Creamery grand opening Wednesday

The Bandon Chamber of Commerce will host a ribbon cutting ceremony for Face Rock Creamery on Wednesday, May 8. The public is welcome to join cheese lovers from around the state in celebration of agriculture and industry on the Oregon Coast. The ribbon cutting will take place at 1 p.m. followed by the grand opening celebration until 5 p.m. Face Rock Creamery is located at 680 Second Street S.E., on U.S. Highway 101 in Bandon.

"Face Rock Creamery is a special addition to the Bandon business community," said Bandon Chamber of Commerce

Langlois Market burglarized

Capture: Two of three suspects arrested after Coos Bay chase

Bandon Western World

LANGLOIS — A burglary at the popular Langlois Market ended in a car crash and the arrest of two men in Coos Bay last Thursday. A third suspect remains at large.

Richard Schlitz, 20, was arrested by Coos Bay police on outstanding Coos and Douglas county warrants. Michael Reid, 32, of Santa Maria, Calif., faces charges of burglary and theft.

The Curry County sheriff's office received two reports of a burglary in progress at the Langlois Market around 4:30 a.m. April 25. Both callers reported seeing two people break into the store and drive north toward Coos Bay in a newer silver four-door car.

About 45 minutes later, a witness to the burglary reported seeing the car parked along the road at Beach Junction just south of Bandon. A Bandon police officer responding to find the vehicle gone, but the cash register from the Langlois Market abandoned in the area.

Coos Bay police chased the car after it entered the city limits. The car crashed near the Southwestern Oregon Community College cam-

Two months in jail

Bandon woman sentenced for two counts of rape

By George Artsitas
Bandon Western World

COQUILLE — A Bandon woman was sentenced Monday to two months in jail after she admitted having sex with an adolescent boy twice last summer.

Ladonna Renee Moniz pleaded guilty to two counts of third-degree rape. She had sexual intercourse with the victim twice between June 10 and Aug. 1.

Moniz, 30, was originally charged with eight counts each of second-degree sodomy and second-degree rape, but the charges were reduced in a plea agreement. The plea saved her from a Measure 11 conviction, which would have mandated a minimum sentence of 70 months in prison.

Instead, Moniz was given two back-to-back 30-day sentences. She also must serve three years' probation, is forbidden to contact the victim or his family, must pay a $1,500 fine and cannot be alone with anyone under age 18.

The comparatively light sentence reflected her lack of a prior criminal record. But the terms of the probation mean any

Chamber hosts Micro Biz Fair

By Amy Moss Strong
Bandon Western World

Two dozen local businesses converged on The Barn on Wednesday afternoon for the Chamber of Commerce's first Micro Biz Fair.

The event gave business owners and attendees a chance to network and discover what each other has to offer.

Chamber Executive Director Julie Miller came up with the idea as a way to allow Bandon businesses to showcase their products and services to front line employees — among them Visitor Center volunteers and others who often give recommendations.

"We can think of no other way to help promote Bandon businesses during the 2013 season than to help them make a memorable impression on those individuals who regularly field questions from visitors," Miller said.

Dozens of people came to The Barn to check out the fair and talk with business owners, who each had a table displaying their products, along with samples, brochures and business cards.

"I was extremely pleased with the event considering it was the first time," Miller said after the fair. "I think the business community seemed pleased

Auction items galore

Left, people browse through the silent auction tables in the lobby at the Bash for Cash at The Barn Saturday night. The event drew almost 200 people who bid on the many auction and raffle items that were donated to help raise money for Class of 2013's graduation night party and activities. Guests were treated to a tri-tip and chicken dinner with lots of side dishes and dessert and enjoyed casino games prior to the live auction.

Spring academic all-state announced

The OSAA and the Dairy Farmers of Oregon have teamed up for the 16th year to sponsor the Dairy Farmers of Oregon Academic All-State Award. This award recognizes excellence in the classroom throughout the state.

"As an organization we are very proud of this award because it reveals all the hard work and commitment the student athletes around the state show in the classroom," said OSAA Executive Director Tom Welter.

Bandon teams honored:

- Speech Team, 3.72 grade point average, 9th out of all divisions.
- Boys golf, 3.48 gpa,

5th in 3A/2A/1A.

- Girls golf, 3.75 gpa, 5th in 4A/3A/2A/1A.
- Band, 3.49 gpa, 4th in 3A.

The winning group in each spring activity will be presented a plaque in honor of outstanding scholastic achievement and team members will receive a "got milk?" sweatshirt and a certificate. Additionally, the Dairy Farmers of Oregon help recognize the achievement of all top 10 teams in each classification by providing each student a lapel pin. More than 9,500 lapel pins will be distributed to spring activities teams throughout the state in the coming weeks.

A Bandon woman is still in the hospital at Oregon Health Sciences University in Portland and a Coos County Sheriff's deputy has been released after a crash that left them both with serious injuries last Wednesday.

Connie Walle, 58, of Bandon and Coos County Deputy Doug Miller were flown to Oregon Health

School District to hold budget meeting

The Bandon School District No. 54 Budget Committee will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, May 6, in the district cafeteria, 455 Ninth St. S.W. Officers will be elected, the budget message will be presented, the budget will then be reviewed and approved as presented or amended, or another budget committee meeting will be scheduled. The public is welcome.

Hospital budget to be reviewed

A public meeting of the budget committee of Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center to discuss the budget for the fiscal year July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014 will be held at 6 p.m. on Thursday, May 9, at the hospital, 900 11th St. S.E.

The purpose of the meeting is to receive the budget and to receive comment from the public on the budget.

A copy of the budget document can be inspected after May 6 at Southern Coos Hospital between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

DEATH NOTICES

James Doyle "Friday" Reavis — 77, of Bandon, died April 27, 2013, in Coos Bay. Arrangements are pending with Amling Schroeder Funeral Service, Bandon, 541-347-2907.

Sciences University for injuries sustained in a collision at the spur road between state Highway 42 and U.S. Highway 101 at Davis Slough on April 24.

The crash forced Walle's vehicle off the highway into a ditch and smashed Miller's patrol car, which came to rest against a guard rail.

