Memorial Day flowers offered at Dog Style Boutique

BANDON – The Dog Style Boutique will be offering roses for Memorial Day to families who would like to honor their loved ones who died in service or were veterans, through the Memorial Day Flowers Foundation.

Owner Roxanne Kight has ordered 250 roses that she will give away on a first-come, first-serve basis, one per gravesite, from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, May 28 and May 29, at Dog Style Boutique, 95 11th St. SW. Local veterans will be there helping pass out the roses.

“I love my country and I don’t get involved in politics, but I do support our veterans,” Kight said.

“Because I have a dog store, I always support the Working Dog Team Association, because we lose a lot of dogs these days (in war zones) to bombs they have sniffed out. This is something I wanted to do for our local veterans.”

Kight read about the Memorial Day Flowers Foundation and learned that for every 250 flowers you purchase, the foundation will place the same amount on graves in Arlington Cemetery. Each year, the foundation’s goal is to place a flower on every gravestone of the 280,000 graves at Arlington Cemetery.

For more information, call Kight at 541-347-2504 or visit <http://memorialdayflowers.org/>.

Memorial Day ceremony is sponsored by VFW

BANDON – VFW Post No. 3440 will hold a special ceremony honoring Memorial Day at 10:30 a.m., Monday, May 30, at the VFW Cemetery on Bates Road.

This year marks 150 years of honoring Memorial Day. Since April 19, 1775, when Robert Monroe was killed by the British in Lexington, Mass., to Jan. 5, 2016, when Sgt. Matthew McClintock was killed in action in Afghanistan, more than 1.2 million Americans have sacrificed their lives in wartime.

Everyone is invited to the ceremony, which will feature speakers, prayers, a gun salute and the playing of Taps for the fallen. Hot dogs and hamburgers will be sold for $1 each from 1-3 p.m.

“I just want young people to realize what Memorial Day really means,” said VFW commander George Trott. “It’s not just another three-day weekend.”

For more information, call Trott at 541-297-7097.

Blessing of the Fleet ceremony on Memorial Day weekend

BANDON – The annual Blessing of the Fleet will take place at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 28. The gathering begins in front of the Lost at Sea Memorial in the Port of Bandon’s boat launch parking lot on First Street in Old Town.

The ceremony honors those who have been lost at sea or make their living on the sea, as well as all veterans.

Attendees are encouraged to contact the port office with names of their loved ones to be included in the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, flowers and wreaths will be scattered at the mouth of the river by U.S. Coast Guard Coquille River Patrol and a gun salute will be held at the South Jetty provided by the VFW Medal of Honor Post #3440, Bandon. Donations of flowers are greatly appreciated.

For more information, contact the Port of Bandon office at 541-347-3206.
