

Robert Glenn Davidson

Robert "Bob" Glenn Davidson, husband, father, grandfather, brother, friend, and epic fisherman, passed away suddenly on August 1, 2013, in his home. The son of Raymond H. Davidson and Marie Virginia Hayton was born on Feb. 14, 1937, and grew up in Centralia, WA, where his love of fishing, hunting, the outdoors and music began. He was a caddy at Seminary Hill Golf Course. Bob was a Boy Scout and later served in the US Marine Reserves.

Bob received his BS in 1962 at UCLA. He met his wife Jan Murray in Illinois and they had two children, Stacy and Randall, and lived in Fresno and then later in Beaverton, OR.

After his divorce, he met and later married Evelyn Ehlbeck. Together they built a successful business farming Christmas trees, which he continued until his death.

Bob spent his leisure time traveling, fishing, hunting and riding his Harley. He met Phensri in Hong Kong in 1998 and they later married and lived in La Center.

Bob is survived by his wife Phensri, daughter Stacy (husband Sage), son Randall (wife Lisa); grandchildren, Tyler, Noelle, Zachary and Sophie; sister Sherri Adams (husband Bill), step-daughter Om, numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. He was a free spirit enjoying all life had to offer.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 6, 2013. A reception follows. The family requests instead of flowers donations be made to Wounded Warriors. Please sign the online guest book at www.evergreenmemorialgardens.com

