SCHAFFER

MARGARET AND JAMES SCHAFFER

In 1962, at a Christmas Dance at Glassboro College, Jim Schaffer met Peg McCollum and started a romance that celebrated its 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 16th, 2012. After meeting at the dance, Jim asked Peg on their first date, ice skating on Bargaintown Lake. Jim was a freshman after serving two years in Germany in the army and Peg was a junior at Glassboro College. They have been in love ever since. Peg graduated in 1960 and began her 39 year career as an elementary teacher in the Linwood School system. Jim graduated in 1962 and joined Peg in Linwood to begin a 33 year career as a guidance counselor and coach at Mainland Regional High School and Atlantic Community College. The two married on June 16th, 1962 and moved into the house in which they still live in Linwood where they raised their three kids. Their eldest, Jim (wife Debby), is a retired math teacher and coach and presently Head Golf Professional at Mays Landing Golf and Country Club, Brad is a Hotel Manager of Knights Inn in Atlantic City, and Janel is the Technology Integration Coach for Hamilton Township School District. Jim and Peg's greatest joy is their grandchildren, Justin, Connor, Amanda, and Brad. These proud grandparents have spent their retirement vacationing and working part time together, travelling the country organizing college fairs. The happy couple still celebrates every birthday, holiday, and special occasion with the entire family, their greatest success and delight. Jim and Peg celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their family and friends at an evening reception in their honor at the Mays Landing Golf and Country Club on June 15th. Congratulations Jim and Peg for 50 years of love and romance and still going strong.
