Fire destroys home

By Amy Moss Strong
Bandon Western World

BANDON — A man was released from the Coos County Jail after initially being charged with arson for a house fire Monday.

Officials at the jail said John Hoffmann, 55, of Bandon, was released Tuesday and the District Attorney's Office will not be pursuing charges against him in connection with a Bandon fire at a house Hoffman was renting.

No one was injured in the blaze but a cat was taken to a Myrtle Point veterinarian for treatment, according to family friends. The family dog escaped unharmed.

According to Fire Chief Lanny Boston, the call came in about 6 p.m. and several trucks were dispatched to the 700 block of 11th St. S.W. A front bedroom of the single-story home, where the fire likely started, was fully engulfed, and the fire extended to the hallway and a bathroom. Boston said the smoke damage was extensive.

A crowd quickly gathered on the main residential street as people came out of their homes and from a nearby softball game to watch. Shortly after the fire started, Susan Hohlweg arrived with her twin daughters, Alexis and Mackenzie Sigmund, sophomores at Bandon High School, who all live at the residence. They watched tearfully and were comforted by family and friends at the scene as firefighters doused the flames.

A man seen sitting on the ground in front of the house next door was identified as Hoffmann, the mother's roommate.

"The bedroom is a total loss and everything else in the home is heavily smoke-damaged," Boston said. "I

Local man survives 40-foot fall

Rescuers: Curry County Sheriff's Office finds Bandon man just in time

By George Artsitas
Bandon Western World

PORT ORFORD — A Bandon man narrowly survived a 40-foot fall while he was camping along the Elk River over the weekend.

Wayne Komiak, 57, was camping with a couple of friends when he stepped on an eroded patch of trail and fell off a rock embankment.

The fall left Komiak with a broken ankle, unable to climb back to his campsite. The Curry County Sheriff's Office received a call from Komiak's fellow camper Amanda Hurley around 10:47 p.m., Saturday to report the accident.

Hurley said she couldn't be sure of their exact location. She told police she had driven about 15 miles west toward U.S. Highway 101 to get cellphone service.

Lt. John Ward and five members of Curry County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue rope team found Komiak about 12 miles east of U.S. Highway 101, just northeast of Port Orford on Elk River Road.

Most of Komiak's lower body had been submerged in water for four hours before help arrived. His body temperature was 95 degrees when he was found.

"I was surprised he wasn't dead to begin with," Ward said.

Ryan McGinnis, a member of the rescue team, rappelled down from the original campsite to find Komiak hypothermic with broken bones and a head injury.

Komiak said he was was drifting in and

Academic ace attains full scholarship to Vassar College

Bandon Western World

One of the outstanding seniors graduating from Oregon Connections Academy this year is a 17-year old Bandon student who received a full ride to Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, New York.

Strider Kachelein, son of Mark and Sabra Kachelein, is valedictorian of his graduating class at Oregon Connections Academy, the state's leading tuition-free online public charter school.

Strider is part of a special group of students awarded through the prestigious Questbridge National College Match Scholarship Program, according to a press release. Questbridge is a bridge organization that matches high-achieving, low-income high school seniors with 35 elite colleges across the country, including Vassar.

Oregon Connections Academy is expected to have around 235 seniors in the 2013 graduating class. Commencement ceremonies are scheduled for Saturday, June 15, at the Oregon Convention Center in Portland.

"Attending Oregon Connections Academy has provided Strider the independence to work on his own, set his goals, and accomplish them within scheduled time frames," said his mother and learning coach Sabra Kachelein. "The quality of the teaching staff, the interaction during live lessons and the rigorous writing assignments have all contributed to his learning style."

"I have had many great teachers that take the time to converse about the courses, the future and other things," said

Strider. "And the independence to work at home has provided me with the flexibility I need to pursue other interests such as music and dance."

At Vassar, Strider plans to study languages and anthropology. His main extracurricular activity in high school has been ballet, which he's been studying for several years. He danced in a series of performances this spring with MarLo Dance Studio.

Strider has already met with the head of the dance program at Vassar and plans

BPCS holds commencement for three graduates

Bandon Pacific Christian School held commencement exercises at Pacific Community Church on Friday, June 7, to recognize and honor senior Daniel Undell as well as two eighth grade graduates, MacKenzie Handsaker and Dani Cox.

Daniel is the son of Kerry and Keri Undell and has attended BPCS his entire school career. He plans to attend Southwestern Oregon Community College in the fall to consider teaching or engineering as a career. His academic record is strong and he is being considered for scholarships from Bandon's Veterans of Foreign Wars, the VFW Women's Auxiliary and the American Legion. Daniel is active in sports, including cross country and baseball, and was named as Second Team All-League utility player. He also loves music and is accomplished in guitar and piano and writes worship songs for church. He collaborated with classmate Mack Handsaker on a song they wrote for the recent graduation ceremony. Daniel helps with Vacation Bible School and with Bandon High School Community Service Days, as well as assisting family with chores and care giving.

