Did you know?

Did you know that Queen Elizabeth I suffered from severe tooth decay?

It's true! In 1598 it was noted that she suffered from terrible toothaches, and the remaining teeth she had were black. The cause seemed to be her excessive use of sugar, which was a common problem among of the British aristocracy. If they just knew about toothbrushes!

We've come a long way!

Preppers to meet in Bandon

BANDON – Southwestern Oregon Preppers will hold a meeting at noon Saturday, May 21, at the Bandon Rural Fire Department, U.S. Highway 101 South and 17th Street in Bandon.

“Starting Over” is the main topic. Are you prepared to start over after a disaster? Disasters can be personal, affecting only you, or major, affecting cities. Ideas and strategies will be presented and discussed. SWOP meetings always start with a question and answer period before the main topic so all in attendance get a chance to participate.

This is a free public meeting to get to know fellow local preppers in southwestern Oregon counties and to exchange information and ideas.

It is important for individuals to understand that they will be “on their own” in the event of a disaster and not to depend on receiving outside help. Join Southwestern Oregon Preppers on Facebook and/or meetup.com.

Students sought for museum work

BANDON – The Bandon Historical Museum is looking for student employees for the summer of 2016. Bandon students currently enrolled in high school or college may apply for the positions. A grant from the Oregon Community Foundation will fund most of the employment program.

One hundred fifty hours of work are available at $10.50 per hour.

The museum will likely divide the hours among more than one student employee.

Last summer, three Bandon High students, Ally Richert, Samantha Dow and Darby Underdown, each worked 50 hours for the museum. The student employee concept was initiated through a grant from Bandon High’s Community 101 program. The student employees were involved in all aspects of the museum’s operations. Students performed jobs that included sorting and filing, scanning photos, serving museum visitors, typing, running copies, sprucing up exhibits, data entry, writing articles and keeping the plants watered.

Employment applications are available at the museum front desk, on the museum’s web site (www.bandonhistoricalmuseum.org) and at Bandon High School.

Applicants with questions can contact Judy Knox at the museum, 541-347-2164, or email jimproehl@live.com.

The show will be directed by Donald Zealand and performed Aug. 19, 20 and 21 and Aug. 26, 27 and 28, at the Sprague Theater. For more information, call Zealand at 928-301-0045.

Bandon Showcase ends season with sold-out performance of the Kingston Trio

BANDON – Monday, May 23, will be the final performance of the Bandon Showcase season, featuring the iconic Kingston Trio. The show is sold out and those interested in tickets are being put on a waiting list at Bandon Mercantile.

“There has been great excitement in the community for this show since it was announced this time last year,” said Bandon Showcase president Ann Patrick. “The Kingston Trio performance has been sold out for over two months.”

Patrick added that it has been an exceptional season for Bandon Showcase that started with The Diamonds, included a memorable Celtic holiday performance and then the Barefoot Movement from Nashville. All of the performances for the season sold out at the Sprague Community Theater.

For the last 14 years Bandon Showcase has presented performances from all genres – classical, Broadway, country/bluegrass, big band, jazz, international stars including the Vienna Boys Choir, choral and dance.

“Showcase seems to have hit a hot button with '60s music as the Alley Cats were great fun,” Patrick said. “The Diamonds rocked the house and now Kingston Trio is so widely anticipated.”

Traditionally Bandon Showcase uses stage time during the final performance of the season to announce next season's lineup of shows and they will do so at the Kingston Trio performance. The 2016-17 season will include five shows, all highly revered professional entertainers who will be touring the Northwest next year. Watch for the Bandon Showcase announcement and season ticket order form in June. For more information, visit www.bandon-showcase.org.
