

Patricia Jane Kittell (Kujava) Berge

After a long life that included 50-plus years as a Clark County resident, Patricia Jane Kittell (Kujava) Berge passed away Aug. 25, 2011 in Vancouver at the age of 78.

Berge was born March 17, 1933 in Battle Ground. After living the majority of her life in the Clark County area, she lived in Oregon, California and Nevada between the years of 1980 and 2007.

Berge was very active in the community.

She enjoyed bowling, cake decorating, camping, traveling, gardening, bird watching, senior lunches, word searches and crossword puzzles, and she was also a 4-H leader.

In addition to being a housewife and mother, Berge worked professionally in hotel management and public storage management.

Berge was preceded in death by her father Charles Kittell in 1945, mother May Kittell in 1979, brother Robert Kittell, sister Ida May Bump and husband Leo Berge in 2007.

Berge is survived by daughters Cindy (Cory) Wyatt, of Beaverton, and Sandy (Jim) Taylor, of Edmonds; sons Bill (Pam) Kujava, of Yacolt, Jeff Kujava, of Amboy, and Rodger (Barb) Kujava, of Battle Ground; stepson Tony Berge of Myrtle Creek, OR.; brother Pete Kittell, of Vancouver; as well as 11 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Layne's Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Funeral services will be held Sat., Sept. 10, 11 a.m. at Layne's Funeral Home, NE 1st St. and NE Clark, Battle Ground.

There will be a Celebration of Life following the service at the home of Rodger Kujava, 29404 NE 132nd Ave., Battle Ground.
