ACHIEVEMENTS

AMANDA HILLARY MAZZONI

PITTSBORO, NJ --- Amanda Hillary Mazzoni received her Juris Doctorate degree from Southwestern School of Law in Los Angeles, California. She was one of the youngest students ever to be admitted to the school's two-year accelerated SCALE program after receiving Honors from American University. She was the youngest member of the graduating class of 2010 to receive a Juris Doctorate. Instead of the traditional thirty-six months, she completed the degree in twenty-two months.

While attending Southwestern, Amanda was the President of the SCALE class and held executive positions on the Student Bar Association and the Mediation Association. She was the President of The Federalist Society, the Christian Law Association and the National Native American Student Bar Association. Amanda began her legal work in the Homicide Division of the Los Angeles County Public Defenders Office. She plans to pursue a career focusing on Elder Abuse Litigation.

Amanda passed the California Bar Exam in 2012.

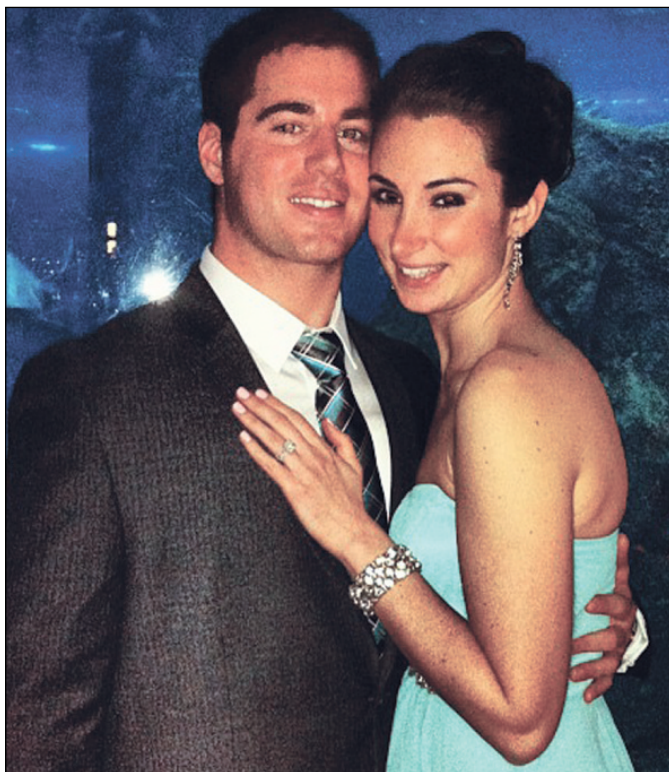

Amanda is a 2006 graduate of Arthur P. Schalick High School and a 2010 graduate of The American University in Washington D.C., where she received a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations with a focus on International Business in Asia and a second degree in Justice and Public Policy.

She is the daughter of Michael R. Mazzoni, Esquire and Alyce Parker Mazzoni of Pittsboro, NJ.

By special request on Good Friday Amanda Mazzoni was sworn into the California Bar by NJ Congressman Frank LoBiondo at his Mays Landing district office.