OHSU Strategic Communications said Walle and Miller were listed in critical condition last Wednesday. Miller has since been released from the hospital and is back home, according to Coos County District Attorney R. Paul Frasier.

Tuesday, a hospital media spokeswoman said Walle's condition was unavailable because she was undergoing a procedure. According to a friend, Walle suffered serious neck and vertebrae injuries. Walle is a vendor in the Old Town Marketplace who sold berry cobbles.

Frasier said Tuesday that he had no new information on the case other than hearing that Miller had been released.

In a press release issued shortly after the crash, Frasier said the incident remained under investigation. An Oregon State Police crash reconstruction expert from Roseburg completed his investigation last Wednesday, but Frasier said investigators still needed to interview eyewitnesses.

The investigation is being handled by the Oregon State Police in conjunction with the Coos County Crash Team. Anyone who has information regarding this incident is asked to contact OSP.

Bricks will support park

The Parks and Recreation Commission would like to thank all of the individuals who attended and participated in the Jetty Park Forum. Special thanks must be given to the Committee for Citizen Involvement and Jeff Norris, manager of The Barn, for all of their hard work in advertising, organizing and ensuring the forum was a success.

The Parks and Recreation Commission, in conjunction with the tree sub-committee also held an Arbor Day event on April 20 where 16 additional trees were planted in City Park. Kudos to Commissioners Troy Russell and Donny Goddard for all of their hard work and expertise. The event was a success and the planted Wax Myrtles will complement the newly planted Rhododendrons.

The commission is proud of the many projects that have been completed in recent years and we are dedicated to continuing to improve the recreational opportunities in Bandon. In order to accomplish much of the needed improvements, the Commission has proposed a brick selling project. The proceeds from the sale of bricks will fund the installation of a gazebo, disc golf tee boxes and a new sports plaza, while also improving the pathways and funding a new stage all within the City Park.

You may obtain additional information on the Jetty Park Schematic Design or the Brick Project by going to the committee's page on the city website at www.cityofbandon.or.us or by contacting City Planner Michelle Hampton at 541-347-2437, ext. 231.

Again, thanks to all of the individuals who volunteer and participate in the many events Bandon conducts throughout the year. These events and projects could not proceed or succeed without you!

Harv Schubothe, chairman
Bandon Parks and Recreation Commission

It's great to have friends

I wish to extend a sincere thank you to our very supportive community. Friends of Free Flight recently hosted another well-attended fund-raising garage sale to benefit Free Flight Bird Rehabilitation & Education Center. Once again the event proved to be a great success. It occurs to me that would not be the case if we did not have friends. There is a core group of friends who prepare, work and clean-up the sale. They are a group of friends who regularly donate to the cause, as well as new ones with each sale. And then there are the friends who attend the sale, in search of treasures while supporting Free Flight at the same time.

Without all these friends, we simply would have no organization, items to sell, or critical funds to add to our rather limited budget. We may live in a small town, but we are supported in a big way by the local community.

In these tough times it is so refreshing to see people come together to support such a worthy nonprofit organization as Free Flight. We could not succeed without your help. So to all our friends on behalf of Free Flight, I thank you.

Dawn W. Vonderlin
president, Friends of Free Flight

Chance for port commissioner

There was a time when The Port of Bandon did big things like building the boat basin and the boardwalk, created opportunities to start new businesses, and proudly saw itself as an engine of growth for the local economy. There was a willingness to engage the public to move things forward. What happened?

The port's core mission is to improve life for people who live in the port district, which includes both Bandon and Coquille. For the past five years, the port has operated without a strategic plan. One is in the works now because the State of Oregon has mandated it as a requirement to obtain state funding. Take the time to ask yourself what you know about the port's vision for the future. If you, like me, don't see much going on beyond the status quo or "same old, same old" approach of short-term fixes, and interim projects, I hope you'll support my campaign to restore leadership at the port.

As port commissioner, my priorities will be to:

1. Rebuild relationships among all the ports and restore port maintenance and dredging funds.

Dredging is an urgent matter of survival; the port already is losing moorage income from boat owners spooked by the uncertainty of continued federal funds and commercial fisherman know that their business could dry up overnight if this problem drags on. The approach we need goes far beyond the occasional trip to Washington D.C. The only way forward is to work hard to unify the ports and take the approach that, if the government de-funds one port, they have de-funded them all. We need energetic, systematic, informed outreach to every federal official who can impact funding for dredging.

2. Use the available authority of the Port Commissioners to prevent unilateral land grabs by federal agencies in the Coquille Valley. The Port of Bandon is a major landowner in our area and needs a public policy outlining its stewardship of properties it owns and manages. For example, the port owns property adjacent to the land the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service most wants to acquire in order to expand the Bandon Marsh. The port's land will be affected by the decisions of this federal agency. I have led the opposition to the expansion of the Bandon Marsh because it would imperil the livelihoods and property of farmers in our area, many of whom have lived here for generations. Our local farms are a vital part of our local economy and deserve our support. The port needs a strong, informed voice on this issue.

3. Design an annual review process to update all policies and procedures regarding public access to port property and information about port operations, while ensuring a high level of transparency and financial accountability in all decisions.

To ensure openness and public involvement, I would like to hold meetings in Bandon and Coquille for the general public at least once a year to review the port's facilities and land holdings, current policies and projects, and solicit new thinking about ways to create new revenue streams and jobs from best uses of port assets.

About my background, I moved to the southern Oregon coast after serving for six years in the U.S. Navy as a hospital corpsman, primarily with the U.S. Marine Corps, and then worked for a number of years in the long-term care industry. As the first Chief Administrator of Heritage Place, I oversaw the planning and development of the facility, as well as its start-up operations. This was a complex project requiring cooperation with many, diverse regulatory agencies and local stakeholders. Also, I have worked with a number of local organizations, including serving a term as president of the Bandon Rotary Club, and graduated from The Coos Leadership Program.

I have always worked to support and defend our community as an energetic, involved citizen. At this critical time for the Port of Bandon, when strong and decisive leadership is urgently required, I am asking for your help. Please cast your vote for Don Chance for Port of Bandon Commissioner Position No. 3.

