Happy Thanksgiving!

At Dr. Strong's office we are thankful for our many great patients. Many of them have become good friends of ours over the years. We are also thankful to be part of a close and supportive community, and for the welcoming atmosphere that we feel from local residents and businesses. Patients who are traveling through the area often comment about the beauty of the south coast, and the friendly people that they meet here. Many thanks to all of you who make the south coast a great place to live and work!

Night of 10,000 Lights set for Nov. 26

BANDON – If you have not marked your calendar for Bandon's annual Christmas Tree lighting, you may want to do so right now. Saturday, Nov. 26, will be Bandon's Night of 10,000 Lights. This event kicks off the Christmas season in Bandon, though it is just the beginning of the holiday cheer!

As last year, there will be many activities going on in Old Town Bandon. The fun starts at 3:30 p.m. with pictures with Santa (can purchase or take your own), cookies and cider, music and caroling and activities for children (and adults) of all ages. Look for a fun Old Town scavenger hunt, workshops at Washed Ashore and a Christmas book reading at Winter River Books. Many of the shops will have festive lights and window displays, so don't forget to vote for your favorite one.

The lighting of the community Christmas tree is set for 5:30 p.m. The tree was donated by Moore Mill and refreshments have been donated by generous Old Town businesses.

The nearly 10,000 lights have been purchased with the proceeds from the Greater Bandon Association's Alive After Five. And the other decorations have been purchased or made by the Chamber of Commerce, Port of Bandon, and GBA's group of volunteers.

For more information, you can call the Greater Bandon Association at 541-297-2342 or check out Bandon's Night of 1000 Lights Facebook page.

Also, mark your calendar for Dec. 10 as well. This will be Bandon's second annual Lighted Christmas Parade at 5:30 p.m. Light yourself, your vehicle, your bike, your pet, or your tractor and come be part of the parade!

Don't miss Bandon's 4th annual Night of 10,000 Lights

Nov. 26th, 2016 from 3:30 to 7 pm.

Lions selling See's Candies for holidays

BANDON – See's Famous Old time Candies will once again be available in Bandon for the holidays. All proceeds from the annual sales are used by the Lions Club to support eye testing for school age children and for eye glasses for those in need as well as scholarships to high school seniors and other community needs. The Lions' main goal each year is to serve the community.

The Lions will sell candy from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25 and 26, at the Old Town Marketplace, 250 First. St. SW.

Lions will also sell candy from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28, 29 and 30, in front of McKay's Market and Ray's Food Place. Ace Hardware will have candy available as well, at the checkout counter, during regular business hours.

Prices for the candy are $20 per box and include dark, milk and assorted chocolates, nuts & chews, soft centers and peanut brittle.

For more information call Delores Christensen at 541-329-2153 or 541-551-0990.

Three historic sites to be open Nov. 25, 26

PORT ORFORD – Cape Blanco Heritage Society is opening the Cape Blanco Lighthouse (weather permitting), Hughes House and the Lifeboat Station Museum from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25 and 26. Friendly staff and volunteers will be on hand to greet visitors. Tours of the historic sites are available these two days (normally open April through October).

The Lighthouse Bookstore emphasizes lighthouse logo clothing and caps, models, magnets and key chains, books about lighthouses and maritime history, CDs, jewelry, games and puzzles, lighthouse china and lace curtains plus even more.

The Victorian Shoppe at Hughes House features china sets, cups and saucers at rock bottom prices, books and cookbooks, jams, jellies and syrups. Lovely lace curtains, tablecloths and runners also are available at reasonable prices.

The Gift Locker at Lifeboat Station Museum offers sweatshirts, tee shirts and jackets, books about local and maritime history, games and puzzles, magnets and knot tying cards.

Your personal souvenir dog tag with your own name will be stamped while you wait.

Visitors can enjoy history at one, two or all three sites while shopping for great deals and supporting this local history organization at the same time.

Recreational crabbing closed on South Coast

SOUTH COAST – The Oregon Department of Agriculture and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife announced the immediate closure of recreational and commercial bay crabbing from Tillamook Head to the California border due to elevated levels of domoic acid. This includes Dungeness and red rock crab harvested in bays and estuaries, off docks, piers, jetties and the ocean.

Elevated domoic acid levels were found in the viscera of Dungeness crab collected between Cascade Head and Cape Falcon, triggering a biotoxin closure. The remaining areas of the coastline are being closed out of precaution while more samples are being processed. Additional sample results will be used to inform the reopening areas and the opening of the ocean crab fisheries, which are scheduled to open Dec. 1.

Crab harvesting from Tillamook Head north to the Columbia River remains open, although it is recommended that crab always be eviscerated prior to cooking. Evisceration includes removing and discarding the internal organs and gills.

Despite the closure, crab and shellfish products sold in retail markets and restaurants remain safe for consumers.

Domoic acid or amnesic shellfish toxin can cause minor to severe illness and even death. Severe poisoning can result in dizziness, headaches, vomiting and diarrhea. More severe cases can result in memory loss and death. Shellfish toxins are produced by algae and originate in the ocean. Toxins cannot be removed by cooking, freezing or any other treatment. ODA will continue to test for toxins in the coming weeks. Removal of the advisory requires two consecutive tests in the safe range.

For more information, call ODA's shellfish safety information hotline at 800-448-2474 or visit the ODA shellfish closures web page at dfw.state.or.us.
