It's true! William Addis came up with the idea while in prison, using the know-how of the Chinese, who had toothbrushes way back in the 1500's. The brushes were made of stiff cow hair and bones.

BMA offers Lenten series

BANDON – The Bandon Ministerial Association will once again be presenting a six-week Lenten Lunch Study series each Thursday at noon, beginning March 9. This year’s study is “No Wonder They Crucified Him,” written by Daniel Meyer. According to a press release from the BMA: Of all the people admired in the world today, Jesus of Nazareth continually ranks at the top of the list. Even those who don’t call themselves Christians regard Jesus as one of the wisest teachers and most loving leaders the world has ever known. He is still making the covers of magazines and being talked about in coffee shops with a popularity like no other person who has walked this earth. So why did his contemporaries kill him? This six-session course examines Jesus as not simply meek and mild, but as a dangerous man because he was and is the God who is dangerously good. This study will take a fresh look at Jesus’ call to action.

This year’s host church schedule is as follows: March 9 at Unity of Bandon; March 16 and 30 at St. John Episcopal Church; March 23 at First Presbyterian Church; April 6 and 13 at First Baptist Church. Those leading the study include local clergy Greg Fodrea, Bobbi Neason the globe.

The group, consisting of Ayumi Ueda, Annette Philip, Débo Ray, and Giorgia Renosto, is a microcosm of the world, bringing women musicians onto a common platform to collaborate and create. Not only is it a sharing of music, but also exploring and celebrating the differences in ideologies and cultural tenets that exist in the daily lives of women all over the world.

With a repertoire of folk and traditional music spanning 27 languages, Women of the World continues to serve as cultural ambassadors of peace and unity.

“By making music together, we have made beautiful friendships,” a group spokeswoman said. “In this spirit, we celebrate the beauty of diversity. We sing for not just tolerance, but wisdom, respect and joy. We, as Women of the World, believe in the power of music. We believe in our bond. We believe in peace.”

Coastal Mist Chocolate Boutique and Edgewaters will serve complimentary treats and wine during intermission, along with Showcase’s cookies and punch.

Reserved seating tickets cost $25 each and are available at Bandon Mercantile, 541-347-4341, by visiting www.bandonshowcase.org or at the door.