Cigarette smoke sickening

There is a law and I wish it was enforced. I am allergic to cigarette smoke. My throat swells shut, headache. Every time I shop at a place in the Bandon Shopping Center from 7 a.m. on (I try to beat them but cannot), someone is sitting on a bench or in a car as happened Sunday outside the laundromat. The smoke goes inside businesses and you cannot get away.

Even the drive-in coffee girls stand right there out their door and smoke goes in your window.

While in the U.S. Cellular Saturday a lady (two actually) was standing on the sidewalk in front of the laundromat chain smoking, so all the smoke came in.

Today early, outside the laundromat, a guy was smoking so smoke came in. So three of four days I've been sick because of this.

Can't there be signs put up and people ticketed? They can stay in their cars with the windows up.

I am filing a complaint with the Health Department. No, there are no medications I can take for this.

Goche has earned respect

We endorse Rick Goche for re-election to the Bandon Port Commission.

As a longtime commercial fisherman, Rick Goche has been an active defender of traditional users' access to, and protection of, our shared ocean resources.

Respect from his colleagues is evident in his chairmanship, over the years, of virtually every Oregon State Seafood Commission including his current chairmanship of the Oregon Albacore Commission. He is also active on several other trade groups locally and statewide.

During his term, Commissioner Goche helped create the successful marketplace for local and regional producers of foods and art at the "Old Blue" Bandon Pacific Seafoods building.

Rick Goche also championed the port's valuable assistance in completing the first phase of the Coquille Riverwalk. He is a strong proponent of phase two of the Riverwalk and the ultimate completion of this great addition to the community of Coquille.

Rick Goche has worked for landowner rights, landowner protections and access to the ocean for decades. He has earned the kind of respect we need from state and federal officials.

Please join me in keeping Rick Goche as Bandon port commissioner.

Equally disgusted

I was surprised and disappointed to read that Ms. Tierney was "disgusted" by those protesting our "president" outside of the post office the other day.

I was surprised because there wasn't one syllable she wrote that I agreed with, beginning with the preposterous notion that Obama was "duly elected." There wasn't a single aspect of the entire election/campaign procedure that came close to resembling a candidate being selected by an honest voice of the people. The election and the campaign were the "essence" of corruption, distortion and the fine "art" of purchasing votes from those "under-informed" voters using my tax dollars.

I was disappointed because had I known about that demonstration I'd have been down there with them displaying my outrage at the absolute disassembly of my Constitution and country by the criminals who have it in a death grip like I have never experienced in my 68 years!

My experience indicates that this point of view will be too "radical" for this publication. I had to respond just the same!

Really "disgusted."

Endorses Acklin, Hundhausen

I vowed to run for a seat on the board of directors at our local Bandon Hospital, (officially Southern Coos Hospital), but I am not going to because Carol Acklin has filed. I've known Carol for several years in a professional environment. She is what every elected official should strive for. Carol Acklin believes in truth, justice and the American Way. Carol takes time to assess situations rather than stick her foot in her mouth with some knee-jerk reaction. With the ability to set emotions aside, Carol makes logical decisions based on common sense. She knows there are positives and negatives to all situations.

Many people fail to understand our hospital is a local government, and its job is to provide health care. Those who serve on the board of directors are politicians, because they stand before the public and ask for votes to represent us. Too many elected officials (cities, counties, special districts) fail to realize that everything they do and say in the course of their elected business is public business. Elected officials have a public duty to reply to phone calls and e-mails from citizens, even if the officials disagree with or don't like that person. Intelligent officials attempt to find common ground with those who object to issues or flag problems. Too many officials fail to hold the capacity to say, "I'm sorry, I was wrong" or, "I've re-evaluated my position, and it is in the public good to change my opinion." Carol Acklin knows how public officials should act. I trust her to do that.

This is only the third time I've publicly endorsed someone for election. As a retired police officer, retired martial arts instructor, current licensed therapist, author and editor, I respect Carol and look forward to her stellar service in the public's best interest. She will give her time in this non-paid position to keep our hospital open and help it thrive!

Bob Hundhausen is running for re-election to the hospital board and I support him. He has been a dedicated force to getting our hospital back on its financial feet.

Re-elect Goche

Since his election in 2009 Rick Goche has been an outstanding Bandon port commissioner.

He championed port efforts that restored the "Old Blue" Pacific Seafood's building, making it a successful market for local foods and art.

Rick and the other commissioners have kept the Port of Bandon debt free — a distinction few other ports can claim.

Rick was a key player in Phase I of the Coquille River Walk.

Rick has fought to keep small port dredging funds in the federal budget. Without dredging, the mouth of the Coquille River will silt in and the Port of Bandon will die.

Rick Goche is totally opposed to any expansion of the Bandon Marsh.

As a successful business man and commercial fisherman for 30 years, Rick has the skills and work ethic to do the job. Rick Goche deserves re-election.

Misleading advertising

Recently I was driving south through Bandon and saw that the gas at the 76 station (Owned by Ron's Oil Company in Coquille) had a price of $3.53 on their marquee sign way up high.

I pulled in and filled up my tank and left only to find out once I got home I was actually charged $3.63 a gallon, ten cents more per gallon.

I returned to the 76 gas station this time coming towards Bandon from the south driving north and I pulled in, when I told them they charged me to much they said see that sign on the ground is the credit card price which is $3.63 cents per gallon.

I explained I had come from the north driving south and there was no sign and no one told me, they said there is nothing they can do that's the price.

When I filled up no one told me of this price increase for using my credit card and the one and only sign they have with the higher price is only visible if you are coming to Bandon from the south driving north.

In my opinion this is a very poor way to do business.

I told my neighbor what happened and he said the same thing happened to him as well and that he will never go back either.

Then I went to Eugene and pulled into the 76 station in Reedsport, just before Highway 38, not knowing it was owned by Ron's Oil Company as well and the same thing happened. I told the attendant that I thought that was a crooked way to business. He agreed and said everyone was complaining. "Caveat emptor"

Make Pullen your choice

Reg Pullen is a tried and true candidate for the Bandon Port Commission seat this May. Reg has served in this capacity for 12 years and has done an outstanding job. He is cool and calm and reasoned in his deliberations and his decisions. He gets along with virtually everyone and yet knows how to be tough when the situation warrants.

