Did you know?

Did you know that in the days of the American Revolution, one of the most famous makers of false teeth was Paul Revere?

It's true! Paul Revere was a patriot and soldier, as well as a famous silversmith. He made false teeth and dentures for the patrons of Boston. Those silver teeth might be called grills today!

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better! Ask us about implants!

Travel Night features Camino de Santiago trip

BANDON – Travel Night will feature “Buen Camino – An Experience of the Camino de Santiago” at 7 p.m., Monday, July 26, at the Bandon
Public Library Sprague Room.

The Camino de Santiago (the way of St. James) is a large network of ancient routes, stretching across Europe and coming together at the tomb of St. James in Santiago de Compostela in northwest Spain. In May, Nancy and Roy Green undertook the Camino de Santiago, walking 100 miles in stages, from the Pyrenees at the border of France to the cathedral in Santiago. They traveled with a teacher who spoke of the history, architecture, politics and sacred way of millions of pilgrims.

This Travel Night, “Buen Camino,” will share some of those lessons, as well as give a taste of the land and the walk itself. Roy Green is interim pastor at St. John Episcopal Church in Bandon.

Everyone is welcome, there is no cost to attend and refreshments will be served.

Travel Night is sponsored by Bandon Library Friends and Foundation, www.bandonlff.org.

‘Music as the Muse’ art show to open at hospital on Sunday

BANDON – The Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center is hosting a show of artworks created using music as the muse. In addition to works by many local artists, the show will feature works by local artist Pat Pike, who passed away last year.

An opening reception will be held from 1-3 p.m., Sunday, July 26. Refreshments will be provided by the Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center Auxiliary. Local harpist Candace Kreitlow will provide music for the event. She and local artist Kathleen Morey Bailey will collaborate on an energy painting.

Paintings by artists in the show will be for sale. The Southern Coos Health Foundation will accept a donation of a percentage of any purchased artwork.

The 2015 Quarterly Art Shows are made possible with support from Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center and the Southern Coos Health Foundation. The shows are held for the benefit of the Bandon and southern Oregon coast community: patients and families, visitors, staff, and the public. Donations are welcome to help support continuing shows. Contact Southern Coos Health Foundation at the contact information below to make a donation.

For more information about this event, contact Southern Coos Health Foundation Director Scott McEachern, 541-329-1040 or smeachern@southencoos.org.

Dance in Sixes during ‘Contra on the Coast’ weekend

SIXES - Swing a partner or just enjoy the music at the South Coast Folk Society’s “Contra at the Coast” weekend July 31-Aug. 2 at Sixes Grange, 44556 Highway 101, five miles north of Port Orford.

On Saturday, Aug. 1, enjoy contra dancing 7-10 p.m. to the lively tunes of the Outstanding Open Band and local callers Greg McKenzie, Karen Olsen and Stacy Rose.

Admission is $5 for adults, and children are free. No partner or experience are necessary; the caller teaches every dance. Come promptly at 7 p.m. for a beginners’ lesson.

On Sunday, Aug. 2, enjoy “Waltzes at One” 1-2 p.m. and then Scottish, folk and English country dancing 2-4 p.m. At other times during the weekend, join the Outstanding Open Band for acoustic jams and fun at Edson Creek Campground.

Reservations are strongly recommended:

www.recreation.gov/camping/edson-creek-group-campground, or try Sixes River Campground 11 miles away. Learn more about contra dancing at <http://southcoastfolksociety.wordpress.com>.

Puppeteer will perform at library

BANDON – Penny’s Puppet Productions will be entertaining at the Bandon Public Library to help close out the 2015 Summer Reading Program at 2 p.m. Friday, July 31, in the library’s Sprague Community Room.

International puppeteer and storyteller Penny Walter will present “Super Hero Machine” featuring Super Donkey. Will Vinnie the Villain steal the Super Hero Machine? Can Super Donkey save the day? Everyone is invited to attend and find out.

This free performance is sponsored by the Oregon College Savings Plan. For more information, contact children’s librarian Julie Tipton at 541-347-3221.

Washed Ashore offers science and art day camp for youths

BANDON – The Washed Ashore Science and Art Summer Camp will explore the evolution of the “plastic tribe” of which we are all a part. Every day camp participants will work with artists to discover how marine debris can be re-purposed and they will eventually create masks that will be displayed at Harbortown Events Center.

Summer Camp dates are Monday, Aug. 3, through Friday, Aug. 7. Camp starts at 9 a.m. and ends at noon at various locations, including throughout the week, including the Harbortown Events Center, 325 Second St. SE in Old Town Bandon, Devil’s Kitchen wayside and Art 101 on U.S. Highway 101.

On the Saturday following the camp, kids will have the opportunity to display their masks in the Harbortown Events Center. While learning about how to create works of art, they will also learn about how marine debris reaches our shores and how our choices affect the environment. The camp will keep kids active both physically and mentally as they explore local beaches and both Washed Ashore facilities, according to organizers.

Local business have also been kind enough to provide snacks for the camp and scholarship money for financial assistance, according to organizers. Cost of the camp is $20 for the week. Enroll at washedashore.org/register.

For more information, contact Patrick Chandler, education director, Washed Ashore Project, 541-329-0317 or pchandler@WashedAshore.org. For more information about Washed Ashore, visit www.WashedAshore.org.

‘A Salute to Broadway’ at Dolphin Playhouse

EMPIRE — The Great White Way comes to Empire as the Dolphin Players present “A Salute to Broadway” weekends through July 26, in cooperation with the Oregon Coast Music Festival.

Including songs from “Wicked,” “Cabaret,” “The Wizard of Oz,” and Disney and other Broadway musicals that will be featured in the Festival’s Pops Concert, the fast-paced revue features 18 local singers and musicians, many known to Bay Area audiences with a few fresh faces added to the cast.

Curtain is 7 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays, and there will be no performance on Saturday, July 25, so the cast can attend the Oregon Coast Music Festival orchestra concert. Admission is free, but donations are welcome.

The Dolphin Playhouse is at 580 Newmark in the Empire district. For more information or reservations, call 541-808-2611.

When Old Town was Downtown

Friday, July 31, 6 p.m.

The Port of Bandon and the Bandon Historical Society Museum will present When Old Town was Downtown by local historian Jim Proehl. Proehl will have a PowerPoint with pictures of the town before the two fires of 1914 and 1936.

He gives an understanding of where the old businesses were in relation to present day Bandon.

Roaring Sea open house is Sunday

PORT ORFORD – The Roaring Sea Arts July open house will be held from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, July 26, with an afternoon of music and poetry.

The open house will again include some summer guests. The Kammeroque Trio with Suzanne Monks, Stephanie Hazle and Donna Roselius will have the addition of John Monks. Back once more will be Luke and Strider Kachelein. (Strider will play once more before he leaves in August, when the open house will be a week early). Nate Malamud will add more variety, as will poets Weld Champneys and Cairehn McGowan (perhaps others, but not Joyce Mueller, who is away for a summer trip).

All musical, poetic, and artistic participants and audience members are welcome. Impromptu creations are encouraged for anyone who wants to add art to the “gallery.” Everyone is invited to enjoy the sights, sounds and potluck snacks, with many refreshments provided.

For further information about treats of all kinds (edible, musical, artistic), call Roselius at 541-332-4444 or Monks at 541-332-0540.

The entrance to the Roselius home, where Roaring Sea Studio is located, is the driveway shared with the Sea Crest Motel. Turn left from the driveway’s end and park at the first house (No. 40). Park along the main driveway, or in neighboring driveways, wherever there is room. The neighbors at the cul-de-sac, allow parking on the right hand side of their driveway.
