Questions about Scott and Rock Island counties? Here are answers

On any given day in the Quad-Cities, there are a seemingly endless number of things to do and places to go. Visit a museum. Bike along the Mississippi River. Attend a concert. Take in a program at a library.

The problem, for lifelong residents and newcomers alike, may be tracking down information about everything this area has to offer.

But no worries. The 2015-16 Answer Book provides the information you need in one place. Listings are included for getting in touch with your alderman or school superintendent, and where to find options for family fun, health care and outdoor recreation.

Keep it handy, and it will make exploring the area a little easier.

Included in this year's publication are winners of the Readers' Choice awards — those restaurants, shops, businesses and service providers selected by readers of the Quad-City Times website, qctimes.com, as their favorites.

A lawyer CANNOT buy the distinction of being a Leading Lawyer. This distinction was earned by being among those lawyers who were most often recommended by their peers in statewide surveys. Respondents COULD NOT recommend themselves or lawyers at their law firm. For a complete list of all Leading Lawyers and to view profiles of the lawyers listed on this page, go to www.LeadingLawyers.com
