Success Story

Recently a long-term patient of ours summarized his experience at our office. He wrote:

Very caring, friendly staff, and very well trained. Dr. Strong has been very good in working with me to get my teeth back in good shape after years of neglect. Certainly one of the best dentists I've ever worked with, very skilled and also considerate of my needs. I couldn't be happier with my experience.

We love our patients like our own family, and give each one exceptional care. We change people's lives!

Art for Health fundraiser will benefit hospital art shows

BANDON – The first annual Art for Health fundraiser will take place from 4-6 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6, at the Bandon Community Center (The Barn), 1200 11th St. SW. Proceeds from Art for Health will benefit the 2017 Quarterly Art Shows at SCHHC. Tickets are $35 single, and $50 for a couple. Ticket buyers will receive one 10"x10" painting by a local artist and a drink ticket (for the $50 ticket, couples receive two paintings and two drink tickets).

Advance purchase is strongly encouraged. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

The Art for Health program will include: Hors d'oeuvres; a signature Art for Health cocktail; short talks by local artists who regularly show at SCHHC, including Michael Ousley, Mary Schamehorn and Judith Ginsburg; a raffle for artwork by the three artists giving short talks; and a small silent auction featuring a selection of local artists' artwork.

Local artists will be in attendance, informally and conversationally offering their insight into their artistic practice and the benefits of exhibiting at the SCHHC's art shows.

The Art for Health fundraiser will ensure that the SCHHC quarterly art shows will continue. The shows have become a signature event for artists to show their work. Bandon and the southern Oregon coast are home to many artists practicing in a variety of media. The area boasts sculptors, collage artists, oil painters, pastel artists, bronze artists, assemblage artists, plein air groups, woodworkers and photographers.

The event is hosted by the Southern Coos Health Foundation and the SCHHC. For more information, contact Scott McEachern, 541.329.1040 or smeachern@southerncoos.org.

Auditions set for ‘Steel Magnolias’

BANDON – The Bandon Playhouse is seeking talent to fill six female roles for its February 2017 production of “Steel Magnolias.” The comedy-drama auditions are set for 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 13, and from 6-8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14, at the Sprague Theater, 1201 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park.

It’s the 1980s in Louisiana. At Truvy’s beauty shop - motto: “there is no such thing as natural beauty” - the women are all sass and brass. Through clouds of hairspray and over the buzz of blow dryers, six southern spitfires gather each week to gossip and support each other through thick and thin. But those bonds are about to be tested when M’Lynn and her daughter Shelby face a life-changing event. Infused with heart and humor, “Steel Magnolias” is a hilarious story of love, loss, and enduring friendship.

All of these women are fighters. They are real human beings with depth, humor and zest for living.

For more information, visit bandonplayhouse.org or contact Paul Hay, producer at 970-317-1979 or Stiles Gunn, director at 541-683-8890.

Roaring Sea Arts open house set for Oct. 30

PORT ORFORD – The Roaring Sea Arts October open house will be held from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30, at the Roaring Sea Studio in Port Orford.

Everyone is welcome to come enjoy music, art, prose poetry, potluck snacks and refreshments.

Musical guests this month joining the Kammeroque Trio include violinist Sarah Mautner with pianist Crystal Landucci, singer Tracy Dihle, flautist Heidi Connolly, and Cynthia Stone with a group known as the South Coast Ukulele Players. Poets and writers, including Joyce Mueller, Weld Champneys, Cairehn McGowan and Joseph Byrne may add to the afternoon’s entertainment.

Come enjoy the afternoon. All musical, poetic and artistic participants and audience members are welcome. Impromptu creations and presented artworks are encouraged for anyone who wants to add art to the “gallery.”

The entrance to the Roselius home, where Roaring Sea Studio is located, is the driveway shared with the Sea Crest Motel just south of Port Orford on U.S. Highway 101. Turn left from the driveway’s end and park along the main driveway, or in neighboring driveways. The neighbor at the cul-de-sac allows parking on the right hand side of his driveway.

For further information about treats of all kinds (edible, musical, artistic) call Donna Roselius at 541-332-4444 or Suzanne Monks at 541-332-0540.

Crafters present annual Holiday Sale

BANDON – Quality Crafters Guild presents their annual Holiday Sale from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 12, at The Barn in Bandon City Park.

Local artisans will be selling quilted and knitted items, seasonal decorations, purses/totes and many collectibles and unique gifts. The sale will also feature jewelry, fleece items and handmade myrtlewood products and other hand-crafted items. New this year are vignettes from the seashore, cork decorations, local-inspired greeting cards and more.

Langlois Holiday Crafts Fair coming

LANGLOIS – Holiday shopping abounds at the 21st Annual Holiday Crafts Fair at the Langlois Lions Hall on Floras Loop Road just south of town. The Crafts Fair will be held from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, and is sponsored by the Langlois Lions and the Friends of the Langlois Public Library.

There will be many returning vendors as well as new ones, offering their unique crafts and wares. A hot lunch will be available both days. Friday is Sandie McDonald's World Famous Chicken Pot Pie and salad. Saturday is McDonald's clam chowder and coleslaw. Vegetarian options are also available.

Those who have been here before know what to expect - a large but homey building with tons of parking. The Langlois Lions Hall has easy access off U.S. Highway 101 – look for the “Fair” sign. Everyone is welcome to enjoy great shopping, food and friends. For more information call 541-348-2066.