His career has taught him the benefits of being environmentally responsible and to not get caught up in the agendas of the radical fringe. He understands the needs of both the environmental community, the commercial fishing industry and he is an avid sportsman and fisherman in his own right.

Pullen is just the sort of responsible and responsive public official we need more of in Coos County. Make the right choice. Keep radical agendas out of the Port of Bandon. Vote for Reg Pullen for Port of Bandon commissioner.

MarLo dances to the Beatles

MarLo Dance Studio offers a special Mother's Day weekend at the Sprague Theater with their musical dance production, "Dancin' the Beatles."

The MarLo cast of 100-plus performers will dance genres of tap, jazz, hip hop, ballroom, lyrical and ballet to a mix of original Beatles recordings and an eclectic mix of re-makes. The professionally staged MarLo production promises another spectacular, up, happy, fast-paced entertainment, according to owner and instructor Maria Merriam.

The show runs at 7 p.m. Friday, May 10 and Saturday, May 11, with two matinees at 2 and 4:30 p.m. Sunday, May 12.

Tickets are $10 for seniors and adults and $8 for children 12 and younger. Tickets are available at Bandon Mercantile and Hennick's Home Center or at the door. For information, call MarLo Dance Studio at 541-347-4616 or email www.marlodance.com.

Native plant sale

A wide variety of native flowers, trees and shrubs, including edibles, will be available for sale on Saturday, May 4, at the Old Town Marketplace on the waterfront in Bandon.

Bandon High School students and volunteers will sell plants, student art work and T-shirts on behalf of the Go Native project. All proceeds will be used to fund construction of a greenhouse on campus and an after-school program designed around the native nursery.

Bring in your own native plant for identification. Volunteers also can help decipher which invasive species is taking over your yard. The Good Earth Community Garden will be hosting a flower, herb and veggie sale as well that day at the Old Town Marketplace. Enhance your own habitat with edibles, flowering shrubs, trees or other natives. After the first summer these plants are low maintenance, not needing water or fertilizer.

Go Native combines project-based learning with conservation efforts in an innovative approach that becomes self-funded through plant sales by the fall of 2015. The program will work with Powers Native Species Center and the Coquille Watershed Association to identify native plants needed for large restoration or landscape projects. Go Native will grow large amounts by contract for those projects. It will also operate as a wholesale nursery to supply local and regional needs.

The Go Native Project needs to raise matching funds for a Wild Rivers Coastal Alliance grant of $30,000. Along with plants, original artwork from talented students will be sold as cards, prints and t-shirts. Donations will be gratefully accepted and can be mailed to Go Native project, Bandon School District, 450 Ninth St. S.W., Bandon.

Good Earth plant sale

The public is invited to a Garden Fair and Plant Sale hosted by the Good Earth Community Garden on Saturday, May 4, at the Old Town Marketplace on Bandon's waterfront.

All organic plant starts including veggies, herbs and flowers will be for sale. Also, an exciting array of native shrubs and trees for sale as a fundraiser for the Go Native project at Bandon High School.

There will be arts, crafts and service vendors present, as well as educational classes and demonstrations. Also, Master Food Preservers will attend all day, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Jennifer Ewing will teach a raised bed class and more.

The Good Earth Community Garden is a satellite garden of South Coast Community Garden Association. SSCGA was established as a non-profit in 2006. Their mission is to provide the guidelines and support for the establishment of community gardens on the southern coast of Oregon.

A large part of what the SCCGA community gardens do, including Bandon's Good Earth Garden, is to provide educational opportunities for the public regarding gardening knowledge and techniques.

In 2009, the Ford Institute Leadership Class envisioned and built a tool shed, the fence and compost bins as their class project.

There is a section of the community garden that will include only native species plants and will provide habitat for beneficial insects and birds.

Information on Good Earth Garden events and garden progress is available on Facebook and at www.bandongood-earth.org. For more information, contact Rushel Reed at 541-297-5806.

Democrats to host annual dinner

Join State Representative Caddy McKeown, State Senator Arnie Roblan and the Coos County Democrats for the Annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner beginning at 5 p.m. Saturday, May 4, at The Barn, 1200 11th St. S.W. in Bandon City Park.

Keynote speaker Felisa Hagins, Political Director for SEIU Local 49, will talk about "Rebuilding the Middle Class: How Labor and Communities Partner for Change."

Former State Senator Joanne Verger will present the J. Lawton Verger Democrat of the Year Award.

A no host bar, silent auction and first-ever live auction highlight the evening.

Tickets are $35 at the door and $30 in advance from Marino's Boots & Saddles in Coquille, Truffles in Bandon, Shark Bites in Coos Bay and Books by the Bay and Off the Record in North Bend. Or call to reserve advance tickets. For more information, call Mark McKelvey at 541-756-8898.

'Little Mermaid Junior' auditions

New Artists Productions will be conducting auditions for the Disney musical "Little Mermaid Junior" from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday, May 5, at The Barn/Community Center, 1200 11th St. S.W. in City Park. Auditions are open to youth ages 6 to 18.

"In the past we have cast everyone who auditioned for our plays. However, due to the structure of the script, the licensing agreement with Disney, and complexity of the sets, the cast size will be limited," said Anita Almich, who will co-direct the play with her husband Dan.

"We are looking for enthusiastic, energetic and excited vocalists and actors to play characters including Ariel, Sebastian, Mersisters, Prince Eric, Scuttle, Flounder, King Triton and Ursula. Additional cast will participate in choral groups or play sea creatures. There are specialty roles like Ursula's tentacles, the ship's crew, kitchen chefs, princesses, sea gulls, fishes and other parts to be filled. Everyone in the cast will participate in the Sea Chorus."

Those auditioning will be asked to sing excerpts from one or more of the songs listed: "Part of Your World," "Kiss the Girl," "Under the Sea" and "Poor Unfortunate Souls." Searching the Internet, especially YouTube or watching the Disney movie are recommended methods to become familiar with the songs. Lyric sheets will be available at the auditions for the vocalists to use.

In addition to vocal auditions, acting auditions will occur as dialogue between characters is critical to telling the story and transitioning between scenes. Only those new to the New Artists program will be asked to read lines.

