Did you know?

Did you know that hops, used in beer making, may be used to improve your dental health?

It's true! According to a recent study from Japan, parts of hops, used in the production of beer, may be beneficial to oral health. Hop bracts, which are usually discarded, contain substances that could be used to combat dental cavities and periodontal disease.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. We're here to help!

New Artists presents an Old West comedy opening March 28

“Wagon Wheels-a-Rollin’,” a rootin’ tootin’ comedy spoof of the Old West, presented by New Artists Productions, will take the Sprague Community Theater stage for a two-weekend run beginning March 28. The comedy, written by Tim Kelly, features 36 young actors from the New Artists program.

This fast-paced comedy is filled with a goofy stable of hilarious characters who not only tell the story, but also keep the audience in stitches, according to a press release. The trailblazin’ hero, the sweet heroine and the villainous crooked card dealer keep the audience riveted to the action.

A wagon train breaks down at Whistling Skull Rock, outside the tiny town of Vinegar Bottle (famed for its “I’m O.K. You’re O.K. Corral”). The wagon train promptly gets robbed by a mysterious outlaw and bandits.

Through a crazy twist in the plot, the hero is accused of being the offender. Proving his innocence isn’t easy — but it is a hoot!

A host of other characters add extra spice to this wild romp. Toss in an election for the town mayor, an old Spanish land grant and some Western entertainment, the evening at the theater will be full.

“Dan and I are having such a great time with this play — all of the kids are drawing from their natural abilities to develop new skills as they bring their characters to life,” said Anita Almich, who with her husband Dan founded New Artists Productions. “The audience will hear unique accents, see creative mannerisms and witness quick gun-fight action.”

Show dates are March 28, 29 and 30; and April 4, 5 and 6. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m.; Sunday matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets, priced at $10 adults, $8 seniors, $5 students (K-12), are available at Bandon True Value Hardware 541-347-2506, at the door prior to each show or by reservation with the Almichs at 541-347-2517.
