

Lynette Madonna (Lesberg) Mackley

65, of Woodland, WA, entered into rest on September 21, 1945 at Legacy Emanuel Hospital in Vancouver, WA, with her family by her side. She was born November 21, 1945 in Longview, WA.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Noela Irene Lesberg and her first child Craig who passed away shortly after childbirth. She is survived by her son Cecil T. Mackley, better known as Mickey or Mick, and his wife Jodi of Longview, WA; her two grandsons Bryce and

Devon Mackley of Longview, WA; three step grandchildren, Danielle Hutton, Derek and Jenna Crookshanks of Longview, WA, one sister, Arlotte Noble and husband Ron; one brother, Danny Pietila and wife Madlyn; five nieces, Ronda, Calleja, Deanna Sokol, Theresa Conn, all of Vancouver, WA, Tanya Pittsley of Longview, WA, and Mary Ann Hawkins of Minnesota; one nephew, Jack Pietila of Vancouver, WA. She also had fourteen great-nephews and nieces, two aunts, Doraine Bertrand of Vancouver BC, Canada, and Marlene Beniusis of Burnaby, Canada. She has many cousins throughout Washington and Canada.

Lynette was living at the Woodland Convalescent until her death. She grew up in Kelso and Woodland, WA. She married Jim Mackley of Vancouver, WA in December of 1970 and later divorced him in 1977. She never remarried. She was a member of the Latter Day Saints Church. She was an avid reader, enjoyed working on genealogy and crafts. Her greatest passion was crocheting. She made many beautiful afghans and potholders for family and friends. She loved camping and traveling, especially to the beach. Her pride and joy was her son, Mickey and her two grandsons.

A memorial celebration will be held at the Woodland Latter Day Saints Church at 11 a.m. on Sat., Oct. 8, 2011. Woodland Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