Those who audition are asked to bring school, church, dance, extra-curricular schedules to help the Almichs better plan the rehearsal schedule. Show dates at the Sprague Theater are July 12 to 15 and July 19 to 21. Rehearsals will begin on Monday, May 13, at Ocean Crest Elementary School.

For those who cannot make the scheduled audition, please contact Anita Almich at 541-347-2517 prior to May 5 to make other arrangements.

Need a ride to RSVP gala?

Hospital open house is May 11

Southern Coos Hospital and Health Center will be launching National Hospital Week with an Open House. The public is invited and encouraged to come meet Charles Johnston, the new chief executive officer, and learn about all of the healthcare services available at the hospital in Bandon.

The Hospital Open House is set for Saturday, May 11, from 1-3:30 p.m. Tours of the facility, representatives from various hospital partners, refreshments and several quick health checks will be offered. More complete details will be available soon.

National Hospital Week is being celebrated May 12-18 with the theme "A Guiding Light for Changing Times." Bandon Mayor Mary Schamehorn will be proclaiming those dates as National Hospital Week in Bandon. The hospital staff will be treated to a barbecue May 15.

"National Hospital Week is a celebration of people," Johnston said. "We're extremely proud of each member of our staff and we recognize the important role they play in extending a sense of trust to our patients and our community. These are exciting times for Southern Coos Hospital as we work together to chart the future of our community hospital, a most valuable resource. Few towns of this size still have their own hospital. We are intent on making ours the very best possible."

Presidio Brass final Showcase

For the final show of its 2012-13 season, Bandon Showcase will present Presidio Brass at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 18, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. S.W. in City Park.

Hailing from San Diego, Presidio Brass is a dynamic force in American brass chamber music, according to a press release. With a unique and exciting repertoire written specifically for the ensemble, Presidio Brass is committed to providing engaging musical programs as well as developing close ties to their audiences. They have presented concerts and educational outreach programs throughout the United States.

The ensemble first came together with the primary mission to promote music education and appreciation in the next generation. That commitment continues to be exhibited each time Presidio Brass goes out on tour: Every performance is coupled with a master class or school program for which the members of the quintet volunteer their time.

Presidio Brass will work with students from Bandon High School, Marshfield High School and Harbor Lights Middle School, who will join them on stage for the evening gala performance. The Presidio Brass performance is "Sounds of the Cinema," a show that brings together some of the finest classical music used in films as well as the most popular original music written specifically for the movies.

"The highlight of the concert will come when local students take the stage with Presidio Brass," said a Showcase spokeswoman. "Playing a side-by-side performance with a professional ensemble of this caliber, creates a memorable experience for all and brings community attention to music education."

"It's an incredible pleasure to work with and perform for schools all over the country," said TJ Tesh, trumpet player for Presidio Brass. "Having the chance to inspire a young mind or to encourage a young musician to work hard and chase their dreams is as good as it gets."

Tickets cost $25 each and can be purchased at Bandon Mercantile, at the door or by calling 541-347-SHOW.

For more information on the Bandon Showcase visit <http://www.bandon-showcase.org/>. For more information about Presidio Brass, visit <http://www.presidiobrass.com>.

Theater workshop set for May 18

Community Theatre Boot Camp, a one-day interactive seminar led by Bandon resident Mike Dempsey, will be held on Saturday, May 18.

Novices and veterans will receive in-depth training in auditioning, stage direction, terminology, cold readings, selecting an agent and other theater tips.

The Boot Camp costs $75 per person and runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Bandon First Presbyterian Church, 592 Edison Ave. S.W. Water, coffee, tea and snacks will be provided, but those attending are asked to bring a brown-bag lunch.

Dempsey is a member of the Screen Actors Guild, Actors Equity Association and Oregon Media Production Assn. He has performed in Chicago, San Diego, Los Angeles and Bandon. Dempsey has directed several productions at the Sprague, including "The Boys Next Door" and "The Rainmaker." Dempsey also has had several plays he penned produced in San Diego and Los Angeles. He has trained local teens with summer courses in improvisation and theater classics.

Class size is limited and for ages 15 and older. For more information or to register, contact Michele at winchell@mycomspan.com.

May library art

The May show at the Bandon Public Library will feature Dan and Anita Almich with "The World in Photography" in the Gallery and "Telling Stories with Collage," the artwork of Donna Cox, Susan Lehman and dorothea tortilla in the display cases. The library is located at 1204 11th St. S.W. in City Park and the show will run through May 31.

Mixed media artists Donna Cox, dorothea tortilla and Susan Lehman's show will feature altered books, collaged three-dimensional objects and artist-made books. Their exhibition includes a collaged world globe, a collaged printer's drawer, altered children's board books, fabric books, tag books and books created from small hinged canvasses, as well as other creations that evoke stories.

Because these artists work intuitively — using various materials such as yarn, fabric, repurposed paper and found objects — stories and relationships just seem to emerge from their finished pieces. Often humorous and tongue-in-cheek plays on words or images result. Poetry, both visual and traditional, is often expressed.

All three artists reside in Bandon and have actively been a part of the arts community, involved in showing their three distinctive styles at local venues; dorothea tortilla's collages and hand-made books have appeared in several national magazines and books. She has taught art in Bandon for 10 years and offers various classes at her "studio t." Donna Cox is a collage artist and photographer and has shown altered photographic art extensively. You can see Susan Lehman's large scale acrylic collages regularly at Second Street Gallery in Old Town, Bandon. Many of the collaged items in this display are for sale through the artists but some are from private collections, borrowed for the exhibition.

Art opening in Coquille Sunday

"Cries From the Cage," an art show arranged by Nella and Steve Abbott, will open Sunday, May 5, at the former City Hall in Coquille, with an opening reception from 2 to 5 p.m. The public is welcome.

The Abbotts have purchased the former City Hall in Coquille and have transformed the old jail cell in the basement of the building into an art gallery where they will be showing works by three prisoners whose work was discovered in the prison art shows at the Coos Art Museum, Southern Coos Hospital and Sage Gallery in Bandon, as well as in the Time exhibit, which traveled around the state.

For more information, contact Nella or Steve at 541-824-0777.

