Spring Fling will benefit Bandon pool effort

BANDON – The community has an opportunity to support the Bandon Swimming Pool program and enjoy an evening that includes a great meal, interesting silent auction items to bid on, and a night of special entertainment with its first Spring Fling on Saturday, March 19, at the Bandon Community Center, 1200 11th St. SW. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., with dinner at 6:30.

Chef Bob Simm will prepare an Italian meal. Harry Staven, finance director with the City of Bandon, will be the master of ceremonies. In addition to special humorous entertainment hosted by Paul Fisher, musical entertainment will be provided during the dinner by popular local musicians Lisa Jarvis, Crystal Landucci and friends.

Information on how to get an indoor pool built for the South Coast, for use by people of all ages, is the focus of the evening. Tickets cost $30 per person and are available from Ace Hardware, Bandon Mercantile, the Cobbler's Bench, Tim & Evy's Salon, B&B Farm Supply in Langlois, Langlois Market and in Port Orford from TJ's Cafe, or from pool board members.

"This is an important year for the pool," said pool board president Myra Lawson. "Grant organizations will be judging value to the community by the number pool supporters and by the amount of financial contributions when they consider our requests. The pool won't get built without grants, so get behind the effort and help get the pool built."

Those who wish to donate, volunteer, or who want more information can visit Bandon Pool on Facebook, www.bandon-pool.com, or call 541-347-2534.

March library art show features DeSalvatore, Ujhazi

BANDON – The Bandon Public Library March art show features Susan DeSalvatore's fiber art and Jane Ujhazi's stone necklaces.

With her hand-constructed fiber art, and using screen-printing, dyeing, painting, and burning, and design elements such as beads and colorful shredded cloth, DeSalvatore explores themes of grief, grace, mercy and the phases of life common to all. She incorporates language into some of the pieces, both single words and poems, and uses printed photographs to make a complex canvas on which to express her ideas and reveal layers of meaning.

Other pieces are collages made of torn bits of thread and cloth - abstract works that are brilliant celebrations of pure color and texture.

Jane Ujhazi's natural stone necklaces of silver, amber, turquoise and other semi-precious stones are contemporary, but happily acknowledge the past.

A collector of antique and tribal beads from around the world, Ujhazi is inspired by the long tradition of human self-decoration, and evokes many different periods and lands with her designs.

The show runs through March 30.

Coloring for Adults' set for March 12

BANDON – The Bandon Public Library presents "Coloring for Adults," a wonderful program of relaxation, coloring, creativity, tea, cookies and friendship for adults of all ages. The event will be held from 1-3 p.m. Saturday, March 12, at the library, 1204 11th St. SW. Crayons, felt pens, colored pencils and color sheets will be provided.

This program will continue the second Saturday of each month with the next being April 9.

Curry County adopts mass notification system

CURRY COUNTY – As of March 1, Curry County and the city of Brookings are providing a new Mass Notification System to the citizens of Curry County.

This system, powered by EverBridge and nicknamed "Curry Alert," will provide Notifications to the citizens via regular telephone, VOIP (Internet) telephone, cell phone, email and text features.

Alerts to citizens via this source will be emergency or of significant information only, according to Don Kendall, Curry County emergency services coordinator.

The white and yellow telephone book pages have already been programmed into the system. Citizens and others can "opt-in" or subscribe themselves if their normal phone was not included in these pages, or the communication device of their choice was not included.

To "opt-in," go to the Curry County Oregon web page (<http://www.co.curry.or.us>), scroll to the bottom of the front page and click on the "Curry Alert" button to create your own account and add your contact and location information into the system. If you need more information before subscribing, read the sign up, overview, and FAQ's at the top of this page. The city of Brookings will soon provide an "opt-in" source also (<http://www.brookings.or.us/>).

You can stop receiving the alerts at any time by removing your contact information from your profile. All information you provide will be kept strictly confidential. "Remember ... If we can't reach you, we can't alert you," Kendall said.

Publisher reserves the right to refuse or edit any advertisement. All advertising must be in accordance with Oregon laws and in good taste. SOPC reserves the right to reject advertising at its discretion. All unclassified ads are cash with copy. Credit and billing are available to commercial accounts with established credit. If your ad appears incorrectly, notify us immediately. We will not be responsible for errors after the first publication. Deadlines: Tuesday – Friday 11:30am the previous day. For Saturday, 10:00am on Friday and Monday 11:30am on Friday. There is a $1 non-optional charge for publication on mobile devices.

Spring Fling will benefit Bandon pool effort

BANDON – The community has an opportunity to support the Bandon Swimming Pool program and enjoy an evening that includes a great meal, interesting silent auction items to bid on, and a night of special entertainment with its first Spring Fling on Saturday, March 19, at the Bandon Community Center, 1200 11th St. SW. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., with dinner at 6:30.

Chef Bob Simm will prepare an Italian meal. Harry Staven, finance director with the City of Bandon, will be the master of ceremonies. In addition to special humorous entertainment hosted by Paul Fisher, musical entertainment will be provided during the dinner by popular local musicians Lisa Jarvis, Crystal Landucci and friends.

Information on how to get an indoor pool built for the South Coast, for use by people of all ages, is the focus of the evening. Tickets cost $30 per person and are available from Ace Hardware, Bandon Mercantile, the Cobbler’s Bench, Tim & Evy’s Salon, B&B Farm Supply in Langlois, Langlois Market and in Port Orford from TJ’s Cafe, or from pool board members.

“This is an important year for the pool,” said pool board president Myra Lawson. “Grant organizations will be judging value to the community by the number pool supporters and by the amount of financial contributions when they consider our requests. The pool won’t get built without grants, so get behind the effort and help get the pool built.”

Those who wish to donate, volunteer, or who want more information can visit Bandon Pool on Facebook, www.bandon-pool.com, or call 541-347-2534.
