

Sharon (Waymire) Johnson

Sharon Johnson, age 68, of Tumwater, WA passed away on Monday, February 24, 2014, from complications related to breast cancer. Born in Tillamook, OR, her family moved when she was a small child, to Amboy, WA. She graduated from Battle Ground High School in 1964.

Sharon worked for several years at the Pentagon in the Center for Naval Intelligence in Washington D.C. She was a graduate of Central Washington University with a degree in Communications. The Levenworth Echo in Levenworth, WA, hired Sharon, where she received critical acclaim for her journalistic writing and photography skills. She was employed at Legacy Hospital in the Communications department until she retired in 2001.

Sharon met her husband, Myron Johnson in 1992, and married in May, 1997 on the island of Kauai, HI. They moved to Boise, ID, where she wrote articles for the Idaho Magazine about special events, and took photographs for her articles. In 2005, they moved to Tumwater, WA. Sharon enjoyed landscaping with trees and flowers, and loved photography.

Sharon is survived by husband, Myron; three sons, Kevin (Michelle) Chase, Seaquim, WA, Christopher (Laura Blazyk) Chase, Seattle, WA, & Gregory (Mandy) Chase, Portland, OR; sisters, Sandra (Waymire) (Jim) Carterby, Battle Ground, WA, Arlene (Waymire) (Bill) Redifer, Orofino, ID; and brother, Raymond Waymire, Vale, OR; three grandsons, Cameron, Riley and Crispin. Sharon was the daughter of Leona (Tohl) Waymire and Henry Herman Waymire, both deceased.

A private family service will be held in the future. In lieu of flowers, please donate to a charity of your choice.
