Travel Night features Faulkland Islands

Travel Night will be held at 7 p.m., Monday, April 24, at the Bandon Public Library Sprague Room, 1204 11th St. SW. This program will be on the Falkland Islands, and presented by Kent Hall and Bev Minn.

Comprising two main islands and some 200 smaller islands, the Falklands are located about 300 miles east of the southern tip of South America. Land birds make up most of their bird population, but the islands are also home to five species of penguins. Marine mammals such as elephant seals, sea lions, whales, dolphins and porpoises also visit there.

This should be a fascinating, educational program, according to organizers. Everyone is welcome, there's no cost to attend, and refreshments will be served.

Have you taken a trip you'd like to share with an appreciative audience? Consider giving a Travel Night presentation. You provide the photos, any mementos, and information for a 45-minute presentation. BLFF provides the room, equipment, refreshments and advertising.

For more information, contact Marilyn Noorda at 541-347-4757.

Tufted Puffin Party set for April 29

BANDON - Come help Shoreline Education for Awareness ceremoniously welcome the tufted puffins back to Bandon for the season at the annual Tufted Puffin Party from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, April 29, at Face Rock wayside off Beach Loop Drive in Bandon.

SEA volunteers will be on the bluff with scopes to try to spot the elusive "sea parrot." There will be refreshments, giveaways and a prize awarded to the first kid to sight a puffin.

This event is sponsored by SEA. For more information, call 541-260-7770, email: info@sea-edu.org, or visit the website at <http://www.sea-edu.org/>.

Bandon Rotary's Wine & Cheese event coming May 6

BANDON - Sample dozens of savory domestic and imported cheeses provided by Face Rock Creamery, taste regional and imported wines and beer and enjoy tasty hors d'oeuvres provided by Coastal Mist at Bandon Rotary's 23rd annual Wine & Cheese Extravaganza, from 6-10 p.m. Saturday, May 6, at the Bandon Community Center, 1200 11th St. S.W. in Bandon City Park.

Enjoy cheese and wine/beer pairings, suggested by this year's esteemed guest, Steve Jones, a cheesemonger, educator and cheese ambassador.

Jones began his cheesemongering career nearly 20 years ago, opening several cheese counters in the Midwest. In 2006 Jones launched his own retail business, Steve's Cheese, a small cheese counter in northwest Portland that quickly developed a cult following. In March 2010, the business moved to Cheese Bar, a retail cheese counter and casual restaurant that offers a rotating menu built with artisan and farmstead products. Cheese Bar allows Jones to share his love of beer and his pursuit of interesting cheese and beer/wine pairings.

The Rotary event will also feature a no-host bar provided by Edgewaters, dozens of silent and live auction items and a wine grab raffle, with a chance to win a $100 bottle of wine.

Proceeds will benefit many local and international Rotary projects, as well as scholarships for Bandon High School graduating seniors.

Tickets cost $35 each will be available soon at Bandon Mercantile, Edward Jones Investments, from Bandon Rotary members and at the door.

Enjoy an elegant evening at one of Bandon's most anticipated fundraising events. Tickets often sell out, so plan to get yours early.

Bandon Rotary sends students to RYLA leadership camp, awards scholarships to Bandon High School seniors, provides Shots for Tots and Teens, supports the Ready to Smile dental program, donates to Bandon Feeds the Hungry, sponsors the BHS speech and robotics teams and other scholastic endeavors, supports the Shoes That Fit program, sponsors the Gift of Literacy program, purchases Shelter Boxes to be used in the aftermath of a disaster, sponsors the Coos County Animal Shelter's mobile unit and supports the PolioPlus campaign to end polio worldwide, among other efforts.

Bandon and all Rotarians are committed to improving the lives of those within their community, nation and world.

For more information, visit www.bandonrotary.org or "like" their Facebook page.

Sweet Speeches coming May 4

BANDON – The final Sweet Speech Celebration will be on Thursday, May 4, at the Sprague Community Theater. Since the date is May 4, the team has decided to have a Star Wars theme: “May the 4th be with You!”

Support the Bandon High School speech team by inviting friends and attending Sweet Speeches. Each member of the team will perform on the Sprague Theater stage during the Star Wars introduction skit, as well as skits introducing the team’s favorite award-winning interpretations of the season. This is the team’s exciting, not-to-be-missed Sweet Speeches celebration. Donations are also needed for the silent auction.

