

This chart shows the distribution of college costs for public four-year colleges in New Jersey in 2010-11. The aid per student is calculated by dividing th

School	State aid	Undergrad enrollment	Aid per student	Tuition/fees	Cost per student
N.J. Institute of Tech.	$37,700,000	5,537	$6,809	$13,370	$20,179
Rutgers	$262,800,000	41,478	$6,336	$12,582	$18,918
The College of N.J.	$29,300,000	6,263	$4,678	$13,293	$17,971
Kean University	$32,800,000	10,809	$3,035	$9,815	$12,850
Montclair State U.	$38,600,000	13,456	$2,869	$10,016	$12,885
New Jersey City U.	$26,100,000	5,274	$4,949	$9,348	$14,297
Richard Stockton Coll.	$19,800,000	7,054	$2,807	$11,533	$14,340
Ramapo College	$16,100,000	5,932	$2,714	$11,874	$14,588
Rowan Univ.*	$27,800,000	8,808	$3,156	$11,676	$16,944
William Paterson U.	$32,700,000	9,333	$3,504	$11,238	$14,742
Total	$523,700,000	113,944	$4,596 (avg.)

*Rowan aid does not include almost $18 million allocated to a new medical school

Sources: New Jersey Commission on Higher Education, Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System, state budget data, Press analysis

re direct state operating aid by the full-time equivalent undergraduate enrollment. The actual cost per student at each college may be higher due to i federal or other grant funds.