Mack is the son of Mark and Naomi Handsaker and has attended BPCS for most of his school career, with the exception of two years at other schools. Mack is looking toward a law degree and, eventually, a seat in Congress and maybe even the presidency. Mack is active in track and field and football and enjoys hunting, fishing and music. Mack maintains a solid academic standing.

Dani is the daughter of Larry and Renee Cox, and has attended BPCS for her entire school career. She would like to be a horse trainer or maybe a veterinarian. Dani is active in 4-H, showing a pig at the fair for the past several years. She also is training her new foal and continues with her passion for barrel racing. Dani also helps with stable work for friends and neighbors, and assists her family when chores need to be done. Her academic achievements are significant.

"The teachers, staff, parents, and school board members, as well as the Pacific Community Church congregation, want to extend our congratulations to these successful graduates," said Janice Fox, BPCS school board chairman. "The School Board also thanks the teachers and parents for all of their efforts over the years to assure the success of our students as they participate in the college preparation-level A Beka Academy program at Bandon Pacific Christian School."

Those interested in the A Beka Academy Christian-based academic program can call Janice Fox at 541-347-2764 or Verna Lopez at 541-290-7322.

Don't change VRD rules

I wish to state my objection to changes in the ordinance which will allow an unlimited number of Vacation Rental Dwellings in any given zone. I feel that additional VRDs will degrade the property value of family homes in areas where the concentration of these dwellings exceed 30 percent. It will change the family-oriented aspect of the neighborhood, as we will no longer know our neighbors and watch out for each other, becoming just a collection of strangers. In addition, year-round residents tend to be courteous to their neighbors by curbing noise and keeping their places reasonably clean; vacationers have no such boundaries, knowing they will soon be gone.

We have a summer home directly to the north of us at this time. The owners come a few times a year and it is often bothersome with noise and smoke from the outdoor fire ring. Multiply that by several homes in a neighborhood and the variety of annoying issues can become unsustainable. While owners of VRDs try to maintain the physical appearance of the houses, empty houses are often the victims of break-ins and theft, which doesn't make year-round residents feel safe. Imagine if you lived on a street with 50-60 percent VRDs. I'm sure you would not enjoy it.

While vacation rentals do bring money into town, the residents who live here year round must also count. I believe this is a poorly-considered proposal, and should be denied by the Planning Commission and the City Council. The concentration of VRDs as currently allowed is quite enough.

Speech builds character

Goals are set. Fears are faced. Lives are changed. It has been a joy to watch this process unfold in the lives of Bandon High School teens for the past fourteen years. There have been the talented ones who surprised no one with their successes, and there were the shy, fearful ones who no one would suspect of speech awards.

No matter how they started, they ended up with speaking excellence, confidence, life-long friendships. Students from every high school niche grew together into a unique, multifaceted family. They have become teachers, actors, engineers; the creative ones who know no limits.

Last year my goal of preparing college speakers motivated me to require debate for the first time.

Chelsea Hill, a freshman at Pacific University recently competed at the college National Forensic Association tournament in Huntington, West Virginia.

Wlmsvey Campos and Tyler Wiprud have been recruited by Pacific University and have been granted scholarships and places on the Pacific University speech team, joining Chelsea Hill. In addition, Alexis Busso has received a scholarship and a place on the University of Oregon speech team.

As we set new goals as a team, we broaden our horizons and increase our potential. It's all about potential. No fear. No limits.

The Speech and Debate coach from Lewis and Clark College has just sent a recruitment letter to Stephanie Gordon and Jeneveve Winchell, next year's co-captains.

The Bandon High School speech team would like to thank this year's Forensic Family. You truly make a tremendous difference! Thank you Michael Keiser Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation; Bandon Inn; Joseph of Bain Insurance; Bandon Lions Charitable Foundation; Bandon-By-The-Sea Rotary; Karl Berry and Mare Smith; Barbara Dorrill; Gary Baty and Megan Maloney; Keeli Germandt; Robin and Takashi Haruna; Rick Howard Guide Service; Marty and Lisa Harrison; John and Kathy Hubbard; Bandon Kiwanis; June Korenko; Mike and Martha Lane; Gail McClave; James and Donna Reilly; Don and Linda Rubin; Chuck and Lorna Salt; William Sherman; Roger and Anita Straus; Tiffany's; Shawn and Michele Winchell; Barry Winters; and Ted and Louise Wiprud.

Thank you for your generous donations that allow us motels and meals as we represent each of you, the community, and Bandon High School at speech tournaments. Thank you also to Sharon Haga, who kept us fed and happy.

Good turnout at Memorial run

Saturday, May 25, marked the seventh annual Boardwalk to Beach Run in downtown Bandon with a record turnout. Some 91 runners and walkers came out and enjoyed a beautiful Saturday morning race, which benefited the Bandon Pacific Christian School.