Mildred Hill series continues

The 2013 Mildred Hill Concert season brings an international array of musical artists presenting classical, folk, choral and jazz in Port Orford's Zion Lutheran Church, 2015 Washington St.

At 7 p.m. Thursday, May 9, presenting church music of the Russian Orthodox Church and folk songs from Russia, the vocal ensemble, Lyra of St. Petersburg, Russia, adds Port Orford to their many appearances in the United States including Washington, D.C., Knoxville, Tennessee and Bellingham, Washington. An a cappella group, Lyra has been lauded by critics for outstandingly clear harmonics in their orthodox selections, and for the jolly exuberance of their folk music presented in costume.

Tickets cost $10 can be purchased at McNair Hardware or by check made payable to Mildred Hill Concerts, P.O. Box 797, Port Orford, OR 97465.

Those under 18 are admitted free as part of the Mildred Hill Concerts' mission of bringing live music to young people on the South Coast. For additional information, call 541-332-9002.

Community

Day of Prayer on Thursday

The Bandon Ministerial Association invites the community to join in prayer at the flagpole in front City Hall at 12:10 to 12:30 on Thursday, May 2.

In 1775 the Continental Congress allocated a time for prayer in forming a new nation. Over the years, there have been calls for a day of prayer, including from President Abraham Lincoln in 1863.

This year's theme, Pray for America, is based on Matthew 12:21: "In His name the nations will put their hope."

Drug testing forum is set for Thursday

Bandon High School will host a public forum at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 2, in the high school gym to discuss a possible drug testing program for high school athletes.

The proposed policy is available for people to review on the district website, www.bandon.k12.or.us.

The proposal includes testing all participants in all Oregon School Activities Association-sanctioned sports and activities, including band, choir, speech and dance.

A survey will be available online following the forum that can be filled out through May 5.

The school district's drug testing policy committee will present its findings to the school board at its May 13 meeting.

Take me back to dear old Bandon

Port seeks items for time capsule

The Port of Bandon is accepting items to put in the 100-year time capsule it plans to bury on Saturday, Sept. 14, as part of its centennial celebration.

Submissions will be accepted through July 31 and the container will be buried near the port offices in the historic Coquille River Lifesaving Station, 390 First Street S.W.

A reception for the public, port friends and partners is being planned to coincide with the interment of the stainless steel capsule, which has a capacity of about 2 cubic feet.

Gina Dearth, port general manager, explained that before the box is welded shut, it will be purged with dry argon gas to help prevent oxidation or acidic reaction within the contents.

"We're told this is a specialized process that's used in the food, chemical, cryogenic and pharmaceutical industries," she said.

Public submissions, which must be limited in size due to the container's capacity, should be intended to inform people in 2113 about Bandon's culture in 2013.

"Or it could be advice or a small heirloom that you wish you could give to your great-great-grandchildren," Dearth said. "We encourage photographs or other paper items, like poems or drawings."

An engraved brass plaque with the port's name, date of burying and opening instructions will be affixed to the capsule, which will be registered with the International Time Capsule Society at Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, Ga. It is to be opened on Sept. 14, 2113.

"Use your imagination in deciding what to submit, and please join us and enjoy cake and help us celebrate the port's centennial on Sept. 14," Dearth added.

kind of infraction will result in prison time.

Her lawyer, Allen Goldman, explained to her, "You can't have any screw-ups on this."

Goldman said the victim was tall, well-built and socially adept for his age. His client suffered a lapse in judgment and gave in to temptation.

"The boundaries she had originally set broke down on these two occasions," Goldman said.

Moniz wept in court Monday as she awaited her turn before Judge Michael J. Gillespie. Standing before the judge, she held a tissue and barely kept her composure.

"Have a seat," Gillespie said. "It looks like you're working some things out."

Asked if she had anything to say, Moniz gave a cryptic response: "The only thing I have to say is that I forgive the family, and I know that doesn't make any sense, but it does to them."

and it's definitely something they'll want to expand on in the future."

Miller said at least one visitor went to the owner's shop after visiting a booth at the fair.

"The fact that some people came and then went and shopped in that business is proof this was successful," she added.

Businesses ranged from restaurants, photographers, vacation rentals, retail stores, a golf course and others.

"I thought the event was great and was good for businesses," said Angie Gonzales-Smith, who manages the Windemere on the Beach motel with her husband Leigh. "It was good to talk to people about your business and also to talk to other businesses about how we can help each other."

Jessica Brink, owner of the Toy Room in Old Town, agreed.

"I wasn't sure what to expect but I thought it went really well and I was happy with the turnout. A lot of people came out, both other businesses and the community."

Miller said the success of the event was inspiring and the chamber will definitely host it again next year.

pus, and three men fled on foot.

Coos Bay police and Curry County Deputy Rod McCallister arrested Reid and Schlitz a few miles from the crash site.

Police allege that Schlitz, Reid and the unknown third suspect stole a car in California and made their way up the coast on U.S. Highway 101, burglarizing various businesses along the way, including a Shell gas station in Smith River, Calif., and a 76 gas station in Gold Beach before the Langlois Market burglary.

Schlitz was transported to the Coos County jail and Reid was taken to the Curry County facility.

McCallister retrieved video evidence of the Langlois burglary. The Curry County Sheriff's Office is continuing the investigation and information will be filed with the county DA for prosecution.

Beloved 'Pastor John' honored

During Sunday morning worship on April 21, retired pastor, the Rev. John W. Hubbard, was honored by the session and congregation of First Presbyterian Church Bandon by being named Pastor Emeritus.

Hubbard is the first minister so designated by the Bandon church in its 123 years of Presbyterian witness. This special recognition is reserved for pastors who have made an extraordinary impact upon the life and ministry of a particular congregation, for whom "the congregation is moved by affection and gratitude to continue an association in an honorary relationship." The action was further approved by the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of the Cascades, the church's regional judicatory.

Hubbard is well known and appreciated in Bandon and the Coos Bay area far beyond the membership of First Presbyterian Church, according to the church's current pastor, the Rev. Bobbi Neason. As the table decorations at the celebratory coffee hour indicated, Hubbard is beloved as "student, pastor, husband, father, actor (and singer!), treasurer, and Pastor Emeritus."

