About the 2014 Book of Lists

The 2014 Quad-City Business Journal Book of Lists is compiled by Business Journal staff to provide consumers and businesses with helpful, detailed information in one publication.

Information was collected through telephone and email interviews sent to company representatives as well as from company websites. Criteria is noted in each category header. We contacted businesses or service providers in each category; however, not all responded. An asterisk denotes a listing that contains information from the 2013 Book of Lists.

The 2014 Book of Lists is being distributed to 10,000 community and business leaders.

Book of Lists information will be available online at qctimes.com/business.

WHO TO CONTACT: If you have questions, comments or ideas for future Book of Lists editions, please contact Quad-City Business Journal editor Deborah Brasier at 563-383-2452 or dbrasier@qctimes.com.

A lawyer CANNOT buy the distinction of being a Leading Lawyer. This distinction was earned by being among those lawyers who were most often recommended by their peers in statewide surveys. Respondents COULD NOT recommend themselves or lawyers at their law firm. For a complete list of all Leading Lawyers and to view profiles of the lawyers listed on this page, go to www.LeadingLawyers.com.

The Coolest Way To Search.

Mel Foster's new app for smartphones and tablets puts the power of a compass, camera and GPS to work for you.

The app's HomeSpotter function, called "Foster Finder," lets you find all homes for sale from any location where you are standing. With a quick tap, a view of the entire street and all homes for sale pop up.

There is also a radar display that shows the direction and proximity of nearby properties for sale.

THE NEW APP IS SYNCED WITH THE MEL FOSTER WEBSITE.
Your property watch preferences are available online and with the app. Access your saved properties from any device and do a side-by-side photo comparison with the app.