Overall winners of the three race events included Ashley Strain of Bandon and Dillian King of Lakeside for the 1-mile race. Abby Borg of Tualatin, and Brent Hutton of Bandon took first overall in the 5K and Sailor Hutton from Bandon and Russell Chase of Reno, Nevada took top female and male spots in the 10K.

Langlois plant sale a success

The Langlois Lions Club would like to thank the following for the wonderful support with donations of time and plants for our Mary Hildebrand Memorial Plant Sale: Bev Walters; Margaret Rose; Norma Eikamp; Loretta Hillman; Mary Hedges; Jim Donaldson; Helen Stewart; Bev Tresidder; Lori Kent; Polly Van Blaricom; Sue Schmedse; Betsy Beinlich; Diane Jordan; and Donna Zitzelberger.

Our gratitude also goes to the following businesses for their support of this charitable funding project: Valley Flora; Rural Goods; Plants 101 Garden Center; Carter's Nursery; and Good Earth Bandon Community Garden. May all your thumbs stay green forever.

In addition, the Pacific High School Horticultural Club joined with us and vastly improved the selection and varieties of plants offered that was very much appreciated by the community participants. The response to our sale was overwhelming and so we thank all.

A little story exemplifies the spirit of the event so well. Six-year-old Jack Sorensen found his own very special bonzai plant, adopting it because it "looked lonely" and so both the Langlois boy and plant went home very happy as well as did everyone else.

Of note, the leftovers were donated to the Langlois Library Community Garden, which brings up a timeless closing quotation from Cicero (B 106 BC; D 43 BC): "If you have a garden and library, you have everything you need."

Recommends local key works

It seems that it is human nature to rant more often than we rave. On behalf of our whole congregation, I would like to submit an emphatic rave commending one of our great local businessmen.

As reported in the Bandon Western World, we have unfortunately had three break-ins and thefts in as many months this spring. Chuck Knox of Bandon Key Works has been absolutely terrific in attending quickly, skillfully and thoroughly to our security needs, and doing so at very reasonable rates with a pleasant manner and great patience. (I have used his service for personal work and found him to be equally accommodating in that venue.) Bandon is very fortunate to have such an outstanding locksmith and we are pleased to highly recommend his service to the community at large.

Amateur radio a helpful skill

A few weeks back I wrote a column on the relevance of amateur radio as it relates to disaster preparedness. Researching for the column sparked an interest in the topic and since then I have taken the training, studied, tested and earned my technician level ham radio license. Call sign: KG7CZK. I haven't sprung for any gear just yet, so it would be fruitless to try to contact me on the airwaves. But keep your fingers crossed.

Following is an email sent by a reader, Bob Weed, regarding an incident some years back in which amateur radio played an active role in a disaster right here in Coos County: "My Dad, Chet Weed, W7TLQ and I, W7SCY were the only communications between Myrtle Point and the outside world in December 1955 during the West Coast floods. Myrtle Point was isolated by floods toward Coquille and slides between the Powers Junction and Roseburg and the phone lines were out too. During that time, John Cawse in Remote managed to get a short phone call through to tell me that a slide had covered a home just east of Remote. Since the Oregon Emergency Net (an Oregon network of Ham Radio operators) was mobilized during the emergency, I was able to contact a fellow ham in Roseburg and he put together a caravan of an ambulance and a bulldozer on a truck, as well as the ham (Don, W7SHA), to try to get to Remote for a rescue. Don had a 'mobile rig' in his car and he accompanied them and kept in touch with us to report their progress. As I recall, it took them most of the night to get there, unloading the bulldozer at several slides and clearing the road to get to the scene of the accident. Sadly, all the residents of the home were deceased.

"Dad and I both received a 'Public Service' award from the American Radio Relay League for our communications during that time and I still have mine in my records. I am still a licensed ham and still active on the Oregon Emergency Net when we are in the Oregon area, to maintain that emergency preparedness.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS FOR THE REST OF US

"Again, thanks for the memories!"

Thanks for the story, Bob.

Even in this day of Internet and cell phone high tech communications, ham radio is every bit as relevant as it was in 1955. If the power grid were to collapse in time of earthquake, it is likely the cell phone system would be rendered inoperable as well. Ham radio does require electricity, but many hams are set up to run off alternate power sources such as solar, generators and vehicle electrical systems. For this reason many first responder agencies have forged partnerships with the amateur radio community. Hams will be pressed into service to provide communications with other agencies and with the outside world. A well-equipped amateur radio operator can bounce signals off the moon and communicate with hams on the other side of the planet. To combine a hobby with a needed service during times of disaster is rewarding indeed.

As always, if you have questions, comments or know where I can get a killer deal on ham radio gear, email me at disasterprep.dave@gmail.com. Previous columns can be found on my blog at www.disasterprepdave.blogspot.com.

(Dave Robinson is Bandon's postmaster and has worked for the postal service for 30 years. He has a background in law enforcement, served in the Air Force in Vietnam, worked nine years for the Coos County Sheriff's Department and serves on the Myrtle Point School Board, where he lives.)

