Sean Garrity/King Philip

After a successful season for the Warrior football team, Garrity earned his first Sun Chronicle All-Star selection in the winter. Garrity put his speed to use in the 55 dash, logging a personal-best 6.65 time in taking first place at the MSTCA Coaches Invitational.

The junior later claimed the top spot at the Hockomock League Championship (6.66) in addition to finishing seventh at the MIAA Division 2 Championship (6.80) and 15th at the MIAA All-State Championship (6.72). ## Jacob Hardy/Attleboro

The Bombardier senior set the local — and national — standard in the shot put. At the New Balance Indoor Nationals, Hardy tossed a personal-best 57-foot, 1<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>-inch to finish first in the Emerging Elite class. It was hardly Hardy's first 50-foot throw, as he bettered that distance in winning the Hockomock League Championship (55-3<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>) and MIAA Division 1 Championship (55-2<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>). He finished third at both the MIAA All-State Championship (52-1<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>) and New England Indoor Championship (54-4). Hardy will suit up for the Blue Bombardiers' spring track and field team. He also earned Sun Chronicle All-Star honors as a standout two-way lineman on the Attleboro football team.

Isaiah Rodriguez/Attleboro

Rodriguez earned his first Sun Chronicle All-Star selection by excelling in two events. At the Hockomock League Championship, he earned top-10 finishes in the long jump (19-2) and 55 dash (6.87). In the latter event, Rodriguez set a personal-best 6.82 mark during the season and later finished 14th (6.87) at the division championship. Rodriguez is also a member of the Attleboro High spring track and field team, where he adds the triple jump to his repertoire.

Norton's team MVP also logged 6-2 jumps at the MIAA Division 4 Championship (second place) and MIAA All-State Championship (fifth). Cleathero was a division and TVL champion in the 55 hurdles and a member of the division-best 4x200 relay squad.