Hubbard has been an active participant and volunteer with nearly every service organization in Bandon, being particularly instrumental in the work of the Bandon Lions Club, Good Neighbors, South Coast Hospice, the Bandon Ministerial Association, the Sprague Theater and Bandon Playhouse. He has sung in nearly every community choir effort, as well as innumerable local theater productions and the local chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society – the Gold Coast Chorus – over his 23 years in Bandon. His warm personality and booming bass voice are recognized far beyond the reach of the Presbyterian congregation.

Hubbard and his late wife Cheron were called to serve First Presbyterian in Bandon in February 1991 and his tenure lasted until his retirement in August 2005. His 14 1/2 years of faithful service are twice the length of the other called pastors of this congregation.

"His caring pastoral presence and grounded leadership carried this small group from being a 'mission church' dependent upon the assistance of the larger presbytery, to its present status as a healthy, active leader among south coast Presbyterians," Neason said.

"I am so very appreciative of John's firm friendship and gentle mentoring. He has never stopped serving this congregation, and we are all grateful," Neason added.

The Rev. Dr. Hugh Anderson, co-executive Presbyter, represented Cascades Presbytery at the celebration, adding, "John has not only served the Bandon congregation faithfully and well, but has freely given his time and special talents in the service of the larger church through the work of the presbytery."

The bestowing of Pastor Emeritus was a well-guarded secret and a great surprise to Hubbard. His wife Kathy Coombe Hubbard (to whom he was married during last summer's annual outdoor worship service and picnic) was instrumental in laying the necessary plans. His son Michael participated in the service, representing his three siblings who were unable to attend. Hubbard's sister and brother-in-law Helene and Bob Gough were also present, another wonderful surprise for him, since they reside in Salem.

Following the official presentation during worship, Hubbard was feted at a special coffee hour with a themed cake and decorations, and plenty of time for greeting guests and friends.

Community forum series continues

The Greater Bandon Association continues its Community Forums and Summits at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 14, at The Barn, 1200 11th St. S.W.

The GBA Forum and Summit Series, "Communication, Cooperation, Collaboration" is intended to inform and involve all of Bandon's stakeholders in community dialogues to bring together resources and discuss how the community can work together to accomplish what is important to residents.

This 90-minute session will continue the exploring the three topics identified for the first forum, according to Harv Schubothe, GBA president.

"At that session, we explored whether there was a better way to communicate about planned events in Bandon," Schubothe said. "This time we explore whether we can find a mechanism that more efficiently solicits funds for various causes that can replace the constant and never-ending pleas for cash and merchandise that Bandon business must deal with almost weekly."

Schubothe said if time permits, the discussion also will include ways to get involvement from all groups in the community on events and festivals that benefit the entire community, rather than placing the burden on a single nonprofit group, service club or the business community.

Greater Bandon Association's mission is the community revitalization of the greater Bandon area with a focus on historic preservation. The association believes the best way to realize positive social, economic and environmental outcomes is to engage all Bandon citizens and groups in community vitality efforts.

GBA is extending this public invitation to its series to provide residents with a chance to meet new people and feel more connected. It is a chance to get more informed about what's going on in Bandon, Schubothe said. Participants can learn about other resources and opportunities to make a difference. It is still another opportunity to participate in positive community action.

For more information on the series, call Schubothe at 541-297-2342 or Peter Braun at 503-887-7373.

Glide slips by Tigers

By John Gunther
Bandon Western World

BANDON — Bandon's baseball team nearly beat top-ranked Glide in the first showdown for the rivals on Tuesday, falling to the visiting Wildcats 3-2.

Bandon Coach Tyler Pendergast looked at the game from a glass half full perspective.

"We competed with a team that is going to be a state championship contender," he said.

At the same time, the result easily could have been different.

"It was an opportunity to get one at home and then try to get one at their place (and win the league title)," Pendergast said. "We kind of squandered that opportunity."

Glide scored its first two runs on a bad pickoff throw and an overthrow of third base on a stolen attempt by the Wildcats.

The winning run came in the seventh inning when Tylan DuBois hit a triple and scored on a sacrifice fly by Tanner Shaddy.

The game was billed a showdown between aces Mychal Yarbor and Glide's Brandon Halter. The two pitchers combined to strike out 27 hitters. Yarbor had 13 strikeouts and allowed just two hits, but the Tigers made four errors.

Bandon, meanwhile, had just three hits off Halter — two by Yarbor.

"Yarbor was spot on," Pendergast said. "Their kid, Halter, was doing his thing."

Bandon let a lot of good pitches go by early in the count against Halter, he said.

"We've got to change our outlook at the plate a little bit," Pendergast said.

Yarbor scored the first run after a single in the third inning, eventually coming home on a grounder by Robert Martino.

Quentin Coomer scored the other run in the fourth, when he reached base on an error and later scored on a passed ball that would have been a strikeout to end the inning.

Yarbor said the game was a good learning experience.

"I think we could have won that game," he said. "Two bad throws on our part."

"We've got to play 100-percent focused."

The teams meet again to close the regular season May 17, but until then Bandon (now 12-3 on the season) will try to keep winning, starting with a doubleheader at Gold Beach on Friday, to keep its power ranking high in the hopes of getting a home playoff game.

Bandon reaches playoffs

By John Gunther
Bandon Western World

BANDON — When it mattered most Friday, Bandon's softball team came through.

The Tigers swept a doubleheader from rival Coquille and clinched a spot in the Class 3A playoffs in the process.

"We did what we had to do," said senior pitcher Amy Schoonmaker. "We gave it our all."

The Tigers won the opener 8-6, building an early 7-2 lead and holding on. Cheyenne Young scored four runs and Schoonmaker and Hailey Iverson both hit doubles.

Bandon also capitalized on eight walks and two hit batters by the Red Devils.

In the nightcap, Bandon went in front 7-2 and then fought off a comeback by the Red Devils, ultimately in the sixth inning when Young, Schoonmaker, Iverson and Savannah Williams hit consecutive singles with two outs in the Tigers' 11-9 win.

Schoonmaker had three hits, including a triple, and scored three runs in the second game. Iverson also had three hits and scored two runs and drove in three. Young scored two more runs.