Free contemporary folk concert June 17

As any Bandon resident who attended last summer's concert will tell you, there's something timeless and stirring about the music of Hilary Watson and Kate Feldtkeller. As their two voices, guitar, and violin intertwine, they conjure up echoes of time-honored musical traditions rooted in folk, bluegrass, and gospel while putting a fresh spin on these sounds as only young artists can.

"The Bandon Ministerial Association is pleased and excited to offer yet another opportunity for our community to delight in the work of these two lovely young ladies," said the Rev. Bobbi Neason.

Hilary and Kate will sing and play in concert at 7 p.m. Monday, June 17, at First Presbyterian Church, 592 Edison Ave. S.W. There will be no admission fee, but a love offering will be received and CDs of their work will be offered for sale following the concert.

In early 2012, Hilary and Kate began playing and recording together; Hilary was already seasoned from years of traveling and performing both solo acoustic and with her full band, but Kate brought something new and unique with her voice and violin that instantly clicked. The year ended up being one of rich blessing for Hilary and Kate, with extensive tours throughout the U.S., Italy, the UK, Hungary, Norway, the Netherlands and Germany, and a December tour in Hawaii to finish up the year.

The hard work of their 2012 tours paid off with rave reviews and a rapidly growing grass-roots fan base, as well as their first recording together, the drolly-titled six-song EP "Mostly Unplugged and Practically Live," which featured live favorite "You Will Come" and a version of the classic "Be Thou My Vision."

"Hilary and Kate's combined talents make for a fresh and compelling musical partnership that is not to be missed," Neason said. "Catch them in Bandon's intimate, live setting where the chemistry of their songwriting, storytelling, deft musicianship and rich singing will remind you of how music can speak to us like nothing else."

Drago author to hold book signing

The latest in the Bandon-based Drago Mystery Series pits a madman who wants to re-enact the 1936 Bandon fire against local part-time detectives Nick Drago and Sal Rand.

"The Bandon fire of 1936 was a defining moment for our town," said Art Spinella, author of the series. "It proved the heart and soul of those hard men and hearty women who lived here. The resiliency of their spirit."

But in Drago #6, this is no natural disaster. Bombs are intended to start a forest and gorse fire and eventually wipe out Bandon. Nick and Sal have only eight hours to unravel clues to the plan, call on truckers to battle the inferno and capture the crazed arsonist in a mad-dash train chase.

"And the City Burns" mixes the current mystery with first-hand recollections of the 1936 fire based on Bandon Historical Society files and the book "Bandon Burns!" by Jim Proehl and Carol Acklin.

Spinella will have a book signing at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 15, at WinterRiver Books in Old Town and a second signing at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, June 29, at Books by the Bay in North Bend.

He will also be the guest speaker at the Bandon Library's Authors Night at 7 p.m. Monday, July 15. He will be revealing some insider information on the next book, "Drago #7: A Long Ride to Nowhere."

Author Night features fantasy writer

Author Night at the Bandon Public Library will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, June 17. This month's presenter, Leandra Martin, has published five books. She was a book worm from an early age and read anything she could get her hands on, but her biggest love was fantasy and science fiction. Few of these books had a female protagonist and Martin decided to write a female lead, hoping to attract more girls to the fantasy genre. Her characters are strong, independent and able to take care of themselves, while still being sensitive and hoping for love in their lives.

Everyone is welcome. There is no cost to attend this program and refreshments will be served. Author Night is part of the Monday Night Series sponsored by the Bandon Library Friends and Foundation, Inc.

Diabetic Support Group starts June 20

A new Diabetic Support Group will be offered in Bandon beginning Thursday, June 20.

Led by Robin Summers, RN and Certified Diabetes Educator, the group will meet the third Thursday of every month from 2-3 p.m. in the Southern Coos Hospital conference room, 900 11th St. SE. The sessions are free and open to all.

The topic for the June 20 meeting will be "We All Make A Choice" and will focus on food. A new subject will be discussed each month.

Summers has been assisting patients at Southern Coos Hospital's Outpatient Specialty Clinic for more than 10 years. She works with patients in controlling and treating diabetes and its affects, and provides a Foot Care Clinic.

Alive After Five Art Walk set for June 21

On Friday, June 21, Bandon will experience its first Alive After Five Art Walk. This will be an ongoing event held every third Friday of the month from 5 to 8 p.m. Any and all Bandon merchants and artists are invited to participate.

This is a community event that is the result of two separate initiatives. The galleries in Bandon have been in discussion and working for a number of months to establish a monthly art walk amongst its locations. At the same time, several merchants have been working to change the perception that Bandon is a community that rolls up its sidewalks after 5 p.m. by moving to a monthly event in which their shops would remain open to tourists and residents alike into the evening. The Greater Bandon Association has been working with both groups to provide support and to promote the event.

Some of the town's major attractions will be open, including Face Rock Creamery and Washed Ashore. In addition, the Old Town Marketplace will remain open on the third Friday as well. And starting next month there will be the Boardwalk Art Show as well.

