art

Gallery features rodeo photographs

The Smoky Hill Theatre for the Performing Arts is an outback of rodeo photographs in Smoky Hill History Museum. Of these photos, photographs with black and white, and a good variety of styles are focusing on the life of cowboy. The gallery features both photographs and videos that include covers of the show, and they will be performed at the Eskridge Labor Day rodeo and the Russell Regional Rodeo.

Signature auction coming to Deines Cultural Center

The Smoky Hill History Museum is hosting the coming to Deines Cultural Center. The exhibit features work donated by more than 200 eager artists. The opening reception will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. on Oct. 10 and the gallery is open from noon to 5 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays through Oct. 27. The Deines is located at 820 N. Main St. in Russell, Kansas.

Sunday, March 23, 2015

Metta Quinet

Established in 1948, JazzReach is nationally recognized, New York City-based, not-for-profit organization dedicated to making jazz and music education available to students of all ages. The organization’s mission is to highlight the legends and music of some of the art’s central contributors. Staged as a late night series at a special location in the city, these concerts feature top jazz artists in intimate settings.

- Miles Davis - for his fearsome tenor through the years.

- Billie Holiday - for her incomparable style at its peak.

- Charlie Parker - for his virtuoso playing and his impact on the modern jazz movement.

- Sly Jones - for his musical and lyrical abilities.

- Blue Angel, Put Your Little Feet on the Ground, If I Were a Blackbird, and That Was Rhythm and Blues.

Palm Sunday music event set March 29

LIXUS – A concept of dance and music to celebrate the beginning of Holy Week. Will be presented by the Central Baptist Church, Fifth Street and Second Avenue. Saturday, March 28 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, March 29 at 5 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church. Admission is $10 for adults, $5 for seniors, and $10 for students.

Vocal choir to perform in Salina community

The Vocal Choir will present its annual program March 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church. Admission is free. Donations are welcome to help pay for expenses. For more information, call 620-786-4222.

Film

Film talk to focus on Alzheimer’s disease

Alzheimer’s Disease Center and Research is having a film discussion on the topic of Alzheimer’s disease. The discussion will be held at the Art Center Cinema’s movie theater. The film screening will be held on Thursday, March 26th. The screening will feature the film “Still Alice.” The film is a powerful story of one family’s struggle as they face the devastation of Alzheimer’s disease. The film screening will also include a Q&A session with the film’s director, Richard Glatzer. Additional panels of experts will speak on the topic of Alzheimer’s disease. The film screening is open to the public. For more information, please visit www.prairiemuseum.org.

Kansas Wesleyan University Choir Tour 2015 Home Concert

“American Voices”

Featuring the KWU Philarmonic Choir and Wesleyan Chorale, performing pieces by Bernstein, Copland, Gershwin, and more!

Tuesday, March 24 @ 7:30 p.m.

University United Methodist Church

Free Admission

For more information about the concert, contact the church office at 785-267-0630 or visit www.kwu.edu/music.