Raelyn Freitag added an insurance run by clubbing a triple in the seventh inning and later scoring on a grounder.

"That was outstanding," said Bandon coach Rick Hinojosa. "What a battle — back and forth."

team player of the game. This one it was every one of them. We couldn't single one out. It was amazing."

Schoonmaker did her part, only walking two batters during the doubleheader.

"I'm pretty confident in my infield," she said. "My job is to let them hit it."

Bandon turned nearly every Coquille ground ball into a routine out with Iverson at third base, Freitag at shortstop and Young at second base all getting the ball to AnnMarie Pickett at first base.

The hitting and defense led to the sweep.

The Tigers couldn't carry that momentum over to Tuesday's game against Glide. The Wildcats jumped on the Tigers for a 25-2 win in five innings.

Bandon's only hits were by Schoonmaker and Iverson, while Glide got home runs by Jordyn Parazoo and Amanda Hatley.

The Tigers get two more shots at Glide at the end of the regular season, but would need to sweep the Wildcats to earn the league's top seed for the playoffs. The good news is Bandon is in the playoffs no matter what happens, a first for the current Tigers.

"I'm so excited," said Schoonmaker.

Golfers prep for district tourneys

Bandon Western World

Bandon's golf teams are going through their final preparations for next week's district tournaments, when they will take their shot at qualifying for state.

The girls play Monday and Tuesday at Bandon Crossings and the boys play the same two days at Springfield Country Club. The teams have to finish in the top two to advance to state. The top five individuals also qualify.

The girls tuned up for the tournament by placing fourth in an event at Bandon Crossings on Tuesday. Nina Pelayo and Grace McMahon each shot 118 for Bandon, while Michelle Whitney shot 119 and Liza Skeie 123.

The Tigers scored 478, finishing behind league teams Gold Beach (452) and Sutherlin (477), as well as Class 5A Marshfield, which won the tournament with a score of 426. League favorite Reedsport and star Monica Vaughn were not at the tournament, but will be at the district event.

"I believe the girls are ready if they just play their own game," said coach Chris Schneider. "The girls have improved since the first tournament. They are gaining confidence and learning to trust their own swings."

Bandon's boys, meanwhile, were seventh in a tournament at Tokatee on Tuesday with a score of 388, finishing behind league foes Reedsport (357), Oakridge (370) and Gold Beach (376) as well as tournament champion Westside Christian 326.

Braden Fugate led the Tigers with a 90 and Ethan Wickstrom had a 94. Tyler Wiprud was at 102, Shelby Banister at 102 and Logan Shea at 106.

Troy McClurg, who didn't count in the team score, shot a 92.

Angove wins at major meet

Bandon senior Justin Angove added to his impressive season by winning the 300-meter hurdles against an elite field in the Centennial Invitational at Gresham on Saturday.

He had a best time for the day of 39.33 seconds in the prelims.

Angove also broke 40 seconds while winning the race both Friday at the Central Coast Invitational in Florence and again Tuesday while winning the Bandon Invitational. He now has the eight fastest times this year for Class 3A.

Recently stocked lakes giving up plenty of trout

Local lakes: Anglers fishing Bradley Lake reported great rainbow trout fishing last week. ODFW finished its spring stocking of Bradley Lake this week with 3,000 more legal-size trout. Anglers fishing from the boat launch pier are having better success in the morning and early evening. The trout are still taking a variety of baits fished under a bobber or off the bottom. Casting spinners or small spoons have also been very successful.

Recently stocked Floras, Empire and Tenmile Lakes should give South Coast anglers plenty of opportunities this coming weekend. Lake temperatures are starting to warm up a bit, which is good news for anglers looking to hook into a largemouth bass. Recent reports suggest a very slow retrieve when fishing plugs or tossing plastic worms.

Local rivers: Anglers fishing the lower Rogue River for spring salmon are seeing lots of fish movement, but with the low and clear river conditions getting them to bite has been tough.

Conditions have been similar for anglers springer fishing the Umpqua, along with a constant flow of moss. Local guide Bob Cobb told me one of his clients hooked and landed a spring salmon on 6-pound line while drifting and casting plugs for smallmouth bass. Anglers are also catching a few shad on the Umpqua from Sawyer Rapids near Elkton upriver to Yellow Creek. Look for shad fishing to heat up with another high pressure in our area and plenty of sunshine forecast this weekend.

Pacific Ocean and beaches: Fishing for pink fin surf perch is starting to pick up on the beaches near Bandon. One angler caught some decent size fish south of the jetty close to the shore rocks. A series of early morning high tides this weekend will give anglers a chance to fish the beach before the winds pick up.

Don't forget to sign up for the May Surf Perch Derby before your next trip to the beach. The derby started yesterday and will run until the end of May.

Decent ocean conditions had anglers back out bottomfishing last weekend. Ling cod fishing has remained awesome, and a better grade of rockfish were taken as well.

We did not receive many reports of Chinook salmon taken last weekend. Ocean temperatures dropped from 52 to 48 degrees which could have put the salmon off the bite.

The 2013 ocean sport salmon seasons have been established for Oregon and can be found online or stop by Port O'Call in Old Town and we will be happy to give you a copy.

Today is the opening day for the 2013 nearshore halibut season.

The season will run every Thursday, Friday and Saturday through October 31 or when the quota of 23,038 pounds has been met. Next Thursday, May 9, starts the spring all depth halibut season.

Area shellfish: Some nice hard shelled Dungeness crab come off of Weber's Pier in Bandon last weekend. We are starting to see a lot of large female crab moving into the bay which is typical every spring. Crabbers willing to sort through the smaller crab and females are being rewarded with a few nice keeper-size crab.

Razor clam diggers reported good clamming off of Whiskey Run Beach last weekend. Look for another minus tide series to start next Tuesday. Local angler education instructor Jay Chojnacki will host a class of surf perch fishing tonight at the Port of Bandon's picnic shelter from 6-8 p.m.

Note: ODFW is holding a public meeting this Saturday, May 4 at 6 p.m. at the Millicoma School gym, 260 2nd Ave., Coos Bay. There are major fishing reductions proposed for the Elk Coos, Coquille and Umpqua rivers. All South Coast anglers interested in how these reduction can affect our sport should attend.