"If others want to step up and wish to contribute, the event will be even bigger," said GBA chairman Harv Schuboth. "For example, music will be provided at some locations and the more the merrier. Wine tasting will also be available. It is all about collaboration and cooperation."

Anyone interested in being involved can call Schuboth at 541-297-2342 or email hschuboth@fordcommunityfellow.org.

Summer Driver Education class offered

Bandon High School will offer a summer Driver Education program from June 24 to July 22, with a mandatory parent meeting on Friday, June 21.

Class size is limited. Classes will be held at BHS Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 5 p.m. and include 30 hours of classroom instruction, six hours of driving and six hours of observation. Oregon's Driver Education course is the most complete and comprehensive program available and exceeds state standards. It is approved by the Oregon Department of Transportation. Hutton is the BHS state-certified driving instructor.

Cost of the class is $185 if the student is 15-17 years old and has a valid Oregon permit. Sign up at the BHS office or email to tom_hutton@yahoo.com or phone instructor Tom Hutton at 541-297-8722.

June library art

The June art display at the Bandon Public Library features Lorna Logan with photographs in the hall and the wreaths of Eileen Quinn in the glass cases.

Eileen Quinn

Peace•Love•Wreaths presents "A Bandon Beach Walk." Rediscover a beachcomber's treasure — shells, driftwood, agates and beach glass — in hand crafted wreaths and swags.

Through the winter months, Quinn walks Bandon's beaches and waterfront, gathering materials and ideas. The wreaths she created for "A Bandon Beach Walk" capture all the hallmarks of a day on the coast.

Visitors to Bandon's Old Town Marketplace will find Quinn at her studio table Fridays and Saturdays.

Lorna Logan

"One of my earliest memories is standing on a stool beside my father in the dim red light of his darkroom watching the ghost of an image appear, the grays becoming blacks on white paper, the air thick with chemicals, developer and fixer," Logan said.

"Thus began my fascination with image, drawn or painted or caught with the camera. The process is simpler today with computers and digital cameras, quicker and accessible to almost everyone.

"The image is a reflection of the mind behind the camera, at times manipulated, at times purely a record of what was. I'm still fascinated."

The library is located at 1204 11th St. S.W. in City Park and the displays will be up through June 30.

Call to artists for summer show

Help celebrate the Port of Bandon's 100th birthday by creating a painting for this summer's art show on the Bandon Boardwalk. New art sign boards, 18 x 24 inches, are now available at Art By The Sea Gallery at the Continuum Building in Old Town, 541-347-5355 and at the Port of Bandon office, 541-347-3206.

This summer's theme is "100 Years on the Coquille River." Those interested in submitting a painting can check out the photographs at the Bandon Historical Society Museum or in the windows of the Coast Guard building for ideas, or can interpret the theme their own way, through images of fish and fishermen; seals and seagulls; fishing boats; tall ships; the idea of 100 or of 100 years; Bandon; Bandon history. The paintings are due Monday, July 1, and visitors to the boardwalk will have all summer to vote for their favorites. A juror will pick prize-winners as well. Cash prizes will be awarded during the Cranberry Festival when the port buries its time capsule.

Vicki Affatati will once again be working with the students at Harbor Lights Middle School to create the student portion of the show.

The exhibit is being sponsored by the Port of Bandon and AVK Arts, a foundation whose mission is to promote art in public places. Bandon True Value Hardware and Bandon Supply have once again helped with supplies for the school part of the project.

Golf For Health Classic coming soon

The Sixth Annual Bandon Golf for Health Classic will raise about $20,000 to help buy the most modern equipment for patient care at Bandon's 19-bed Southern Coos Hospital. The event is the single largest fundraiser annually for the Southern Coos Health Foundation, and is now one of the most popular golf tournaments on the Southern Coast, according to tournament chairman John Ohanesian of Bandon.

The four-person, team best-ball scramble is scheduled for Saturday, July 20, at Bandon Crossings Golf Course, five miles south of Bandon on U.S. Highway 101. On Friday evening, July 19, a Sponsors Appreciation Party (open to the public), kicks things off at Bandon Face Rock Golf Course, starting with a 4:30 p.m. just-for-fun, mini-horseshoe golf event, and followed by the party featuring great food, a silent auction and an awards presentation honoring the sponsors that help make this golf fundraiser so successful.

Before the 11 a.m. shotgun start on Saturday, players can enjoy a continental breakfast catered by Coastal Mist. They can challenge the infamously tough putting contest course, where a $3 per round trip attempt could win them $100 in cash. They can also try their luck at the all new snag golf event, or just hit the range to warm up. The tournament awards prizes for the top three teams and for men's and women's long drives and KP's. A hole in one on any par 3 is awarded, with $25,000 on No. 14.

