Did you know?

Did you that dental implants can help to strengthen bone and to save your existing teeth?

It's true! Dental implants exercise and strengthen bone which resorbs when teeth are lost. They also help distribute chewing forces, which reduces stress on existing teeth, and helps prevent damage to good teeth.

We've come a long way!

With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! We're here to help!

Bandon Showcase presents 'Those Were the Days'

BANDON – Remember the days of your youth listening to music with lyrics you've never forgotten?

Bandon Showcase presents "Those Were the Days" with William Florian, who performs an upbeat, musical journey of America's greatest songs of the 1960s.

Take a trip back in time with Florian at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 17, at Bandon's Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW.

"Those were the Days" celebrates the high point of popularity for folk music. Former lead singer of the famous New Christy Minstrels, Florian performs the songs of artists such as Peter, Paul & Mary, Pete Seeger, The Mamas and the Papas and many other artists from that era, along with uplifting originals, all presented with amusing stories in an intimate show.

Florian brings the audience on a journey, starting from when he got his first guitar after seeing the Beatles on the Ed Sullivan show, following with the folk and rock & roll bands of the 1960s, his time performing with the New Christy Minstrels and into the present, including firsthand accounts of his experiences with luminaries such as John Denver. Retirees love this show!

All tickets cost $25 reserved seating and the price includes complimentary wine from Edgewater's Restaurant and decadent desserts from Coastal Mist Chocolates during intermission. Tickets are available by calling Bandon Mercantile at 541-347-4341, visiting www.bandonshowcase.org or at the door.

Auditions set for ‘Steel Magnolias’

BANDON – The Bandon Playhouse is seeking talent ages 18 to 65-plus to fill six female roles for its February 2017 production of “Steel Magnolias.” The comedy-drama auditions are set for 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 13, and from 6-8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14, at the Sprague Theater, 1201 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park.

It’s the 1980s in Louisiana.

At Truvy’s beauty shop - motto: “there is no such thing as natural beauty” - the women are all sass and brass. Through clouds of hairspray and over the buzz of blow dryers, six southern spitfires gather each week to gossip and support each other through thick and thin. But those bonds are about to be tested when M’Lynn and her daughter Shelby face a life-changing event. Infused with heart and humor, “Steel Magnolias” is a hilarious story of love, loss, and enduring friendship.

All of these women are fighters. They are real human beings with depth, humor and zest for living.

For more information, visit bandonplayhouse.org or contact director Stiles Gunn at 541-683-8890.

Langlois Holiday Crafts Fair coming

LANGLOIS – Holiday shopping abounds at the 21st Annual Holiday Crafts Fair at the Langlois Lions Hall on Floras Loop Road just south of town. The Crafts Fair will be held from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, and is sponsored by the Langlois Lions and the Friends of the Langlois Public Library.

There will be many returning vendors as well as new ones, offering their unique crafts and wares. A hot lunch will be available both days. Friday is Sandie McDonald’s World Famous Chicken Pot Pie and salad. Saturday is McDonald’s clam chowder and coleslaw. Vegetarian options are also available.

Those who have been here before know what to expect - a large but homey building with tons of parking. The Langlois Lions Hall has easy access off U.S. Highway 101 – look for the “Fair” sign. Everyone is welcome to enjoy great shopping, food and friends. For more information call 541-348-2066.

Operation Christmas Child brings hope

BANDON – A small shoebox full of school supplies, toys, necessity items and notes of encouragement can have a big impact on a child. Operation Christmas Child is a worldwide children’s project of Samaritan’s Purse that uses simple gift-filled shoeboxes to let hurting children know they are not forgotten.

In 2014, Operation Christmas Child reached a major milestone – delivering shoeboxes to more than 150 million children since the project began in 1993. Millions of hurting children who are victims of poverty, disease, natural disaster, war, terrorism, persecution and famine receive Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts. For some of these boys and girls, it is the first gift they have ever received. Through the power of a simple gift and the message of hope, these children learn that God loves them. Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts will be hand-delivered to children in more than 150 countries on six continents. Boxes from this area will probably go to the Philippines.

Shoeboxes are available from Sally McSherry at 541-347-9130 until Nov. 16. Boxes can be picked up and turned in at the Bandon Western World newspaper until that date. Official collection is Nov. 14-22 at 1051 N. Cedar Point Road in Coquille.

Museum to hold Veterans Celebration

BANDON – The Bandon Historical Society Museum is inviting people with military collections to put their material on exhibit for a day as part of the museum’s Veterans Celebration on Saturday, Nov. 12, the day after Veterans Day.

The veterans event will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission will be free for the day and the public is invited. Military vehicles will be on display outside.

Museum volunteer and Air Force veteran Rick Hinojosa is the organizer for the veterans event. Several collectors shared collections at the museum last year.

“Collectors like to have a chance to show their stuff and share their knowledge,” said Hinojosa. “The collections become a good starting point, for both veterans and non-veterans, to talk about military service, whether the items are from the Revolutionary War or the current conflicts in the Middle East.”

Interested exhibitors can contact Hinojosa directly at 541-290-7591 or through the museum at 541-347-2164.

The museum is also looking for service photos of Bandon’s veterans.

“If you consider Bandon your home and served in the military, we would like to have a photo of you in uniform in our collection,” said Jim Proehl, museum board president. “We’ll scan the picture and return it to you.”

The Bandon Historical Society Museum is located at the corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Avenue and is open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Crafters present annual Holiday Sale

BANDON – Quality Crafters Guild presents their annual Holiday Sale from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 12, at The Barn in Bandon City Park.

Local artisans will be selling quilted and knitted items, seasonal decorations, purses/totes and many collectibles and unique gifts. The sale will also feature jewelry, fleece items and handmade myrtlewood products and other hand-crafted items. New this year are vignettes from the seashore, cork decorations, local-inspired greeting cards and more.

One Night on Broadway - a show for all ages

BANDON – Don't put away those Halloween costumes just yet. Why not dress up as one of your favorite Broadway stars and spend the evening belting out the best of Broadway with your friends, family and neighbors at "One Night on Broadway - A Musical Sing-along," which promises to be a fun, rewarding and definitely not intimidating event, according to organizers.

Bandon Playhouse members will provide the engaging "masters of ceremonies" while leading the audience in a night filled with some of musical theater's most memorable tunes, including songs from "Fiddler on the Roof," "South Pacific," "Wizard of Oz," "The Sound of Music," "Wicked," "Phantom of the Opera," "Beauty and the Beast," "Lion King" and many more. The audience, regardless of age or ability, will be invited to provide the additional vocal power and enthusiasm. Don't know the words? Lyric sheets and on-screen presentations will be provided for those inspired to sing along. Refreshments will also be provided by donation during intermission.

"One Night on Broadway - A Musical Sing-along" will be presented one time only, at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 11, at the Sprague Theater in Bandon's City Park. The show will be dedicated to the men and woman of the armed services. Admission for veterans will be $5; adults (non-veterans), $10; and children (12 and under), $8. Tickets are available at Bandon Mercantile and the Cobbler's Bench, online at www.bandonplayhouse.org, or at the door.

For more information, contact director Paul Hay at 970-317-1979.