Performers will include: Jackson Turner, After Dinner Speech, “Idioms”; Dustin Wilson and Josiah Hay, dual interpretation, “Into the Woods” by Stephen Sondheim; Jackson Turner and Jacob Tidwell, dual interpretation, “Everyone is Going to Die” by Clyde Hendrickson; David Fodrea and Isabel Winston, dual interpretation, “Universal Language” by David Ives; Nick Turner and Les Anderson, dual interpretation, “Alvin Ho: Allergic to Girls” by Lenore Look; Keeton Jennings, humorous interpretation, “Don’t Encourage Him” by Jason Taylor; David Vincent, humorous interpretation, “The Dreaded Batter Pudding Hurler” by Spike Milligan; Donnegal Gordon, dramatic interpretation, “Sunflower Forrest” by Torey Hayden; and the senior final farewell.

LTOB presents ‘My Fair Lady’

NORTH BEND – Little Theater on the Bay presents “My Fair Lady” at The Liberty Theatre in North Bend. Performance dates are April 21, 22, 23; and April 28, 29 and 30. Friday and Saturday performances are at 7 p.m. with Sunday matinees at 2 p.m.

Tickets are priced at $11 for children and seniors and $13 for adults. There will be a special wine tasting benefit on Thursday, April 20, which includes a show ticket. Cost for the wine tasting benefit is $75.

“My Fair Lady” is a musical based on George Bernard Shaw’s “Pygmalion,” with book and lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner and music by Frederick Loewe. The story concerns Eliza Doolittle, a Cockney flower girl who takes speech lessons from professor Henry Higgins, a phoneticist, so that she may pass as a lady.

This show is the standard by which all other musicals are measured and features one of musical theater’s greatest scores.

For additional information regarding show information, visit www.thelibertytheatre.org.

Since 1959, the LTOB has operated and managed North Bend’s historic Liberty Theatre as a performing arts venue serving residents and visitors to Coos County. The restoration project is designed to ensure North Bend’s 92-year-old Liberty Theatre’s role as the architectural and cultural hub of the community is preserved and protected in time for the centennial celebration of the building’s opening scheduled for spring 2024.

The Little Theatre on the Bay is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is “to cultivate the arts in Coos County.”

‘Longmire’ author coming to South Coast

BANDON – Meet author Craig Johnson during the next Coos County Title Wave event. Johnson is the New York Times bestselling author of the Walt Longmire mystery novels, which are the basis for Longmire, the hit Netflix original drama.

Johnson has written 14 novels in his popular Walt Longmire series and has won many awards, including the Western Writers of America’s Spur Award, the Wyoming State Historical Association’s Book of the Year, France’s Le Prix 813, and the Mountains & Plains Independent Booksellers Book of the Year.

Johnson lives in Ucross, Wyoming, population 25, library officials said. He will be speaking about his novel and life as a writer. Johnson’s visits include:

Monday, April 24, 2 p.m. at the Sprague Community Theater in Bandon

Monday, April 24, 7 p.m. at Coos Bay Public Library

Tuesday, April 25, 2 p.m. at North Bend Public Library

Tuesday, April 25, 7 p.m. at Coquille Public Library.

Johnson’s visit is made possible by the Friends of the Library and Library Foundations of Coos County, the Coos County Library Service District, Books by the Bay, the Mill Casino, and WinterRiver Books.

Auditions to be held for ‘Wizard of Oz’

BANDON - The Bandon Playhouse, in conjunction with the 75th Anniversary of the original stage version, is holding pre-audition sign-ups for a full-scale musical revival of “The Wizard of Oz,” directed by Jeff Norris and produced by Paul Hay.

Auditions will be held from 1-3 p.m. for children and 3-6 p.m. for adults Saturday, April 29, with the same times for Sunday, April 30, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park. To reserve an audition spot, sign up at www.wizardinbandon.net. Walk-ins are also welcome, but it is helpful for actors to pre-register if possible.

Be prepared to sing a song, do a cold script reading and bring any scheduling conflicts. At least eight main characters are needed, which includes three women and five men. However, the show has plenty of space for a cast of all ages, ranging from 5 to 75.

Show dates will be Thursday-Sunday, Aug. 10, 11, 12 and 13; Aug. 17, 18, 19 and 20; and Aug. 24, 25, 26 and 27, at the Sprague Theater.

For more information, visit www.wizardinbandon.net or contact Hay at 541-329-0644.
