Hospital patient satisfaction survey is under way

Your opinion is enormously important.

That's the message of a new survey being taken of people utilizing the services of the Emergency Department at Southern Coos Hospital.

"We want to be sure that every patient's treatment needs are met and their experience in emergency is positive," said Charles Johnston, CEO of Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center.

As a result, the hospital has begun inviting patients to complete a survey before they leave the emergency room. The patients fill out the survey on a tablet-sized computer, answering 12 multiple-choice questions. A staff member is available to assist if a person is unfamiliar with computers or seeks clarification on a question.

Questions include, among others, how long a person had to wait before being seen by a physician, how well they were treated by staff and attending physicians and how well their pain was controlled. Results are provided to an off-site service that tracks, tabulates and reports back. In addition, a member of hospital administration is alerted via email if one of the answers indicates follow-up is needed.

"If a person has a great experience, we want to hear that," Johnston said. "If the experience was not so great, we want to hear that too and work to improve. Our patients' input will help us give the best care possible right here in our hometown emergency department."

The Emergency Department at Southern Coos is staffed 24/7 by physicians contracted through EmCare, the nation's leading physician ER management service. Each doctor on staff is skilled and experienced in emergency room patient care. Dr. Sam Richard, a physician with more than 30 years in family medicine and seven years of emergency room duty, is the Interim Site Medical Director for Southern Coos Hospital.

'Grease' the musical coming to Sprague

Bandon Playhouse will revisit the 1950s when it takes the stage with "Grease" the musical the first three weekends in August at the Sprague Community Theater.

"Grease" takes place in and around the fictitious Rydell High School, Class of 1959. Head bad boy "greaser" Danny Zuko (Clint Guevara) and new (good) girl Sandy Dumbrowski (Jenn Winchell) try to relive the high romance of their "Summer Nights" as the rest of the gang sings and dances its way through such songs as "Greased Lightnin'," "Freddy My Love," "Look at Me I'm Sandra Dee," "We Go Together," "It's Raining On Prom Night," "Sandy" "Beauty School Dropout" and "You're The One That I Want," recalling the music of Buddy Holly, Little Richard and Elvis Presley that became the soundtrack of a generation.

Other cast members include Meghan Ross as Rizzo; Mike Corral as Kinickie; Shannon Burruss as Patty; Autumn Moss-Strong as Marty; Wlnsvey Campos as Jan; Nick Cobbinah as Sonny; Sam Augsburger as Roger; Jenna Neason as Doody; Stephanie Gordon as Frenchy; David Neel as young Eugene; Kasia Tuma, Ariel Elstad and Kailyn Roth as cheerleaders; Gareth Williams as adult Eugene; Dan Barnett as Vince Fontaine; Amy Moss Strong as Miss Lynch; and Lori Straley as Radio Voice.

An eight-year run on Broadway and two subsequent revivals along with innumerable school and community productions place "Grease" among the world's most popular musicals. Everywhere it opened, "Grease" struck a universal chord with its irresistible mix of adolescent angst, vibrant physicality and 1950s pop culture.

"Grease" is directed by Kathie Lecce and co-produced by Bill Binnewies and Amy Moss Strong.

The show opens Friday, Aug. 2, with a special gala at 6 p.m., prior to the 7:30 p.m. show, featuring classic cars, music, cherry Cokes and rootbeer floats. Members of local classic car clubs will be in attendance.

"Grease" runs Aug. 2, 3 and 4; Aug. 9, 10 and 11; and Aug. 16, 17 and 18, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. S.W. in Bandon City Park. Friday and Saturday shows are at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday matinees are at 2 p.m.

Tickets cost $15 for adults; $12 for seniors and students; and $10 for children under 12, and are available at Bandon True Value Hardware, Bandon Mercantile, Billy Smoothboar's and at the door. Tickets also can be reserved by calling 541-290-9989.

Fire season officially open

As the weather stays dry, the state of Oregon is gearing up to crack down on summer wildfires.

As of July 1, Coos, Curry and southern Douglas counties are under a declared fire season. The fire season declaration marks the implementation of land use restrictions on private, county, state and BLM lands within the Coos Forest Protective Association's jurisdiction.

The use of outside burn piles and burn barrels are prohibited through the end of the season. Cutting firewood requires an 8-ounce fire extinguisher and shovel. Power saws must be equipped with an approved screen.

The first major wildfire of the season flared up Sunday near Gardiner when a flame in logging slash burned 42 acres off Sparrow Park Road. The cause of the fire remains under investigation.

For more information about fire season restrictions, contact the Coos Forest Protective Association at 541-267-3161.

Time capsule submissions wanted

If you enjoy reading and learning about local history of the area, you have an opportunity to become part of Bandon's history by contributing to the Port of Bandon's Centennial Time Capsule, to be opened in 2113.

Submissions from businesses, family and landscape photographs, identifying owners, employees, family members and locations are wanted. Poems, art, maps, letters to Bandon's future residents or relatives, small family heirlooms for future generations, prized seeds, books, magazines, badges, patches just about anything written or photographed would be great to fill the capsule.

Group photos of the police department, rural fire department, councils, boards, doctors, nurses, teachers, clergy, sports teams, chefs, bartenders, realtors and any group we may have missed would be fantastic, with names on the back.

"Please bring your submissions to the port office as soon as possible. We would like to fill the capsule by July 31," said Port General Manager Gina Dearth. "We hope you will contribute to this historical collection and we appreciate your efforts in helping us fill the capsule."
