Did you know?

Did you know that dental implants can help to strengthen bone and to save your existing teeth?

It's true! Dental implants exercise and strengthen bone which resorbs when teeth are lost. They also help distribute chewing forces, which reduces stress on existing teeth, and helps prevent damage to good teeth.

We've come a long way!

With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! We're here to help!

Brews & Giggles returns to the Egyptian

COOS BAY – Brews & Giggles - Beer & Comedy for a Cure, returns to the Egyptian Theatre Saturday, April 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Beer and wine, sponsored by 7 Devils Brewing Co. and Giddings Boatworks, will be available to purchase for those who are 21 and older with valid identification. Material at the event is suitable for those who are 18 and older. Admission is $15 but a limited number of VIP passes are available for $25. A VIP pass will give front row seating and access to the front of the beer and wine line.

All proceeds raised at this event will go to American Cancer Society's Relay For Life of Coos County.

Opening acts will include Melody Dodd, Mary Miller and Cress Bates. Headliners will include Alex Elkin and Susan Rice. There will be prize drawings and a live auction with a large selection of potential Mother's Day gifts.

Additionally, Benetti's Italian Restaurant has generously offered to donate 10 percent of the evenings sales to this event. They are directly across the street and will open at 4 p.m. so make your reservations soon and plan to eat before the show.

Brews & Giggles is a personal fundraiser organized by Grant Crim for the American Cancer Society through his Relay For Life of Coos County team, Ohana's Hope. If you would like to donate to the effort but can't make the event, you can do so here: <http://main.acsevents.org/goto/ohanas-hope>.

Help with self-sufficiency programs offered in Langlois

LANGLOIS – Ginger Pearson from Coast Community Health Center will be at the Langlois Public Library from 3-6 p.m. Wednesday, April 20. She will be introducing individuals in Curry County to self-sufficiency programs. These programs include such things as OHP, energy assistance applications, vaccination information, food stamps, food bank, help for the homeless, rental information, weatherization programs, etc.

Pearson will be at the Langlois Library on a regular basis in April, on the third Wednesday of the month from 3-6 p.m. For information call Karen Schaefer at the Langlois Public Library, 541-348-2066.

Plenty to do at Celtic Fest

COOS BAY – The sixth South Coast Celtic Fest will fill the Hales Center for the Performing Arts at Southwestern Oregon Community College Saturday, May 7, with culture and fun from the Celtic nations.

This year's festival features The Fire Inside, a Celtic band from the Seattle Area, and Two Rivers Morris, a group from Eugene that performs Morris dancing, a lively traditional dance form from the British Isles.

Starting at 10 a.m. there'll be 19 hands-on workshops in music, crafts and history. Try Scottish dancing, learn to play the bodhran or write your own pub song. Make a bracelet or learn how to travel off the beaten path in Ireland and Scotland. Kids can listen to stories, learn a dance, make a drum or bring their violin and learn Irish fiddling.

The evening concert at 7 p.m. will feature a grand entry by the Oregon Coast Pipe and Drum Band, followed by lively dancing by Two Rivers Morris, singing with Bill Mrkvicka and then the hot Irish and Scottish sounds of The Fire Inside. There'll also be free Celtic music all day, plus a jam session for all comers at 5 p.m. Vendors and a Celtic buffet dinner will round out the experience.

An all-workshops pass is $15 for adults and $5 for children, and tickets to the evening concert are $20. The Celtic Fest is a benefit for the South Coast Folk Society, Coastal Celtic Society and Soroptimist International of the Coos Bay Area. For complete workshop descriptions and ticket info, visit <http://southcoastfolksociety.wordpress.co>, find South Coast Celtic Fest on Facebook, or call 541-808-1773. Southwestern Oregon Community College is at 1988 Newmark Ave. in Coos Bay.

Bandon Business Fair set for April 28 at The Barn

BANDON – The Bandon Chamber of Commerce presents its third annual Bandon Business Fair from 1-7 p.m. Thursday, April 28, at the Bandon Community Center/The Barn, 1200 11th St. SW.

The Bandon Business Fair is an opportunity for the community to get more acquainted with Bandon-based businesses that will show off their new products in anticipation of the 2016 tourism season. This free event is open to the public.

Visitors who sign in are eligible for a door prize. Random prize drawings take place throughout the event.

Tables are still available for Bandon businesses. Business booths are $25 for Chamber members.

Space is limited. Contact the Visitor Center for a registration form, 541-347-9616.

The Bandon Business Fair is supported by premiere sponsor Bank of Cascades, which recently opened a branch in Bandon.

Bash for Cash features western theme

BANDON – Everyone is invited to join in the fun at this year's annual Bash for Cash, "The Wild West: Boots, Craps and Cowboy Hats," set for Saturday, April 30, at The Barn, 1200 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m. and dinner starts at 6:30, featuring Pete's Famous BBQ serving chicken and tri-tip, with delicious sides provided by Billy Smoothboar's, Edgewater's and Lord Bennett's, desserts created by Sharon Haga, and a no-host bar.

Activities include silent and live auctions, blackjack and craps with "funny money" winnings, games, raffles and door prizes.

Tickets cost $25 each and are available at Banner Bank, Mick's Barbershop or at the door. All proceeds benefit Bandon Project Graduation, which has provided a safe and sober graduation celebration for Bandon High School seniors for more than 30 years.

For more information or to donate auction items, call 541-347-1302.

Annual Homemaker's Holiday is April 29

COOS BAY – “April Showers Bring May Flowers” is the theme of the 2016 Homemaker's Holiday, an annual event hosted by the Coos County Family and Community Educators and the OSU Coos County Extension Service.

Carl Bender, longtime owner of 3B's Nursery, will be the keynote speaker. Carl will share gardening tips gained from years in the profession and take questions as well. Entertainment will be provided by Sea Breeze Harmony Chorus, a performing women's chorus singing a capella, four-part harmony in the barbershop style.

Attendees will have a selection of four enjoyable as well as educational classes to attend: “Make Your Own Seed Tape:” learn the benefits of planting with seed tape while making a seed tape to take home; “Create a Multi-season Wreath:” this wreath-making demonstration will show how to make a basic wreath that can be changed to reflect the changing seasons; “Who Was Claude Monet?” explore the beautiful world of Claude Monet with our instructor who has recently returned from a trip to Paris; and “What the Heck Are Worm Castings and Why Should You Care?” learn about the amazing benefits of using worm castings in your garden and how to construct your own worm bed.

guests will have the opportunity to shop the plant sale and/or purchase drawing tickets for a variety of lovely gift baskets. A continental breakfast and sandwich and salad luncheon are included in the ticket price.

The event will be held Friday, April 29, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, 1290 Thompson Road in Coos Bay. Tickets can be purchased in advance from any FCE member for $8, or at the door for $10.

For more information, call the Coos County Extension Service at 541-572-5263, ext. 25292 or 25299.
