Bandon historical hike to be held Sunday

BANDON – Join archaeologist and historian Reg Pullen for a 4-mile walking tour of Bandon on Sunday, Aug. 7, sponsored by the South Coast Striders. Meet at 9 a.m. in the public parking lot in Old Town Bandon at the corner of Second St. SE and Alabama Ave.

Pullen will share all the local lore and colorful history of Bandon while touring various historical points of interest. The total hike is 4 miles, rated moderate, with some sand walking involved, and should last 2.5-3 hours. The first part of the walk will take place in Old Town Bandon, and those who do not wish to participate in the longer beach walk can end their walk there.

Dress appropriately for the weather. A windbreaker with a hood is recommended for the beach section. Walking sticks might be helpful for the beginning of the beach walk. Bring water. Those participating might want to pack a lunch to each on the Bandon Boardwalk, or are invited to each at one of Bandon's many fine lunch spots. After the hike, those with an interest in Bandon's history are encouraged to stop by the Bandon Historical Society Museum at U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Ave., which is open until 4 p.m. Sunday.

Shakespeare and song with 'Dangling Conversation' at Sprague Theater

BANDON – Frolic with Shakespeare's best-loved romantic duos in "Dangling Conversation," a contemporary cabaret of Shakespeare and song presented by the Bandon Playhouse. Shows are one weekend only, Aug. 5, 6 and 7 at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW in Bandon.

Four hundred years after the Bard's death, his classic girl-meets-boy story lines are still favorites for actors and audiences. Shakespeare's couples woo with sweet words, then joust in jealous spats.

"Dangling Conversation," (a reference to a Simon & Garfunkel song), features selections from eight of Shakespeare's best-loved comedic and tragic romances, such as "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Taming of the Shrew," "Hamlet," and "Romeo and Juliet." Scenes are embroidered with classical and folk music.

The players are six of Bandon's young adult performers: Tessa Fuller, Josiah Hay, Lachlan Miller, Autumn Moss-Strong, Darby Underdown and Max Underdown. These high school and college students boast award-winning participating in speech, theater and music groups.

The show is directed by Mike Dempsey, with Geneva Miller as creative director. Crystal Landucci and Candace Kreitlow will accompany the performers on piano, guitar and harp.

Performances are at 7 p.m. Friday and Sunday and at 2 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $10. Advance tickets are available at Bandon Mercantile Company, 535 Second St. SE. For will-call tickets, call 541-236-5105.
