Did you know?

Did you know that the anesthetic Novocaine is not used by dentists?

It's true! The local anesthetic procaine was invented in 1905 and given the name Novocaine. It was widely used by dentists. In the 1940's and '50's, safer and more effective anesthetics were developed. Novocaine has not been used in dentistry since the late 1970's.

Mosaics by various artists at library in July

BANDON – In July, the Bandon Library Art Gallery presents the second annual Mosaic Show: “More than a Stepping Stone.” Celebrating mosaic art in all forms, from abstract and conceptual wall art to micro-mosaic jewelry and crafts pieces, “More than a Stepping Stone” is a good place to explore this exciting medium. The show features work by artists from southern Washington to Port Orford, and includes a display of raw materials, definitions of terms, and information about resources. Most of the pieces are for sale, and many of the artists do commission work.

The show is available for viewing at the library Tuesdays through Saturdays from July 1 through 31.

‘Lighthouse Sessions’ features live music at marketplace on July 4

BANDON – The Old Town Marketplace, 250 First St. SW., will be open Friday and Saturday as usual, but will be also be open Sunday and Monday, July 3 and July 4. Market hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Special music and beer and wine will be available all weekend during market hours.

A new event, “Lighthouse Sessions,” is scheduled on the Fourth of July at the Old Town Marketplace, arranged by The Beverage Barn and the Port of Bandon.

The parking lot in front of the market will be roped off and live music will be presented, in two- or three-hour slots, beginning at noon and throughout the day until dusk. There is no admission fee and all ages are welcome.

Oregon craft beer, sodas and wine will be available for purchase, and there will be a food court with pizza, tacos, chowder and more. There will also be activities, including corn hole games for the kids, as well as giveaways all day.

Featured musicians include, in order of appearance, Dune Fougerolles, Allen Giardinelli, Nashville recording artist Morgan Alexander, The Rogue Rebellion, T Bird & The Part Timers and ending with the Coos County Fire Tribe presenting a fire show.

“We have worked very hard to make this happen,” said Lori Osborne, co-owner of The Beverage Barn with her husband Barry. “A special thank-you goes out to the Port of Bandon. I can’t think of a better place to have this event than the waterfront of beautiful Bandon.”

People are asked to bring their own lawn chairs into the area any time during the day, sit and listen to the music and enjoy food, beer and wine. Bring jackets and blankets if you plan to stay into the evening for the fireworks, as it often gets chilly on the waterfront.