Afterwards, golfers can enjoy food by Pete's Famous BBQ. The prize awards, raffle drawings and some enticing live auction items follow. As the grand finale, one player will have a go at the $1 Million Shot. For more details, to sign up or become a sponsor, visit the tournament's website at bandongolfclassic.org. You also can call Melody at Southern Coos Health Foundation, 541 329-1040 or email foundation@southerncoos.org.

Free yoga on Wednesdays

All levels of participation and ability are welcome.

A guided meditation follows the class at 11 a.m. and all are welcome. Unity of Bandon is located on U.S. Highway 101 South, one mile south of 11th Street. Call 541-347-4696 for more information.

'Star Cars' at Relay For Life Car Show

What do the 1966 Batmobile, the Back to the Future DeLorean Time Machine and the Star Wars Z-Wing Carfighter with an R2-D2 unit have in common? They and several other "star cars" will be on display at the first-ever American Cancer Society of South Coos County Spirit of Hope Car and Motorcycle Show.

The event will be held from noon to 5 p.m. Saturday, June 29, at the track and parking lot of Coquille High School, 499 W. Central, Coquille. Admission is free. Collectors and hobbyists also can enter their own car or motorcycle for a small fee, which is tax deductible to the American Cancer Society. Registration for those entries is at 11 a.m.

Also, anyone interested is welcome to participate in the Relay For Life following the car show. Opening ceremonies begin at 5 p.m.

"This is a one-of-a-kind experience that Coos County has never seen before," said Becky Crim, who, along with her 17-year-old son Grant, a three-time cancer survivor, is organizing the show.

The car line-up includes the 1966 Batmobile; the Back to the Future DeLorean Time Machine; Herbie the Love Bug; Star Wars Z-Wing Carfighter with R2-D2 unit; Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle Party Van; Bumblebee from Transformers; Tow Mater (He may be bringing a friend — stay tuned!); Members of The 501st Legion of Stormtroopers and the Rebel Legion and ObiShawn and Master Yoda.

Crim said a fun day will continue into the night with the Relay For Life. In addition to the star cars, ObiShawn, who works with NASA Space Camp, will be giving lightsaber lessons at the show and relay. Master Yoda will be on hand to help.

In addition, there will be food, music and activities as well as relevant movie items for sale, all of which will help raise money for the American Cancer Society. There will be raffles for prizes, a 50/50 drawing and raffles for a ride in some of the cars. In addition, photos will be available in the some of the cars for a donation to ACS.

Knapp is retiring after 38 years as a teacher then principal at Bandon High.

"Tonight is a celebration of 13 years of academic achievement for our seniors," Buche said. "But before we start that celebration, I would like to take a moment to honor someone else who is finally graduating from Bandon High School, and it only took her 38 years."

Knapp isn't the only longtime employee retiring from the district. BHS teachers Jeff Moore and Bob Frazier; BHS custodian Shiu Mishra; BHS secretary Lynn Johnson, HLMS teacher Chuck McLaughlin; Ocean Crest teachers Sue Dodrill and ArdisAnn Szala; bus drivers Sandy Sowers and Wally Buerer all are retiring from the district this year.

But it was a night of celebration for the seniors, whose class motto is: "Man cannot discover new oceans unless he has the courage to lose sight of the shore."

Senior class president Alexis Busso said she and her classmates had many struggles and triumphs over the years and will face struggles ahead.

"But the unknown isn't so scary after all," Busso said. "Today we say goodbye ... but today is the day we say hello to new memories."

Francis Merriam said she will take to heart the wise words of her grandfather, Frances Stadelman, a longtime member of the Bandon School Board, who said, "Use wisdom in all your decisions."

The seniors were awarded with approximately $300,000 in scholarships from both private entities and from colleges and universities (see box on left.)

The students wound down their school year last week with many activities, including an awards ceremony and the principal's picnic and a senior trip to a water park and camping in California, then to see a play in Ashland.

As part of Project Graduation activities, the seniors were taken Friday on a jet boat trip and picnic up the Rogue River. Saturday night following graduation ceremonies, class members were treated to a Project Graduation all-night, alcohol- and drug-free party.

The list of 2013 graduates from BHS includes: Rebecca Danielle Anderson; Justin Eugene Angove; Edith Sarah Alline Beckner; Angeline Faith Brown; Alexis Isabella Srey Touch Busso; Winsvey Elizabeth Campos; Austin Franz Michael Crabtree; Christopher Michael Elstad; Felix Alberto Escalante; William Chance Garrett; Logan W. Felber; Joseph Michael Harrison; Cody Forrest Hiser; Colton Zane Jennings; Jacob Andrew Kistner; Christian to continue with classical ballet courses.

In addition to dance, Strider plays recorder, baroque flute and banjo, performing monthly with the Kammeroque Trio ensemble at an arts open house in Port Orford with arts patron and musician Donna Roselius.

Strider also volunteers with the Everyone At Table program, the Good Neighbors program, and has been involved with Bandon Playhouse productions. He attends the Bandon First Presbyterian Church, where he is also an active volunteer.

Last year, Strider won the Questbridge College Prep Scholarship to help with the college admissions process.

