Did you know?

Did you that dental implants can help to strengthen bone and to save your existing teeth?

It's true! Dental implants exercise and strengthen bone which resorbs when teeth are lost. They also help distribute chewing forces, which reduces stress on existing teeth, and helps prevent damage to good teeth.

We've come a long way!

With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! We're here to help!

Auditions set for ‘Steel Magnolias’

BANDON – The Bandon Playhouse is seeking talent to fill six female roles for its February 2017 production of “Steel Magnolias.” The comedy-drama auditions are set for 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 13, and from 6-8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14, at the Sprague Theater, 1201 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park.

It’s the 1980s in Louisiana. At Truvy’s beauty shop - motto: “there is no such thing as natural beauty” - the women are all sass and brass. Through clouds of hairspray and over the buzz of blow dryers, six southern spitfires gather each week to gossip and support each other through thick and thin. But those bonds are about to be tested when M’Lynn and her daughter Shelby face a life-changing event. Infused with heart and humor, “Steel Magnolias” is a hilarious story of love, loss, and enduring friendship.

All of these women are fighters. They are real human beings with depth, humor and zest for living.

For more information, visit bandonplayhouse.org or contact Paul Hay, producer at 970-317-1979 or Stiles Gunn, director at 541-683-8890.

Langlois Holiday Crafts Fair coming

LANGLOIS – Holiday shopping abounds at the 21st Annual Holiday Crafts Fair at the Langlois Lions Hall on Floras Loop Road just south of town. The Crafts Fair will be held from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, and is sponsored by the Langlois Lions and the Friends of the Langlois Public Library.

There will be many returning vendors as well as new ones, offering their unique crafts and wares. A hot lunch will be available both days. Friday is Sandie McDonald’s World Famous Chicken Pot Pie and salad. Saturday is McDonald’s clam chowder and coleslaw. Vegetarian options are also available.

Those who have been here before know what to expect - a large but homey building with tons of parking. The Langlois Lions Hall has easy access off U.S. Highway 101 – look for the “Fair” sign. Everyone is welcome to enjoy great shopping, food and friends. For more information call 541-348-2066.

Odd Fellows seek applicants for UN trip

BANDON – The United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth is an all-expenses-paid educational trip to visit the United Nations in New York as well as other sites in NYC, and historical sites along the East Coast, including Philadelphia, Washington D.C., Gettysburg and Ottawa, Canada. It is sponsored by the Bandon Odd Fellows Lodge No. 133.

Each year, applicants from Bandon High School, Pacific High School or home-schooled students are invited to write an essay and be interviewed by a panel of Odd Fellows members. They are chosen based on their essay, as well as evidence of leadership, character, concern for community welfare and interest in world affairs.

The UNEP was created by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in 1949 to bring high school students from around the world together to learn about the United Nations. The Bandon Odd Fellows have been sending between three and six local students each year for more than 50 years.

Students must be at least 16 years old by the time of the trip and have at least one year of high school left.

This year, students must write a minimum 500-word essay on the following topic “Describe the Involvement of the United Nations in a Current World Affair.”

Additionally, students must write approximately a 50-word essay on the following topic “Why you would like to participate in this trip.”

Essays are due to the Bandon High School office by 3:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4. Interviews of essay finalists will be held at the Bandon Odd Fellows Hall at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 13.

Students should dress appropriately for an interview.

The Pilgrimage will be from Saturday, July 8, 2017 through July 18, 2017, with the send-off dinner at the state Odd Fellows Lodge in Portland being held on Friday, July 7, 2017.

For more information, contact Connie Thrush at 541-347-5078 or visit www.unpilgrimage.org. The Bandon Odd Fellows are seeking new members. Meetings are at 7 p.m. the second Tuesday of each month at the Odd Fellows Hall on Highway 42S and Ohio Avenue Southeast.

AARP Safe Driver class offered

BANDON - The Bandon Public Library will sponsor an AARP Safe Driver class from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9.

The AARP Safe Driver course offers people an important opportunity to learn how to drive more efficiently and safely. The course contains up-to-date information about changes over time in ourselves, our vehicles, our roads and our laws. The content of this course can help boost safety awareness, refresh and improve driving skill, minimize crash risk, increase confidence, prolong mobility and maintain independence.

Completion of this one-day, six-hour driving refresher course can yield discounted auto insurance premiums for individuals 55 and over. The course fee for AARP members is $15 or $20 for non-members, and is payable to AARP at the class.

Bandon Public Library is at 1204 11th St. SW. Register by calling Judi Collins at 916-835-2184.

For Saturday, 10:00am on Friday and Monday 11:30am on Friday. There is a $1 non-optional charge for publication on mobile devices.

Crafters present annual Holiday Sale

BANDON – Quality Crafters Guild presents their annual Holiday Sale from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 12, at The Barn in Bandon City Park.

Local artisans will be selling quilted and knitted items, seasonal decorations, purses/totes and many collectibles and unique gifts. The sale will also feature jewelry, fleece items and handmade myrtlewood products and other hand-crafted items. New this year are vignettes from the seashore, cork decorations, local-inspired greeting cards and more.

Museum to hold Veterans Celebration

BANDON – The Bandon Historical Society Museum is inviting people with military collections to put their material on exhibit for a day as part of the museum’s Veterans Celebration on Saturday, Nov. 12, the day after Veterans Day.

The veterans event will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission will be free for the day and the public is invited. Military vehicles will be on display outside.

Museum volunteer and Air Force veteran Rick Hinojosa is the organizer for the veterans event. Several collectors shared collections at the museum last year.

“Collectors like to have a chance to show their stuff and share their knowledge,” said Hinojosa. “The collections become a good starting point, for both veterans and non-veterans, to talk about military service, whether the items are from the Revolutionary War or the current conflicts in the Middle East.”

Interested exhibitors can contact Hinojosa directly at 541-290-7591 or through the museum at 541-347-2164.

The museum is also looking for service photos of Bandon’s veterans.

“If you consider Bandon your home and served in the military, we would like to have a photo of you in uniform in our collection,” said Jim Proehl, museum board president. “We’ll scan the picture and return it to you.”

The Bandon Historical Society Museum is located at the corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Avenue and is open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
