Thailand in July and August of 2008, teaching English to Thai children and adults, impacted by the tsunami. In May and June of 2008 she served as an intern for Congressman Steven R. Rothman (New Jersey, District 9) during which time she guided tours of the US Capitol to visiting constituents and worked on other legislative matters. Michelle is currently a sophomore at George Washington University and enrolled into the prestigious Elliot School of International Affairs.

Congratulations!