In 2012, more than 8,500 high school students applied for the Questbridge National Match College Scholarship program to link talented students to notable colleges that participate in the program, but fewer than 400 were granted awards.

"We are very excited for Strider and the opportunities the Questbridge scholarship presents, he has worked hard and is very deserving of this honor," said Marci Camman, manager of counseling services for Oregon Connections Academy. "It's so rewarding to see our students set their sights high, stay disciplined, rise to the inherent challenges and go on to pursue their post-secondary goals."

Strider follows his older brother's footsteps. Luke Kachelein, also first in his class at Oregon Connections Academy in 2011, was a Questbridge Scholarship program finalist and went on to Vassar with a generous financial aid package. Luke has maintained straight As ever since, majoring in physics.

Oregon Connections Academy currently serves around 3,400 students in grades K-12 statewide. Students work with state certified teachers online using a standards-aligned curriculum, unique technology tools, an extensive selection of clubs and community experiences to create a personalized educational experience.

The school's spring enrollment season is now underway for families interested in exploring tuition-free online public education for their children in the 2013-14 school year.

didn't hear smoke detectors going off, so I don't know if they had working ones."

The family rents the home from owners Jim and Kathy Cowan. Boston said they did not have fire insurance.

Boston said firefighters extinguished the blaze then came back at 6:30 a.m. the following morning to take care of any smoldering patches.

Following an investigation at the scene, police took Hoffmann into custody on first-degree arson and other charges, said Police Chief Bob Webb. Further information on why Hoffmann was charged was not immediately available.

Bandon resident Mike Dempsey, who is related to the family, said the Red Cross is helping them with housing and clothing, but anyone who would like to help can email him at dempswrites@gmail.com.

out of consciousness when he was found. McGinnis gave him blankets and heat packs as they awaited help to lift Komiak back to safety. The task took about three hours, but the rescuers were able to raise Komiak with the help of the Port Orford Fire Department.

An ambulance then took Komiak to Bay Area Hospital.

"I was in a very precarious situation," Komiak said from his hospital bed. "We needed professional people, and they did a great job."

"That was one of the more challenging ones," McGinnis said. "It's a really rewarding feeling when you can put your training to use."

Komiak successfully underwent surgery Monday on his broken ankle. Aside from that and some trauma from the hypothermia, he is in good health.

True heroes

Rescue workers hoist Wayne Komiak of Bandon up an embankment, after he fell 40 feet and broke his ankle.

"I got off pretty light, considering," he said.

Komiak understands that if rescuers hadn't arrived when they did, he would have been likely to die of hypothermia. But he said the brush with death won't change his lifestyle.

"I'm pretty resilient, I won't dwell on it," Komiak said. "It's not bad luck, it's not good luck, it's part of life."

Man charged after wreck

A Bandon-area man faces criminal charges following an alcohol-related crash that injured him and his 5-year-old son early Saturday morning in central Oregon.

Oregon State Police have charged 31-year-old Jeremy Lee Ward with driving under the influence, reckless driving, recklessly endangering another person, third-degree assault, driving while suspended, driving uninsured and failure to restrain a child passenger.

The crash occurred around 4 a.m., when a 1994 Ford Liberty driven by Ward ran off the road and into a lava rock field in the Santiam Pass area. Ward and his son were taken to St. Charles Medical Center in Bend.

Neither is believed to have been wearing a seat belt.

Oregon State Police said Ward's wife had contacted the Coos County Sheriff's Office when the two left home Friday evening, saying she was concerned for her son's safety because Ward had been drinking.

Woman arrested on stalking charge

Coos County Sheriff's deputies arrested a Bandon woman on charges of trespassing and violating a stalking order following an incident on Bills Creek Lane on Saturday.

According to the Coos County Sheriff's Office, at approximately 12:25 p.m., deputies responded to a report of a trespass in progress. Upon arrival, 45-year-old Leslie A. Ballantyne of Bandon was found standing in the front yard of the residence on Bills Creek and identified as being in violation of a Coos County Stalking Protective Order.

Ballantyne, who had also been formally trespassed from returning to the property prior to June 8, was subsequently arrested for violation of a stalking order along with second-degree criminal trespassing and transported without incident to the Coos County Jail where she held on $12,500 bail.

Vacation Rental Zone expansion considered

The Bandon Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 27, in the City Council Chambers at City Hall, 555 U.S. Highway 101, regarding the potential adoption of amendments to the vacation rental dwellings regulations in the Bandon Municipal Code.

VRDs are allowed only in the CD-1, CD-2 and C-3 zones. The proposed amendments would expand the areas where VRDs are allowed to also include the CD-3, CD-R1 and CD-R2 zones, according to City Manager Matt Winkel.

The proposed regulations would eliminate the existing limits on the number of VRDs allowed in those zones and would make other amendments to the regulations. Currently, a maximum of 30 percent of the dwellings on properties within 250 feet of a proposed VRD property line may be used as VRDs. Additional changes to the proposed regulations may be made at or after the public hearing.

