SEA's training for volunteers May 17-18

Shoreline Education for Awareness invites the public to join their annual volunteer training sessions May 17 and 18 from 9am to 4pm at the Bandon Community Center. Volunteers will learn about SEA and interesting information about our marine environment and the wildlife which thrives here. Topics to be covered include the history of SEA, what it means to be a volunteer wildlife interpreter and friend of USF&W, birding, tide pooling, oceanography and marine mammals. Doors will open at 8:30 both days and light snacks and coffee/tea will be available. It is advised to bring your own brown bag lunch. This training is mandatory for those who intend to volunteer as wildlife interpreters during the summer. The training will allow volunteers to provide visitors with interesting facts on marine birds and mammals and their habitat which they will see through the SEA spotting scopes at Face Rock Wayside, Coquille Point and Simpson Reef. # Sunset Garden Club to hold plant sale

PORT ORFORD – The Sunset Garden Club of Port Orford will hold their annual plant sale from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, May 13, at the Port Orford Community Center on East 11th Street.

Gardening experts Kirk Johnson and Jennifer Ewing will be on hand to answer any questions about gardening problems or what plants will do well in the coastal climate.

There will be vegetable starts, herb plants, flower seedings and seeds, houseplants and succulents. Many local merchants have contributed tools and gift certificates for the raffle.

"This is your opportunity to buy plants that have been raised in our local climate and will not be shocked by the cool weather when they go into the ground," said an organizer. "You will be pleased with the selection of plants and the information available."

Call to artists for Boardwalk Art Show

BANDON – Artists are invited to submit work for “Blossoms, Butterflies and Bees,” the 2017 Port of Bandon Boardwalk Art Show.

The annual show is an open air, public art display on the picturesque Bandon boardwalk. Submissions are accepted through May 19 at noon. Artwork will be displayed Memorial Day weekend through the second weekend in September.

Artists of all ages create original works on weather-proof boards. Acrylic or oil painting are the most common media, but past shows have featured photography, collage and three dimensional works. Art boards and entry forms are available in Bandon at the Port of Bandon office, 390 First St. SW; and Art by the Sea Gallery, 125 Chicago Ave.

SE. A $10 entry fee covers the cost of art boards and prizes. Scholarship boards are available: inquire at the Port of Bandon.

Now in its 15th year, the boardwalk art show features works by amateur and professional artists living throughout southwestern Oregon. Prizes are awarded in youth and adult categories, along with people’s choice winners. Winning and honored works are featured in an encore exhibition at the Bandon Professional Center.

The theme “Blossoms, Butterflies and Bees,” celebrates native plants and the pollinators that help them grow. Artists may explore all aspects of native plant pollination. Insect pollinators include bees, butterflies, moths, wasps, ants and beetles. Birds, mammals and reptiles can also be pollinators, such as hummingbirds, bats, mice and lizards. Even the wind is a pollinator.

The show is sponsored by the Port of Bandon with the Bandon Professional Center. Contact port staff for more information, 541-347-3206, or visit portofbandon.com.
