Faye Irene Stogesdill lost her battle with cancer and passed peacefully in her home of 50-plus years surrounded by family who loved her dearly. Faye was 80 years old. Faye married her husband, Beacher Stogesdill in March of 1952. They eventually settled into the beautiful Clark County area in Washington State, and purchased 20 acres La Center. Faye and Beacher raised three children; the eldest Donald Stogesdill, Debbie Stogesdill- Fawcett & Kelly Stogesdill-Robeck.

Faye is survived by her husband Beacher Stogesdill and children Don, Debbie and Kelly, grandchildren Desire Stogesdil, Cherie Brodahl, Ashlie Robeck, Greg Robeck and Josh Fawcett, great-grandchildren including Noah Deoneseus, son of Desire Stogesdill, and Ausbjorn Rinden, son of Cherie Brodahl. Sabrina, Jordan Nate and Lexi Fawcett, children of Josh Fawcett. Faye had three siblings, brother Bob McMillan, deceased, sister Virginia Mennotii, deceased, and her youngest brother Joe McMillan currently resides in Vancouver, WA. Her aunt, Ginger and many loved nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family survive.

Faye enjoyed many activities. One of her favorite was RV'ing and cat fishing with her husband on the Snake River in eastern Oregon. Faye enjoyed gambling casinos occasionally with family, gardening, and did various crafts over the years. One of Faye's talents included cake decorating. She was self taught and made and decorated many birthday, baby shower, graduation, wedding and many special occasional cakes over the years for family and friends--her last being her own 50th wedding anniversary cake. They were as delicious as they were beautiful.

We would like to thank and appreciate all the wonderful doctors, nurses and staff from Kaiser and Kaiser Hospice who so helped contribute to her care and her needs in her final days.

Donations can be contributed in her name to the Kaiser Hospice Program at 2701 NW Vaughn, #140, Portland, OR, 97210-9912.