The proposed ordinance is available for inspection at the Bandon City Hall, a copy of can be purchased for $1. The document also is posted on the city of Bandon website at www.ci.bandon.or.us (click on Public Notices, then Planning Commission Notices).

For additional information or to submit testimony, contact City Planner Charli Davis at Bandon City Hall, P.O. Box 67, Bandon, OR, 97411; 541-347-2437, ext. 230; Fax 541-347-1415; or email cdavis06@ci.bandon.or.us.

Resort plans summer youth program

Bandon Western World

Bandon Dunes Golf Resort has a number of programs planned this summer for junior golfers, including free clinics, a junior golf league, and the return of the junior improvement program.

Free Clinics

Six clinics each are offered for beginning golfers and intermediate golfers, each running from 2 to 4 p.m.

Beginner clinics, for students 6 to 8 years old, will be offered on July 11-12, July 23-24 and Aug. 1-2.

Intermediate clinics, for students 9-13, will be offered on June 25-26, July 16-17 and July 30-31.

The focus will include etiquette, golf rules and fundamentals in full swing, putting, chipping and pitching.

All participants will receive a gift bag upon completion of the clinic, including golf-related items (a golf ball, tees, pencil and ball marker).

Space is limited. Parents should call Scott Millhouser at 541-347-5973 to sign their children up.

Junior Golf League

The league is a free program for players 9 to 13 years old and will take place in August.

Five-person teams will battle each Sunday in August at noon in nine-hole matches on the resort's Shorty's course against other teams.

The matches will be played in the scramble format.

Shorty's is a par-3 course within the resort's practice facility.

Practice will be held on Tuesdays from 3 to 4 p.m. in August and players will practice with their team and coach.

The teams will earn points throughout the month and the top two teams will have a championship match at Bandon Preserve at 10 a.m. on Sept. 8.

Improvement Program

The program meets every Monday and Wednesday from June 17 through Aug. 28 and is geared toward boys and girls ages 14-17 who want to play tournament golf.

The students will receive extensive individual attention since the program is limited to 16 golfers.

The cost is $125 ($75 for returning golfers).

Sessions run from 4 to 5:30 p.m. each day and include video analysis, playing lessons and short game skills.

The improvement program is limited to 16 golfers.

Field of dreams

Volunteers work to clear and refurbish the baseball fields in City Park for the Little League season in April prior to the season's opening. The season is now over and the fields were utilized heavily throughout May and into early June by baseball players of all ages.

A dream and a lot of hard work

By Amy Moss Strong
Bandon Western World

BANDON — It takes a village to raise a child — and to fix a baseball field. Earlier this spring, a group of parents got together to clean up the local baseball fields at City Park for the Little League season and to repair fences, benches and dugouts, mow grass and pull weeds and brush.

While a number of people volunteered their time, friends gave much of the credit to Bandon resident Zac Pounder, who spearheaded the project.

Hennick's Home Center donated materials and several weekends were spent getting the fields in tip-top shape for the season.

The season is now over, and several teams, from tee-ball on up, enjoyed the newly groomed fields.

"Others have helped but Zac was down there almost every day working on the fields," said parent Kelley Basey. "He put in countless hours."

Helpers included Aaron Freitag and his sons

Clean it and they will come

It took many wheelbarrows full of brush and dirt to get the City Park baseball fields in shape last spring.

Brayden and Kaleb; Jason Smith and his son Coby; Jeff Stoltz; Sam Basey and his children Kenzie and Adam; Ethan Hultin and his family; Ethan and Avery Pounder; and Jacob Thompson, among several others.

"I just melt when the community works together and does great things for the kids," said Tonya

Pounder. "And that fact that these boys were there working hard and maintaining the field that they were going to play ball on has to give them such pride."

It is hoped the fields will be used throughout the summer by groups and families. To reserve a field for a special event, contact City Hall at 541-347-2437.

A rewarding job

A young volunteer works at the City Park baseball fields in April to get them ready for Little League opening day at the beginning of May. Many spent time to get the fields in playable condition.

Start times vary with races, with the earliest being at 7 a.m. for the half marathon walk.

STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN ACTIVITIES and SOURCES OF FINANCING *

A new full-time Maintenance position is budgeted this year as well as a part-time seasonal office staff position. The new revenue stream from the Old Town Marketplace is assisting the port in supplementing rent income that is decreasing due to vacancies in the Coast Guard Building. The Old Town Marketplace is estimated at earning $57,600 for 9 months of operations. The $45,000 budgeted to transfer to the Reserve Fund is the same as last year to assist us in replenishing monies set aside for dredging or repairs of the declining infrastructure. This year we are budgeting a line for dredging and putting $50,000 into it. This amount will be set aside and increased each year. Port staff continues to do more with less as they have done every year. Staff works diligently to save money while giving the same amount of services or more. The beginning fund balance increase over the last few years is a true testament of their dedication to making the port more solvent each year.
